

We have several heavy payments to make shortly, and in order to meet our engagements...

A Democratic Jubilee. Will be held at the public house of Samuel Hall...

The Sinclair Children. We are pleased to announce that these highly talented and interesting children...

Torch Light Processions. On Wednesday evening last, the Democrats of Concord and vicinity celebrated the recent victory...

New Patents. We are pleased to learn that Alderman J. F. Reigart, of this City, has succeeded in obtaining Letters Patent for Mr. George Winter, of Portsmouth...

GORMLEY'S "HIMSELF AGAIN". See advertisement of "Clothing Bazaar" in another column. GORMLEY knows exactly how to select a stock of goods suitable for the Lancaster market...

The official returns of Lancaster county will be found on our first page, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

The German Reformed Synod of Pennsylvania, which had a long and interesting session in this city, adjourned sine die on Thursday.

The Speaker'ship. In the next State Legislature, the Whigs having a majority in the Senate, will, of course, elect the Speaker.

Clerk of the House. Our talented and estimable friend, Col. JOHN W. FOREY, of the Pennsylvania, is very generally spoken of in connection with the Clerkship of the next House of Representatives, at Washington.

From California. The steamer Illinois brings news up to the 15th of September. The Democrats have elected two members of Congress and two-thirds of both branches of the Legislature.

The TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—We omitted to mention last week the kindness and attention of the obliging Superintendent in this City, Mr. A. DENNISON, and his no less accommodating assistant operator, Mr. WILLIAM M. WILEY, during the night of the election and subsequently.

Nothing short of steam can keep pace with the progress of the age—for blood horses are becoming obsolete, and racing is now done between locomotives, as will be seen by the number for last week of "GARDNER'S DRIVERS BOOK COMPANION," which illustrates an engine race at Lowell, Massachusetts.

The Pennsylvania State Agricultural Fair commences at Harrisburg, TO-MORROW.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION

Table with columns: COUNTY, DEMOCRATS, WHIGS, Total. Lists results for various counties including Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Berks, Bedford, Bucks, Butler, Cambria, Carbon, Centre, Chester, Clarion, Clearfield, Clinton, Columbia, Crawford, Cumberland, Dauphin, Delaware, Elk, Erie, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Greene, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, McKean, Mercer, Mifflin, Monroe, Montour, Montgomery, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Philadelphia city and co., Pike, Potter, Schuylkill, Somerset, Susquehanna, Sullivan, Wayne, Westmoreland, Wyoming, York.

The above table is as complete a return of the vote for Governor as can be obtained prior to the meeting of the Legislature—the total being 186,844 for Democrats and 178,358 for Whigs.

Information Desired. The Judicial ticket, as published in all the Democratic papers of the State—in the Lancasterian—and as ordered to be printed by the Democratic State Central Committee, read as follows:

Jeremiah S. Black, James Campbell, Ellis Lewis, John B. Gibson, Walter H. Lowrie.

Was it because, by placing the names of Judges Lewis and Campbell at the bottom of the ticket, it would be so much easier to strike their names than if they had been retained in the proper place? The fact that they were both struck in this county several hundred votes would seem to favor the inference. But we only ask for information. Will our neighbor give it?

The "Express" finding that its slanderous and libellous attacks upon Judge Lewis, did not avail it much in the end, has now commenced the same system of warfare upon the Hon. Jas. Breckenridge—and for what? Because, forsooth, some five or six hundred Democrats of this City thought proper to march out in procession to his residence, on the evening of the 16th inst., to congratulate him upon the triumphant election of Col. Broxton and the Democratic State Ticket; and because he saw proper to entertain them for the hour they remained at Wheatland, with that courtesy and liberality for which he is so justly celebrated.

The charge that boys, or men either, got a beastly drunk there, is, we are assured by eye witnesses, entirely destitute of truth. On the contrary, the whole affair was conducted with the utmost propriety, and nothing occurred that could by any possibility give grounds for such a base slander.

The steamer Illinois brings news up to the 15th of September. The Democrats have elected two members of Congress and two-thirds of both branches of the Legislature.

The TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—We omitted to mention last week the kindness and attention of the obliging Superintendent in this City, Mr. A. DENNISON, and his no less accommodating assistant operator, Mr. WILLIAM M. WILEY, during the night of the election and subsequently.

Nothing short of steam can keep pace with the progress of the age—for blood horses are becoming obsolete, and racing is now done between locomotives, as will be seen by the number for last week of "GARDNER'S DRIVERS BOOK COMPANION," which illustrates an engine race at Lowell, Massachusetts.

The Pennsylvania State Agricultural Fair commences at Harrisburg, TO-MORROW.

The Whigs in a Quandary!

The defeat of Johnston in this State and the re-election of Gov. Wood, in Ohio, would seem to have placed General Scott's nomination in jeopardy. It is not to be denied that the Whigs in both States, through their Conventions, have committed themselves to him as their first and only choice.

Such being the condition of the Whig party here, (and it is in pretty much the same fix in Ohio and New York,) we do not well see how they can venture to hold a National Convention at all—particularly as it is well known that the Southern Whigs are utterly opposed to Scott's nomination.

Gov. Johnston Dies Hard! "The Groans of the Britons!" The Harrisburg Daily American—the organ of Governor Johnston, and edited by his brother—pitches into the affections of certain Whigs in the following "cut and thrust" style.

In 1848, the Whig National Convention nominated Zachary Taylor and Millard Fillmore, as the standard bearers of the Whig party in that contest.

The nomination of Gen. Taylor was effected after a severe struggle, and Gen. Johnston was a member of that Convention. It was at his suggestion that the Pennsylvania delegation cast their vote for Millard Fillmore.

In consequence of that nomination, Mr. Fillmore was elected Vice President, and in consequence of that election, he was elected President of the United States.

How does Mr. Fillmore requite these efforts? How does he requite the Whig party of the United States? How does he requite the Whig party of Pennsylvania? After stating the glowing prospects of Governor Johnston before the election, and the confidence it felt in his success, the American says—

In 1848, the Whig National Convention nominated Zachary Taylor and Millard Fillmore, as the standard bearers of the Whig party in that contest.

The nomination of Gen. Taylor was effected after a severe struggle, and Gen. Johnston was a member of that Convention. It was at his suggestion that the Pennsylvania delegation cast their vote for Millard Fillmore.

In consequence of that nomination, Mr. Fillmore was elected Vice President, and in consequence of that election, he was elected President of the United States.

How does Mr. Fillmore requite these efforts? How does he requite the Whig party of the United States? How does he requite the Whig party of Pennsylvania? After stating the glowing prospects of Governor Johnston before the election, and the confidence it felt in his success, the American says—

The official returns shows the election of the following persons for Judges of the respective Judicial Districts:

Table with columns: DISTRICT, DEMOCRATS, WHIGS, Total. Lists results for Philadelphia City, Philadelphia County, and various other districts.

The official returns shows the election of the following persons for Judges of the respective Judicial Districts:

Table with columns: DISTRICT, DEMOCRATS, WHIGS, Total. Lists results for Philadelphia City, Philadelphia County, and various other districts.

The official returns shows the election of the following persons for Judges of the respective Judicial Districts:

Table with columns: DISTRICT, DEMOCRATS, WHIGS, Total. Lists results for Philadelphia City, Philadelphia County, and various other districts.

The official returns shows the election of the following persons for Judges of the respective Judicial Districts:

Table with columns: DISTRICT, DEMOCRATS, WHIGS, Total. Lists results for Philadelphia City, Philadelphia County, and various other districts.

The official returns shows the election of the following persons for Judges of the respective Judicial Districts:

Table with columns: DISTRICT, DEMOCRATS, WHIGS, Total. Lists results for Philadelphia City, Philadelphia County, and various other districts.

The official returns shows the election of the following persons for Judges of the respective Judicial Districts:

The official returns shows the election of the following persons for Judges of the respective Judicial Districts:

Pennsylvania Legislature—Session 1852.

SENATE. 1. Philadelphia city—Benjamin Matthews, Wm. A. Crabb. 2. Philadelphia county—Thomas S. Fernon, Thomas H. Forsyth, Geo. H. Harrison.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Adams—Dennis M. Stewart. Allegheny—John McCreary, James Fife, G. E. Appleton, T. Penny, J. Miller.

Very Distressing. Week before last, Frederick Roemer, a merchant of Chambersburg, Pa., fell ill. His liabilities were estimated at thirty thousand dollars.

Mr. Buchanan—The Succession—The Last Hope of Democracy. We do not feel disposed, whilst annoyed by an equivocal cough, and a September chill, to go into a very elaborate discourse, on the subject of the Presidency.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Very Distressing.

Week before last, Frederick Roemer, a merchant of Chambersburg, Pa., fell ill. His liabilities were estimated at thirty thousand dollars.

Mr. Buchanan—The Succession—The Last Hope of Democracy. We do not feel disposed, whilst annoyed by an equivocal cough, and a September chill, to go into a very elaborate discourse, on the subject of the Presidency.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan—The Succession—The Last Hope of Democracy.

We do not feel disposed, whilst annoyed by an equivocal cough, and a September chill, to go into a very elaborate discourse, on the subject of the Presidency.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Buchanan is the only man in the United States, on the Democratic side, who can carry the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

Buchanan Club; No. 1.

Mr. Sanderson.—Pursuant to public notice, the personal and political friends of the Hon. James Buchanan, in this place, and favorable to his nomination for the office of President of the United States, met at the Town Hall, on Tuesday evening, for the purpose of organizing BUCHANAN CLUB, No. 1, of Lancaster county.

The meeting was large, (notwithstanding the weather was very inclement; and composed of our most respectable citizens. On motion, HUGH BOYLE, Esq., was called to the chair, and JACOB M. STRICKLER, was appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting was then stated in a clear and lucid manner by Dr. N. B. WOOD, who spoke at length of the distinguished public services of Mr. Buchanan, both in his several representative capacities and in his private sphere as a fellow citizen.

At the conclusion of his remarks, he moved the appointment of a committee of nine by the meeting, to report on the propriety of the organization of Buchanan Club, No. 1, of Lancaster county.

The following gentlemen were then designated by the meeting: Dr. N. B. WOOD, Joseph Hogenlogler, Joseph T. Sample, John Murphy, Adam Maxton, Chas. M. Strein, John Arms and J. J. Gault.

The committee retired after a short absence reported the following list of officers for the Club, viz:

President—J. J. GAULT. Vice Presidents—Hugh Boyle, Esq., James Stanley, Robert W. Houston, John Murphy, Paul Hamilton, Joseph List.

Recording Secretary—John T. Houston, C. M. Strickler. Sec. Secretary—William Brown. Treasurer—Joseph Hogenlogler.

Committee of Arrangements—Jacob M. Strickler, John Slack, Adam Maxton, Samuel F. Lockhard, John H. Arms, Chas. E. Beitzel, John Yeasick.

The meeting then adopted the following as the platform of the organization:

"That our distinguished fellow citizen, the Hon. James Buchanan is our first and only choice to fill the office of President of the United States as successor to the present incumbent; and that we will use all honorable means to effect his nomination for that office by the National Democratic Convention, and also, to signify that nomination by his election, deeming both such results as but acts of common justice due our distinguished fellow citizen, and as such, well merited and long neglected Pennsylvania.

The Club roll was then signed by every voter present, and quite a large number of gentlemen were called upon to present their names to be members of the Club. On motion, the names submitted to the people of the United States by the State Democratic Convention of Pennsylvania, of 1844 was then read and pronounced to be a just and democratic vindication of the claims of the Hon. James Buchanan, for the office of President of the United States, and in honor of the address, which is signed by Simon Cameron, William Bigler, Reah Frazer and others, the Club adjourned.

Letter from Baltimore. BALTIMORE, Oct. 26th, 1851. MR. SANDERSON: Dear Sir—Our city has been perfectly brilliant for the past week. The Maryland Institute Exhibition—the Agricultural Fair—and the Italian Exhibition, have attracted immense crowds of the intelligent and wealthy of the country, from all parts of the United States.

Our Hotel could not accommodate half the visitors.—General Scott, Governor Lowe, and Senator Douglas, of Illinois, with great crowds of the handsomest Ladies in the country, were seen at the second night of the World's Fair. The Agricultural Fair, without exception or exaggeration, exceeded any similar display ever witnessed in this country.

Two and a half acres (of one hall) of elegant woodland were elegantly trotting and racing, and the vast number were erected some 1000 stalls, all whitewashed, an filled with the finest blooded horses—Durbam, Devon, Holstein and Ayrshire Cattle, extraordinary Mules and Flocks of sheep. On one side were elegantly trotting and racing, and the vast number were erected some 1000 stalls, all whitewashed, an filled with the finest blooded horses—Durbam, Devon, Holstein and Ayrshire Cattle, extraordinary Mules and Flocks of sheep.

Interposed through the shady woods were superbly built cottages, filled with the greatest variety of models, embroidery and needle work; handsome tents and booths, and the most beautiful and valuable finds their way thither, to feast their eyes upon the most gratifying scene, the displays of the products of the barn yard, household furniture, and a great variety of other articles.

The Maryland Institute which opened on Wednesday last, contains the most elegant variety of splendid articles ever exhibited in this country.

The hall is 365 feet in length and 60 in width, and is filled with paintings, sculpture, Steam Machinery, fountains, and goods of unparalleled beauty; and when illuminated with the myriads of brilliant gas lights, the cheerful chattering of thousands of voices, and a full band of music resounding from the extremities of the Hall, then an eye is completely lost in amazement at the wonderful ingenuity displayed. I cannot portray the effect.

YOURS TRULY. The election in Virginia, on Thursday, for members of Congress, has resulted in a glorious Democratic triumph. Thirteen of the fifteen members, are Democrats—and the new Constitution is adopted by an overwhelming majority.

Glory enough for one day! Secretary of State. The names of several gentlemen are spoken of, in connection with the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth under Governor Bigler. Amongst these are William Mathiot, Esq., of this City; Judge Campbell, of Philadelphia; Judge Woodward, of Luzerne; Col. Black, of Pittsburg, and Judge Dock, of Harrisburg.

Rev. ARCHIBALD ALEXANDER, D. D., died at Princeton, N. J., on Wednesday last, in the 80th year of his age. He had been a Professor in the Theological Seminary at that place for nearly forty years, and was considered one of the most learned and pious Divines connected with the Presbyterian Church.

ROBERT AND ANSON.—We learn that on the night of the 20th inst., the store of Mrs. Stone & Son, at the Mine Point, in Bart township, was robbed of about $600 in money, and afterwards was totally destroyed. A reward of $200 is offered for the detection of the perpetrators of this outrage.

We learn by the Strasburg Bee that the Strasburg Railroad was set on Saturday, the 11th inst., to Jackson E. Sicketts, Esq., the engineer of the road, the engineer who was the lowest bidder. The work will be commenced immediately, and it is thought will be completed by the first of March, 1852.

STATE FAIR.—Excursion tickets will be granted by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, to persons wishing to attend the Agricultural Fair, which commences to-morrow at Harrisburg. The tickets will be good till 1st of November.

GEORGETOWN.—To the senate 36 Union men, 10 southern rights men are chosen. To the house 97 Union men, 24 southern rights, 11 to bear from.—The Democratic majority on joint ballot will be 1001. For Governor, Cobb has majorities in 73 counties amounting to 20,118; McDonald, southern rights, has majorities in 20 counties, amounting to 2,412. Net majority for Cobb in 93 counties, 17,694. Two victories, Irwin and Telfair, to bear from. The victory for the Union is overwhelming.

ELIAS EBY, Esq., the newly elected Sheriff, has entered upon his duties. He has appointed William W. Brown, Esq., Solicitor, and Tobias H. Miller, Esq., Deputy.

Governor Johnston has appointed two more Aids, in this county, since the election—Lewis R. Harnery and George W. Hensel, Esqs. Rather an empty honor, we should say, and of short duration.