INAUGURATION OF GOV. COBB .- The Hon. How ell Cobb was inaugurated as Governor of Georgia, at Augusta, on Wednesday. His address was strongly constitutional and in favor of the Union Compromise platform.

DIRECTORS OF THE POOR AND HOUSE PLOYMENT OF LANCASTER COUNTY.—This Board now consist of the following gentlemen, Benjamin Hoover, Christian Warfel, Abraham Kauffman, Jacob Landis, Wm. Gorrecht, Christian M. Greider The new Board organized on Saturday last, by electing Abraham Kauffman President, John Stehman is continued as Steward to the House, and William Taylor as Clerk to the Board and Steward

DREADFUL OCCURRENCE.—Baltimore Nov. 5 .-We learn from Winchester, Va., that a most dreadful tragedy was enacted there on Friday last. It appears that Joseph P. Flemister went to the house a neighbor, Nathan Mulliken, with whom he had previously had a quarrel. He found Mulliken with a loaded gun in his hands, and soon after the quarrel was renewed, and blows passed between them. Mulliken was finally thrown to the ground, and, while down, called to his son, a lad about 17 years of age, to fire at Flemister. The young man did so; but the load, instead of taking effect on Flemister, entered the father's side as he was lying | Paradise. upon the ground, and caused death in a few hours

The Board of Inspectors of the Lancaste County Prison, give notice that tickets of admissio will not be granted to visitors, on Saturdays.

CONSIDERABLE OF A FAMILY .- A notice of the death of Philip Fishburn, a faithful soldier of the Revolutionary war, was published in our last paper The following particulars have since been furnished to us. His precise age was ninety six years, nine months and twenty-four days. He was the father of eighteen children—eight of whom are dead—seventy-five grand children, and sixty-one great grand children, amounting to one hundred an four in all! Twenty-six of these are dead, and one hundred and twenty-eight still living, amo whom are some of the staunchest farmers of Cumberland county.—Carlisle Herald.

THE COMPLIMENTS OF THE EAST .- The follow ing extracts of a letter sent to the proprietor o Cherry Pectoral, from EL HASSAN the ruling Pasha of Trebizond, at Ezroum, shows the peculiaritie of Oriental courtesy:

To Dr. J. C. Ayer: the Chemist of rare learning at Lowell, in Massachusetts, and the United States. GOD IS GREAT FOREVER :- I have received your letter of affectienate love, with the present of choice Essence in Bottles, by which your excellent skill teaches to cure the affections of my children. As the life of one of my people is more dear to me than camels and gold, we shall pray for you in our heart when they are raised up from the tent of sorrow by this product of your deep learning and For this Gift of Love to your friend, so distant over many Seas, and for this rare invention of you skill, may you be placed in such seats of honor and dignity among the great in knowledge, as we should offer to you in our dominions.

Given in this Central City of our Power, by express command of NESCHID EL HASSAN PASHA. Ezroum, Jamad Awah, 1265.

DEATHS.

At Philadelphia on Monday morning last, Deborah Jane, wife of Alexander C. Bryson, in the 25th year of her age. [The deceased was buried in Woodland Cemetry, (this city,) on Thursday.] At Abbeville, Lancaster township, on Saturday morning last, after a short illness, Joseph Goyden Ir. Esq., in the 40th year of his age.

Mr. G. was extensively known throughout the country, as one of the most intelligent, enterprising and successful contractors for the building of public works, in the Union, and his decease will be felt as a great public loss. In his private relations he was free, open and generous, a kind husband and neighbor and a warm-hearted friend. His death will be a severe bereavement to his widow, and a large circle of relatives and acquaintances.
