Instruction in the Lancaster High Schools.

BY an act of Assembly passed May 8, 1850, the Directors of the Common Schools of the city C Lancaster are authorized to admit, into the High Schools of the city, pupils from the Townships and Bornughs of the county. They can now accom-modate Thirty such Boys in the male and Twenty Girls in the female school; and will accordingly receive that number, if application be made before the first Monday of February, 1852.

The course of instruction in the Male School ill be as follows :

ENGLISH DEFARMENT.—A review, if necessary, of Geography and English Grammar, with attention to Orthography, Reading and Writing; and careful interaction Comparison Decementary Matematic (a) Or Hogy Dray Retains and Writing and Catherin instruction in Composition, Declamation, History, Rhetoric, Logic and Mental and Moral Philosophy. MATHEMATICAL DEFARTMENT.—A careful review of Arithemetic; instruction in Algebra, Mensura-tion, Geometry, the higher Mathematics, Book-Keep-ing and Surmavian.

ing and Surveying. DEFARTMENT OF LANGUAGES.-Latin, Greek, German and French.

NATURAL SCIENCES .- Instruction in Astronomy RATURAL SCIENCES.—Instruction in Astronomy, Geology, Chemistry. Natural Philosophy and Phy-siology, by familiar lectures to the more advanced classes, illustrated by proper apparatus and followed by daily examinations of the pupils. In the Female School the course will be as nearly similar to that in the male, as the circumstances and wants of the sex will admit. It will include the same instruction in the Natural Sciences, and will

e instruction in the second se Applicants for admission, of both sexes, must be children of citizens of Lancaster county; if males be over 14, and females over 13 years of age; be well grounded in Orthography, Reading, Arithmetic, Geography and English Grammar, and write a fair hand.

Pupils from the county will be subject to the ame discipline as to study and conduct, as those of the city; and will be expected to pursue all the studies of the grade or class to which they may belong, except in the Languages, all or any of which may be omitted at the option of the parent or guardian. The TER VS are $15 per annum, payable half-yearly in advance, without any extra charge; but pupils are to find their own books and stationery. This sum is the same as the average cost to the City of the instruction of resident pupils. There are now three competent Instructors and about 100 pupils in each of the schools, with the foregoing course of studies in operation. The number of teachers will be increased to four when nec-

The scope and system of training is designed to enable the pupils to perform the active dutics of life with credit to themselves, should they enter no higher institution of learning; or to fit young men to enter any college in the land, considerably ad-vanced, should they so desire. It is also especially intended to aid in the preparation of Teachers. Should more than the above number apply, per-sons designed for the profession of teaching will be prefered.

Application can be made to any of the under-signed, before 1st February, 1852. John C. Baker, Peter McConomy, Bernard Keenan, William Mathiot, John L. Atlee, Patrick Cassidy,
