Representative delegates in Franklin. The result is, therefore, 37 for BUCHANAN, 15 for Cass, and 6 doubtful.

It will thus be seen how the canvass is progressing, and how little reliance is to be placed in any statements published in the Keystone or Lancaste-

Death of Marshal Soult.

The recent decease of this illustrious French Soldier and Statesman, is thus noticed by the Journal des Debats :

Marshal Soult, who died on Wednesday last, a Marshal Soult, who died on Wednesday last, at his chateau of Soult-Berg, was born in 1769, in the same year as the Emperor Napoleon, the Duke of Wellington, George Cuvier, Chateaubriand, and Walter Scott, and was, consequently, in his 82d year. With Marshal Soult is extinct the last and lose observer of men and things, and always well booked up in political matters, speaking of the highest illustration of a period so fruitful in great things and in great souvenire. His long and active Washington correspondents of some of the Philacareer, which has exceeded that of all his companions in arms, has been marked with every suc-cess, and by the two-fold glory given by the works of war and of peace. A great citizen, a great cap-tain, a great administrator, a great politician, it may be said that that the life of the Marshal has een complete. This First Lieutenant of the Emperor Napoleo marched as a private soldier under the standard of our armies, 67 years ago, before the fall of the old monarch, and before the breaking out of the French revolution. He took an active and brilliant part in the most memorable campaigns of the rev-olution and the empire. When the gigantic struggles had ceased, Marshal Soult came to occupy the councils of the country that place which he no longer filled on fields of battle. As Minister o War, he devoted his genius as an administrator to the re-organization of the army, under the critica circumstances in which the revolution of July had laced France.

As President of the Council of Ministers, at different times, he was one of the firmest, most intel-ligent, and most devoted supporters of that liberal nd constitutional throne to which France owed eighteen years of repose, of happiness, of order, and of true liberty. The indefatigable co-operation which the wise policy of King Louis Phillippe found in the talents and activity of the old warrior, will remain an eternal honor both to one and the In September, 1847, the illustrious Marshal felt that the hour of repose had arrived. He wrote a very affecting letter, to King Louis Phil lippe, begging him to accept his resignation of the functions of President of the Council in which he vas replaced by M. Guizot. In resigning himsel o this painful separation, the King wished to give the Marshal a striking testimony of his regret, and of his gratitude, in re-establishing for him the ancient dignity of Marshal General.

The Washington correspondent of the Newark (N. J.) Eagle, thus speaks of the Senate as at presnt constituted :

There are some very intellectual looking men i the Senate, but, viewed as a body, I fully agree with Horace Greely that it has "deteriorated." I miss WBIGHT, BUCHANAN, CALBOUN, DALLAS, AL-

The amount due by the United States to Mexico on the 31st of May next, is $3,720,000. That amount of bonds cost the Baarkes from $744,000 to $1,116,000. If backed by five British ships of war, they can force Mexico to accept the bonds in lieu of the money, and to give a receipt for the indemnity, and they make a profit by the speculation of from $2,604,000 to

MR. BUCHANAN.-On our first page will be found in extract from the so-called "low wages" speech of Mr. Buchanan, made in the Senate of the United States, in defence of the Independent Treasury bill -a speech replete with sound argument and elo-quent illustrations, that awed into silence the ablest champions of whig opposition to that most impor-tant of all the acts of a Democratic national policy, an act that has done more to insure stability and prosperity in manufactures, commerce, and trade generally, than all the tariff bills that have been enacted since the organization of this government, and with that measure honestly and faithfully carried out, business will be comparatively safe under any tariff, but precarious and uncertain without it, even under the revenue tariff of 1846. malignant slanders aimed at Mr. Buchanan stand in naked deformity before the world, from the reading of the speech of Mr. Clay, who labored to show that the Treasury system would curtail business reduce wages, prices, &c., and the unanswerable refutation made by Mr. Buchanan, who showed that the very reverse would be the result. The truth of his postions have been practically demon-strated. Every honest man who reads the extract we publish, will condemn the contemptible slaners of a statesman who has given an exalted character to Pennsylvania and/to the Union. From the Warnaw (111.) Commercial Jouurnal, From the Warnaw (11.) Commercial Journal, Among those who are most prominent before the country for the Presidency, is the Hon. JAMES BU-CHANAN of Pennsylvania, who for so many. years represented that State in the United States Senate, with so much honor to himself and the state. Mr. BUCHANAN is decidedly one of the most distinguish-ed statesmen of the day and the citizens of his na-

ed statesmen of the day, and the citizens of his na tive state may well be proud of him. He deserves to be called not only "Pennsylvania's favorite son." but the nation's favorite son. As secretary of state during the administrtion of the lamented Polk, he gave evidence in the state papers which emanated from him, of his gigantic intellect and mighty mind. He is a statesman, a profound scholar, a warm and evoted democrat, and his nomination would be nailed with great pleasure by his friends in the west and south, to say nothing of Pennsylvania and the est of the northern as well as eastern states. ID- The State Legislature will assemble at Harrisburg on Monday next. The inauguration of Gov. BIGLER will take place on Tuesday the 20th of January.
