An Ordinance

Requiring the Mayor to give security for the faithful performance of the duties pertaining to the Office and for other purposes.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the citizens of Lancaster in Select and Common Councils assembled, That from and after the passage of this ordinance any person who may be elected Mayor of the city of Lancaster, shall, before entering upon the performance of the duties of that office, give bond with two or more sureties in the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of the duties of the office—which bond shall be approved by Councils, and after such approval shall be placed by the President of the Select Council in the hands of the City Treasurer.

Sec. 2. That after the approval by Councils of his official bond the Mayor shall, before entering upon the performance of the duties of the office, take the necessary oath or affirmation in the presence of Councils in Convention assembled.

Sec. 3. That all permits and licenses granted, and all receipts given by the Mayor for monies accruing to, or intended for the use of, the city, shall hereafter be countersigned by the Treasurer, who shall, after countersigning any such instrument, charge the amount received thereon to the account of the Mayor. And it shall further be the duty of the Treasurer to call upon the Mayor at least twice in each year to pay over to him all monies which shall have been received by the Mayor for the use of the city, and upon failure on the part of the Mayor to pay over all monies received by him as aforesaid, when required so to do by the Treasurer, the Treasurer shall as soon thereafter as is practicable, give notice thereof in writing, with a specification of the items and amount of default, to the city Solicitor.

Wilder's Patent Safe again the Victor!

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 1st, 1852.—The Salamander Safe which I purchased a few years since, and which was in use by Messrs. C. G. Henderson & Co., at the destruction of their store in the building known as "Barnum's Museum," on the 30th ult., has this morning been got at, and the interior wood-work, with some Stereotype plates which were in the safe during the fire (the books having been removed,) are found to be UNHARMED. I have this day purchased from Mr. John Farrel, another "Patent Salamander," and would confidently recommend these well known Safes to all who wish security against accidental fires.

GEO. S. APPLETON.

We fully concur in the above, and would also add that the large Wall Fire-Proof, near which the above safe stood, has also since been opened, and although the outside appearance is good, and the walls of the same still standing, the whole interior is charred to a cinder.

IN pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Lancaster, will be sold by public sale, at the public house of William Wright, in South Queen street, on THURSDAY the 26th of February, 1852, the following described real estate, late the property of John Culbert, deceased, of the city of Lancaster, consisting of a fronting on South Queen street, 32 feet and running back 249 feet to Beaver street, whereon is erected a one story FRAME DWELLING HOUSE, with a water right of never-failing water; the above lot adjoins property of Mrs. Metzgar on the north and other property of the deceased on the south. Also, TEN BUILDING LOTS, fronting on South Prince street, 32 feet each front, and extending back 217 feet to Beaver street, adjoining property of William Mathiot and others.

All of the above property is clear of any incumbrance. To persons desirous of obtaining excellent building lots, a rare chance is now offered.

Possession will be given on the first day of April next.

Persons desirous of viewing the above property previous to the day of sale, will please call on Mary Culbert, residing on the premises.

Sale to commence at 6 o'clock in the evening, when attendance will be given and terms of sale made known by the undersigned, administrators of John Culbert, deceased.

EDWARD MORTON,
MARY CULBERT.
