erly understood to ensure a victory.

It is all important that the person who is to be favored with the nomination, should be able to concentrate the whole democratic vote. To do this he must be possessed of the necessary qualifications for unimpeached probity, popular manners and a radical democrat. Such a man, I believe, is ADAM EBAUGH, Esq., of York county, who is too well known to the democracy of the State to require eulogium from my hand. He represented his county in both branches of the State Legislature, with entire satisfaction to his constituents, and the party throughout the State. He is of mature age, practical business habits, of unblemished hon-

and virtue, and a consistent democrat. In a geographical point of view, his claims should not be overlooked, as the Canal Commissioner who was last elected, came from another part of the State, it is reasonable that our part should claim the honor of presenting a candidate next election. Taking all together, it is believed that Mr. Enguen has peculiar claims on his democratic brethren in the State. the State.
A LANCASTER COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

MORE QUARRELS BETWEEN THE HUNGARIAN EXILES-Koszuth the Hero versus Jagello the Heroine-A very curious correspondence has taken place between Major Tochman, the spouse of Apollonia Jagello-the heroine who accompanied Ujhazy, ex-Governor of Comorn, to this country—and Kossuth, the hero and ex-Governor of all Hungary, who has already filled two worlds with the fame who has already filed two worlds with the lame of his speeches. It appears that Madame Tochman (Jagello,) visited Madame Kossuth on New Year's day, and was received with such marked reserve that Major Tochman addressed a letter to Kannika Major Tochman addressed a letter to Kossuth on the subject, and wanted to know wheth er the coldness arose from certain reports about Madame Tochman, and also whether Governor Ujhazy is not an honorable and upright gentlem Kossuth, in reply, states that the reserve of Madame Kossuth did not proceed from that cause, as she was ignorant of those reports; and as to Ujhazy Kossuth endorses him to the fullest extent, as " hi oldest and one of his truest friends, and pledges his word that there can be no man of a more honora-ble and uplight character." Kossuth, however, does not express his belief in the charges, but leaves that matter entirely in doubt, notwithstanding the services of Jagello in Hungary, which Major Tochman recounts. Major Tochman is dissatisfied, and, in another letter, puts the following poser to Kossuth: Would Ujhazy have adopted, as a member of his family, and introduced as a political exile, one unworthy of cordial reception by Governor Kossuth?" To this Kossuth is silent; and Major Tochvery warm letter of Ujhazy to his dear Apollonia, dated December 4, from Iowa.

It will be in the recollection of the reader that Major and Madame Tochman came to this city from Washington, about the time of Kossuth's arrival, and that they sought an interview with him which was denied. This seems strange treatment from a hero to a heroine; but at present the heroine appears to have the best of the battle, for Kossuth endorses Ujhazy, and Ujhazy endorses Jagello. How it will end, we must leave to time to determine.—N. Y. Herald.

THE NEW STATE HOUSE OF OHIO .- The " Buck eyes" are erecting a magnificent State House at Columbus. It will be when completed the largest and most imposing Capitol in the Union, except the National at Washington. It is 304 by 184 feet, and covers an area of 55,636 square feet. The Capitol of Tennessee is next in size, being 135 by 240, and covers an area of 32,400 square feet. The Capitol of North Carolina stands next, 166 by 90, and covers an area of 14,940 feet. The Capitols of Pennsylvania and Indiana are of an equal size, 180 by 80 feet. The sum expended upon the Ohio Capitol during the last year was within a fraction of $100,000, and an appropriation of about $300,-000 is asked for to carry forward the work for the next two years. Over one hundred convicts from the Peniteutiary, and about 30 free stone cutters, are employed in the State House yard. Many of the black of the State House yard. Many of the black of the State House yard. The state House yard for columns &c. are very from Frank Ruth, the Meat of one Hog, and a the blocks of stone used for columns, &c., are very large, weighing from 10 to 12 tons in the rough. The Capitol at Washington covers only about one-tenth more ground than this building does. The Capital of New York is an old freestone edifice, in

ATLANTIC OCEAN FROZEN.—The Sag Harbor Corrector of the 28th ult., has the following paragraph relative to the cold in that region:

During the late remarkable severe weather, we n told, that the Atlantic Ocean, on the south side of this Island, has been frozen, some say one and a half miles-others over five miles out; while others affirm that nothing but ice can be seen as far as the eye can reach! One thing is certain, which may further this assertion, which is, that this island has been a constant lee-shore, that has kept the sea down, thus giving it an unusual chance

Management of the Public Works.—The Auditor General's answer to Senator Muhlenberg's resolution of inquiry relative to the cost and expenses of the State Works, has been transmitted to the Legislature, and will soon appear in print. shows that in twenty-one years the difference be-tween the gross receipts and gross working expenses is four millions of dollars in favor of the State; an in that time thirty-two millions have been paid for interest on Canal loans! If from the four millions is deducted the increased construction account for the last eight or ten years, such as avoiding the Inclined Plane, &c., it leaves nothing. This is rather a discouraging picture of the productiveness of the State Improvements, about which we aunually hear so much. It will, we fear, prove them to be a sinking fund of alarming magnitude. But, the sooner the actual condition of things is disclosed, the better for the interests of the Commonwealth .- Reading Gazette.
