MEMORY.

Soft as rays of sunlight stealing on the dving day: Nort as rays of sunlight stealing
On the dying day;
Sweet as chimes of low bells pealing
When eve tades away;
Sad as winds at night that moan
Through the heath o'er mountains lone,
Come the thoughts of days now gone
On manhood's memory.

As the sunbeams from the heaven

As the sunbeams from the heaven
Hide at eve their light;
As the bells when fades the even
Peal not on the night;
As the night-winds cease to sigh
When the rain falls from the sky, Pass the thoughts of days gone by

From age's memory. Yet the sunlight in the morning Forth again shall break,
And the bells give sweet-voiced warning
To the world to wake. Soon the winds shall freely breathe over the mountain's purple heath;
But the Past is lost in Death—
He hath no memory.

The Dawn of Spring. BY INE MARVEL.

I love to trace the break of Spring step by step : I love even those long rain storms that sap the icy fortresses of the lingering Winter,—that melt the snows upon the hills, and swell the mountain brooks;—that make the pools heave up their glassy cerements of ice and hurry down the crashing fragments into the wastes of the ocean.

I love the gentle thaws that you can trace day by day, by the stained snow banks shrinking from e grass; and by the gentle drip of the cottage I love to search out the sunny slopes by a southern wall, where the reflected sun does double duty to the earth, and where the trail anemone or the faint blush of the arbutus, in the midst of the bleak March atmosphere, will touch your heart blush and pleasantly as he bleak March atmosphere, will touch your heart like a hope of Heaven, in a field of graves! It could not be he, for she certainly could not have been made aware of his rebrooks, where you throw your worm or minnow, tainly could not have been made aware of his re-float down whole fleets of the crimson blossoms of turn. An explanation must be made. the maple. Finally, the oaks step into the opening quadrille of Spring, with grayish tufts of modest verdure, which, by and by, will be long and glossy leaves. The dog wood pitches his broad, white tent, in the edge of the forest; the dandelions lie along the hillocks, like stars in a sky of green; and the wild cherry growing in all the before says. and the wild cherry growing in all the hedge rows, without other culture than God's, lifts up to Him,

The cattle linger still, cropping the newcome grass; and childhood laughs joyously at the warm rain;—or under the cottage roof, catches with eager ear, the patter of its fall.

Maine Liquor Law.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of East Donegal, Lancaster county, held on Friday, March 13th, to take into consideration the ty of placing the Maine Law upon the statute books of Pennsylvania, the meeting was organized by the appointment of the following of ficers:—President, J. Jeffries, Esq., Vice President, Dr. Geo. Breneman, Henry Sherbon, Martin Bowman, Abr. Zook, John W. Breneman, David Jefries, Henry Houseal, John W. Whitehill, Jacob S. Roath Nicholas Clerner, Wm. Welchers, Chris Roath, Nicholas Clepper, Wm. Welchance, Christian Wolf, Daniel Hoffman, Jacob Hamaker, Wm. Drebenstradt, James Barlow, Nicholas M. Peck, Simon F. Albright; Secretaries, William S. Barr, Thomas J. Albright, Christian Beschler.

On motion, HENRY HAINES, Esq., addressed the meeting, after which the following preamble and ons were unanimously adopted: Whereas, was learn with deep regret that efforts are made by a certain class of men, under the garb are made by a certain class of men, under the garb of reform, to mingle the Temperance cause with Politics, which has been repudiated by themselves, until within a short time. And, believing as we do, that legislation on the subject would have a deleterious effect upon the natural rights of man and that the legislation of morals, as proved by past experience, is productive of the most pernicious effects. And, as it is the duty of freemen to watch with sleenless vigilance th curity of their liberty, particularly at a time like the present, which shows the most unforceable and present, which shows the most unfavorable authe humblest citizen to range himself beneath the banner of his country and hail with pleasure the bright "bow of freedom"; which made its appear-ance in America, and which we hope will encom-pass the earth, and that all beneath the arch of its omise and glory of its protection, shall look up-the first dawn of liberty in the United States as a covenant of man's political salvation through the world. Therefore,

Resolved, That as the legislation of morals was looked upon by Washington and Jefferson, as being poison to the "rights of man,"—we look upon those who attempt to refute the doctrine of those patriots, as not being identified with the interests of the ors, as not being identified with the inclusion of the mass of the people; and that their alienation from British tyranny has been of short duration.

Resolved, That in our opinion the present ex-

A Romantic Story. The Boston Times relates the following incident

as an illustration of the manner in which they do things Down East: few months since, a gentleman, whom w shall give for the time the uncommon title of Smith, became enamored of one of the fairest daughters of that city of beauties. She was an prnament of one of the highest circles—possesse of wealth as well as beauty, and hence was an object of evotion to many unmarried young men. Smith however, soon obtained the highest place in her affections, and they were engaged to be mar-ried. But before they happy event took place, it was necessarry for Smith to make a visit to Caliornia, and he accordingly set out for the land of gold. Every one knows that California is a great way off, particularly from way Down East, and that months must elapse ere the journey out and back can be made. Some of our readers may pos-sibly know that months are ages to young ladies on the verge of matrimony; and sometimes what may require ages to accomplish, will at others be achieved in months.

Well, during the absence of Smith, the young lady, his affianced, was beset with admirers, and ohl fickle woman, one triumphed over her tender and susceptible heart. We will call this fortunate Lothario's name Haynes, who determined not to be so unfeeling as to desert his sweetheart, as Smith had done, and had the day fixed for an early period. The wedding dresses were arranged—the nice new what-do-you-call ems with lace frills round the edges-were all carefully folded and laid away in the bureau drawers—a spang new suit of clothes, latest lashion, was made for the ex-pectant bridegroom; and indeed every preparation was made for the important event. Both parties had the "tin" and could afford to do it.

Meantime, poor Smith is on his way home, having made a capital venture in the land where "they hang people." He is ignorant of the change that has taken place in the affections of his betrothed, come those soft smoky days, when the patches of mistress are to take place. Both bride and bride-winter grain show green under the shelter of leaf-less woods, and the last snow-drifts reduced to shrunken skeletons of ice, lie upon the slope of northern hills, leaking away their life. Then, the grass at your door grows into the color of the sprouting grain, and the buds upon the lilacs swell, and burst. The peaches bloom upon the wall, and the plumbs wear boddices of white.

She shrieks. Smith is astounded, for he thinks all turn. An explanation must be made.

"Julietta," cried Smith, "what is the meaning of all this?"

Julietta hears—agitation will not permit her to reply. She gazes already upon the features of her old lover—the floodgates of her heart—like the locks on the Delaware and Raritan canals—are being opened, and the waters of her new love are rapidly rushing like a torrent in. Her snowy bosom heaves with emotion, her breathing becomes rapid and spasmodic. She thinks of a moment of Haynes, then of her happy days with Smith.— Smith was her first love, he had a pre-emption right to a settlement on her affections, and had

But the clouds hover over an April sky, timidly—like shadows upon innocence. The showers come gently and drop daintily to the earth,—with now and then a glumpse of sunshine to make the drops bright—like so many tears of joy.

The rain of winter is cold, and it comes in bitter scuds that blind you; but the rain of April steals upon you cooly, half refluctantly,—yet lovingly—like the steps of a bride to the altar.

It does not gather like the storm clouds of Winter, grey and heavy along the horizon and creep with subtle and insensible approaches (like age) to the very zenith; but there are a score of whitewinged swimmers afloat, that your eye has chased as you lay fatigued with the delicious languor of an April sun:—nor have you scarce noticed that a

A Fine Cow.

We find the following account of a remarkable cow, in the report of the Committee on Cows for Windsor county, Vt., and which we copy from the Voodstock Mercury. We have seen fine Suffolk Pigs sent here by Mr. Lovering, but did not know that he could beat almost any of us with his cows as well as pigs.

John L. Lovering, of Hartford, presented a native cow, for which we awarded him the first premium. We think this to be a very rare cow, and deserving of more than a passing notice. She is of good size, fine form, and is ten years old last spring. Mr. Lovering h.s. put her upon repeated and thorough trials, and very carefully noted the results, and they will compare very favoraby with any statements of the kind which have ever come under our notice. The cow was milked and the der our notice. The cow was milked, and the milk weighed by an indifferent person, and the committee were furnished with a statement of the weight of the milk each night and morning, for ten days in June, from the 14th to the 23d inclusive. The aggregate was 526 pounds—ranging from 51 to 53 pounds per day. The milk for the last four days was made into butter, and after being worked dry and hard as it could be made, weighed ten pounds and five ounces, or 18 pounds per week. From the 1st to the 10th of September, she gave 294 pounds of milk "while running in a pasture in which the water had all dried up, and the grass nearly so." In ten days in June, 1848, she gave 480 pounds; the same time in 1849, 501 pounds, and made 10 pounds of butter in 1849, 501 pounds, and made 10 pounds of butter in four days, and in ten days in September, the same year, 399, pounds of milk. She has had only the common keeping of Vermont stock—hay and corn-lodder in winter, and common posture with the state of the same years. winter, and common pasture with other cattle in summer; and no other food during the year, except for two weeks before being turned to grass, she had a shovel full of cut feed (containing about two quarts of meal) once a day. Her owner says she will give milk all the year if he chooses. Of all the fine cows which "have put themselves upon the record" within the past few years as upon the record" within the past few years as great milkers, we know of none which equals this one of Mr. Lovering's for a yield of milk, and the yield of butter has very rarely been exceeded.

Mr. L. says he "knows nothing of the pedigree of his cow, but intends to, of her descendants." He has two heiters from her, which he considers of great promise; and from his well known care and skill in such matters, we may expect to hear a good account of those "descendants" hereafter.—

GREAT SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERIES, BY DR. J. W. COOPER.

FEVER AND AGUE

APLETELY CURED IN THREE DAYS BY DR. J.
COOPER'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND
FEVER AND AGUE PILLS. FEVER AND AGUE PILLS.

THESE Pills are composed emirely of Vegetable Substances, and in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred, will perform a perfect and permanent cure in three days. No instance has ever been known, where more than six days have been required to perform a complete cure, even in the very worst cases, and on the strongest constitutions. We would carnestly say to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease, to get one box and try them, and in all cases, two boxes are warranted to cure, if taken according to the directions, or the money returned. ALSO, MY VEGETABLE ANTL-DYSPEPSIA BITTERS.

This medicine is a certain cure for Dyspensia.

VEGETABLE ANTI-DYSPEPSIA BITTERS.

This medicine is a certain cure for Dyspepsia in its very worst forms. Thousands of cases have been completely cured by it within the last year, which have been entirely despaired of by the regular family physicians. We do not recommend it to cure everything—we recommend it to cure Dyspepsia, and the diseases originating from it, and that it will cure in almost every case, and it is recommended for subjuryed to the entire the commended for subjuryed to the commended for subjuryed the commended for subjuryed to the com and that it will cure in almost every case, and it is recommended for nothing else. In many instances, even the worst of cases have been completely cured in two and three months, but it depends somewhat upon the constitution of the patient. We would say to all who are afflicted with Dyspepsia, give this medicine a fair trial, and if it fails to do good, your money will be returned. ALSO, MY VEGETABLE WORM POWDERS

MY VEGETABLE WORM POWDERS. This is the most wonderful Worm Destroyer ever known, and at the same time, so pleasant to take, that almost every child will be fond of it, and many instances have been known of children and many instances have been known of children crying for more after once taking it.

This medicine is in the form of a powder, the only medicine ever used in that form, and it opertaes upon a principle entirely different from any other medicine ever administered by any other physician. It is the only medicine which has no Worm seed Oil or Turpentine combined with it, which is believed by all other physicians, to be the only two things which will destroy worms, and these two things combined, together with castor oil, are the active principles of all other worm medicines, which every person who has ever tasted or smelled, knows to be the most nauseous of all nauseous medicines, and on account of which, there nauseous medicines, and on account of which, there is generally something added to destroy this nauseous taste, and in order to do this, it is something stronger, than the medicine itself, and therefore it must necessarily destroy some of its medicinal properties. These powders are simple and so harmless, that a child may cat a whole box at once, and it will not be hurt, while at the same time the principle upon which it acts being different from anything else ever used, it will destroy all kinds of Worms with a certainty never equalled It will not only destroy the scat worms, or Ascarides, and long, round worms, or Teres, but is the most effectual medicine for the destruction of the Tape Worm ever known. Ten doses have brought nauseous medicines, and on account of which, there most effectual medicine for the destruction of the Tape Worm ever known. Ten doses have brought as many as FIVE Tape Worms from one person. It your children have any symptoms of worms, try these Powders, and in nine cases out of ten, you will never use any other These are also warranted.

These medicines are all separate, and one for each disease, and each for only one disease. They are not recommended, as many other medicines are, to cure some fifteen or twenty diseases, and all of different natures, but they are each to cure but one disease, and that they will do in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred, and where they have a fair trial and fail in all cases, the money will be returned.

have a fair trial and fail in all cases, the money will be returned.

Also, my VEGETABLE ANTI-DYSPEPSIA PILLS, a certain cure for Indigestion, Debility, Sickness or Burning in the Stomach. Pain in the Side and Stomach, Costiveness, Sensation of Weight in the Stomach after eating, Difficulty of Broathing, Restlessness, Want of Appetite, Palpitation-of the Heart, and all other Diseases which arise from Indigestion.

rangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgencies, that secret and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz.: Weakness of the back and limbs, Pains in the head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irriubility, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded: Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil of Poreboding, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., argesome of the evils produced.

NEPVOUS DERLITY

duced

NERVOUS DEBILITY.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arises from the destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the healthful existence of man, and it is the young who are the most apt to become its Victims from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease. led with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes the washing of the frame, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Derangement of the Nervous System, Cough and Symptoms of Consumption, also those serious Mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is they have been caused by indulging Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both Body and Mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to istence thousands who might have been of use to their country, a pleasure to their friends, an ornament to society.

WEAKNESS OF THE ORGANS WEAKNESS OF THE ORGANS
immediately cured and full vigor restored.
Oh, how happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, who have been suddenly restored to health from the devastations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion. Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE, should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connibial happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey throllife becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect
