THE VIRGINIA CLAIM .- Mr. Brodhead has made a very able and satisfactory report upon the curi-ous and mysterious claim of the State of Virginia to be reimburated $120,000, which she claims to to be reimburgied $120,000, which she claims to have advanced towards the construction of the public buildings in Washington during the last century. Mr. Brodhead, in his report, shows that the advance of $120,000 was a donation in consid-eration of the establishment of the seat of Government on the Potomac, after it had been located in Pennsylvania, at Germantown. He shows that Virginia offered the advance as an inducement to bring the transfer to its present site. He shows that Pennsylvania and Maryland had offered about that Pennsylvania and Maryland had offered about the same amounts respectively, and that Maryland actually did pay over $72,000 as her part of the consideration. He shows that Pennsylvania and New York accommodated the Federal Government from 1775 to 1800 with pyblic buildings, without any charge at all, and therefore, that if the Virgin-ia demand for the entry of her consideration is a ia demand for the return of her consideration is a good one, then there ought to be paid according to proportion, $100,000° to Pennsylvania ; $20,000 to N. York; $72,000 to Maryland, all with interest. These claims, therefore, with interest accrued,

The following circular of the Emigrants' Friend Society may be interesting to the public : FENALE DOMESTICS -- PULLADELPHIA EMIGRANTS' FRIEND SOCIETY.

The want of female domestics in the interior o the country, while our seaport is crowded with young women seeking employment; has led to the adoption of a plan at the Emigration office by which the redundancy of female help in our city may be removed, and the deficiency of it in the country supplied. Hitherto the difficulty has been the expense of transporting these girls into the country. They cannot pay their own traveling expenses. The funds of the Emigrant Society are inadequate; citizens at a distance are unwilling to remit the amount, while the uncertainty exists reimbursement in the future services of the domes tic hired. A large number of girls are now in Philadelphia out of employment. The Emigration office is crowded with applicants, many of whom would make excellent domestics, il, before they become contaminated by city associations, they could be placed in families in the country.

It is proposed to select from these young wome the most promising, and engage them under a writ-ten contract for one year, at fair wages, the trav-eling expenses to be detrayed by the employer, if the girl fulfils her contract, otherwise to be deduc. ted from her wages. Citizens applying will make arrangements for a free passage, sending full instructions as to the mode of conveyance, with all other necessary par-ticulars. When practicable, it will be best to engage some city friend to visit the office and make the selection; otherwise a letter at retary will have due attention. otherwise a letter addressed to the Sec

REMOVAL OF HUNGARIANS.-- The Missouri Brunswicker of the 6th instant says the Hungarians in Iowa, under Gov. Ujhazy, have sold out their claim at New Buda, and are about to colonize in Texas he climate in Iowa being too cold and inhospitable for them.

MORE THAN GO MILES AN HOUR .- On Wednes day a train of cars, without passengers, made the run from Poughkeepsie to Peekskill, distance 32 miles, in thirty minutes. This, we believe, is the greatest speed ever attained on any road in this country.--- Albany Reg.

HARRISBURG, March 23 .- In the Senate to-day the bill to prohibit the manufacture and sale of in toxicating liquors was taken up. An amendment was offered and adopted allowing the manufacture and sales of spirituous, malt and vinous liquors in quantities not less than 31 gallons, the manufac ure to be directly from Agricultural products. Another amendment was adopted refering the bill to the people at the next general election. The several sections were then agreed to, and the bill was laid aside for the present, and ordered to be printed.

ID C. L. Hunsecker, a member of the House o Representatives from this county, from the Select Committee for that purpose, has made a report in favor of the abolition of Capital Punishment.—

The Examiner, in speaking of it, says: "We do not know that that there is any proba-bility of this object being accomplished at the present session of the Legislature, but that it will be done before the lapse of many years we have no doubt. The undersigned citizens of this town, having made by a certain Attorney-at-Law, of the city of Lancaster, upon our fellow citizen, Mr. C. Tyson, the owner and occupier of a respectable tavern in this place, feel themselves in duty bound, as an act of justice towards Mr. Tyson, to inform the public that the statements made to the Court and Jury, and permitted by the Court on that occasion, are entire against the said C. Tyson. At his residence, in the borough of Columbia, on the 16th inst., Mr. JAMES GIVEN, aged 73 years. In recording the death of one so intimately as-sociated with the business and growth of this bo-rough, as the subject of this notice; one who has minifed in this community for or more record, and mingled in this community for so many years, and who, through all the trials and vicissitudes of a long life, has transmitted to posterity a character so unsullied—we feel constrained to make a few so unsullied—we feel constrained to make a few remarks. James Given possessed a clear and dis-criminating mind; and though of strong prejudices, he seldom erred in judgment, either on public or private matters. In politics he was scrupulously republican, and warmly attached to the Democratic school. In his social and family relations, his equals were rarely to be found. Warm hearted, devoted and indulgent, nover idid a parent enjoy more deeply the affection and esteem of his family; age and other associations sheemed only the more age and other associations seemed only the m fully to develope their afdent attachment; seemed to vie with each other in their devo nent: al seemed to vie with each other in their devotion and kindness, especially during his lingering afflic-tion, which slowly, but surely, brought to a close his earthly career—not however too soon for him; calmly and patiently did he lay, from week to week, and day to day, hourly expecting the end, and in-deed at times manifesting disappointment in recov-ering from sudden attacks of suffocation, with which he was frequently visited. With little ex-ception, his mind, to the last continued as clear as when in the enjoyment of health; and though sur-rounded with all the comforts that this world could confer. he seemed to lose sight of all, and grass rounded with all the comforts that this world could confer, he seemed to lose sight of all, and graps for higher and holier spheres. Long before his dissolution, did he, with that sound discrimination that characterized his life, settle his earthly affairs, and literally "set his house in order," as if to say his work was done—that he was now ready to enter that abdoe to which all must some or later depart. Death lost his terror; to him it was a welcome sound; and firmly and repeatedly did he reiterate, that he was ready and willing; to commit his soul to God. What a consolation to those who are left to mourn their loss, but his eternal gain. May our end be as his. A FRIEND.
