Murder .- Much excitement was produced in ou about it o'clock, the previous evening. It apears that Barney Anders, a day-laborer, has bee living on bad terms with his wife for a long time and had frequent quarrels with her, said to be ow ing to her immoral conduct. There is no doub that she was an untaithful and loose woman, and i is said that she frequently taunted her husband with her own infidelity. She had her husbard with her own infidelity. She had her husbard put to jail last winter for ill-treating her, and he had been out but ten or twelve days. It is said that on Monday night, he went into his house and had some words with his wile, and while they were quarreling two men came and tapped on the win-dow outside. Barney went out to see who was there, and while he was out she locked the door and refused to let him in again. He then broke open the door, knocked his wife down and drawing a razor from his pocket, cut her throat from ear to ear. He was soon afterwards arrested and com mitted to prison. Coroner Freemen held an in-quest on Tuesday and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts - Euston Argus

But a few years have gone by since the deceased was a young and blushing bride. Beautiful and accomplished, she was the idol of a large circle of accomplished, she was the idol of a large circle of friends, and was beloved and esteemed by all who knew her. But Death loves a shining mark, and she was selected as a victim. We sincerely con-dole with her bereaved husband, her afflicted fath-er, and the two precious little ones she has left behind her. She has passed away in the freshness and greenness of her life, but her last hours were caim, tranquil and happy. Our faith and belief are, that she is now an angel in heaven.—Spy.

EXTENSIVE BANK ROBBERY - The agency of the Central Railroad Bank, of Georgia, at Atlanta was entered by some adroit burglar, on the 16th and robbed of $20,000 in notes and specie. Tw men, named Klyde and Reid, are suspected of th robbery, and a reward of $1,000 has been offered for their arrest.

INTEBESTING TO GRAIN GROWERS AND FLOUT DEALERS.—The Washington Intelligencer announces from information received of C. Græbe, U. S. Con sul for Hesse Cassel, Hesse Darmstadt, and Hanover that in consequence of the general deficiency of the last crop of grain, and the high price occasioned thereby, the States composing the Zoll-Verein of Germany have passed a Decree, that from the first of the present month to the first of September next grains, legumes and flour can be imported into the Zoll-Verein free of duty. The import duty on grain, previous to said decree, was about seven cents a bushel, and that on flour amounted to a prohibition being two dollars and fifty cents per barrel.

Terrible Steamboat Explosion.

MADISON, IA, April 3 .- The steamer Redstone ound for Cincinnati, with about seventy persons in all on board, blew up as she was backing out from Scort's landing, about three miles above Carrolton, at half-past two o'clock this afternoon.

The force of the explosion was terrific, and com-pletely shattered the boat, which immediately sank venty feet of water.

Of the passengers, a large proportion are lost; and, of the crew, only the captain and clerk are sa-ved. The former is severely, if not fatally injured. Up to 7 o'clock this evening, fifteen dead bodies had been recovered in a horribly mutilated condition. It is impossible, at present, to give the names of those who were killed.

The following was one of the worst of cases.
which the physicians and friends thought to be incurable consumption: CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 22, 1846.
J. C. Ayer,-Sir: I was taken with a terrible cough, brought on by a cold, in the beginning of last February, and was confined to my bed more than two months. Coughing incessantly night and day, I became ghastly and palo, my eyes were sun-ken and glaesy, and my breath very short. Indeed, I was rapidly failing, and in such distress for breath-that but little hope for my recovery could be en-tertained. While in this situation, a triond of mine, (the Rev. John Keller, of the Alethodist church) brought me a bottle of your Cherry Pecto-ral, which I tried more to gratify him, than from any expectation of obtaining relief. Its good effect nduced me to continue its use, and I soon found en brouch more how here months. I have pleasure in certifying these facts to you,
