FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER William Searight,

OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

Appointments by the Governor. SAMUEL BROOKS, Esq., of Columbia, Sealer of Weights and Measures for the City and County Lancaster.

This is an excellent appointment, and we congratulate our friend BROOKS on his good luck.-Our only wish is that the office was a more lucra tive one.

GRORGE SANDERSON to be Notary Public in and for the City and County of Lancaster, in the room of Wm. Carpenter, Esq., whose commission has

For this mark of confidence on the part of Governor BIGLER we return our sincere thanks-and shall endeavor so to discharge the duties of the of fice as to bring no reflection on the appointing

We are indebted to the Hon. JAMES X. M'LANAHAN, of Congress, for a bound copy of the Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, embra cing a Report from the Register of the Treasury of the Commerce and Navigation of the United States for the year ending June 30, 1851."

THE "BEE HIVE" AHEAD!-C. Wentz & Bro. have just received from the Cities of New York and Philadelphia a splendid assortment of Spring and Summer Goods, which cannot fail to attract lots of customers. See the advertisement

Our readers are specially directed to the eard of Mr. C. Schrack, in another column. His manufactory is one of the best establishments of the kind in Philadelphia, and his stock of Varnishes Paints, Oils, &c., &c., kept constantly on hands of fers strong inducements to country purchasers.— We advise our friends in this county to give him a call when they visit that city, as they can be suited with every thing in his line at very moderate rates

ILF SPANGLER has just been receiving a splendid ortment of new books and stationery. See ad

TT GREEN'S PATENT INK AND PENCIL MARK ERASER, is the name of an excellent article of Rubber for sale at MURBAY'S Bookstore. It is said to be a decided improvement on any article of the kind that has ever been brought before the public. Aside from its superior qualities as a Pencil Mark Eraser, it removes Ink from paper in less time than can be done in the ordinary way of scraping with a pen-knite or with sand paper, and leaves the paper in good order for writing upon .-We advise our friends to give it a trial.

several times called the attention of our readers to this excellent Institution, located near the line of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, four miles west of Carlisle, in one of the most delightful spots in all that region of country. The accomplished Principal and Assistants are every thing that could be desired, and we know of no place where the mora and intellectual training of youth is better attended to. The summer session will commence on the 3d of May. For terms, &c., see advertisement

CASH PAYMENTS .- We are gratified to perceive says the Democratic Union, that the appropriation bill makes provision for paying the back debts on the public works, and that it is the determination of the Canal Commissioners, when this is done, to make Cash PARMENTS, in all future cases, if the appropriations are sufficient. This is the true system of economy, and will do more to reduce the expenditures on the public works than all the reforms that have been adopted for the last twenty years. Cash payments in all cases ought to be adopted and the Legislature should not fail to make provis ion for carrying it out.

Columbia Railroad-Cattle Trade, There is an immense business doing on the Railroad this Spring, in almost every kind of transportation. In the article of live cattle alone the trade is very great. On Tuesday last a train of forty. eight cars, drawn by the locomotive Chester, under the direction of Mr. James Sample, Engineer, pass ed through this city having on board about 200 fat cattle, the product of the Cumberland Valley alone, and weighing not less than 200,000 lbs .-The cattle were owned by Gen. JOHN M. WOOD-BURR & Co., of Newville, Cumberland county, who have been engaged in the business for several months past, and who, each week, for the last seven or eight weeks, have regularly sent down a fine lot of cattle to the Philadelphia market and we learn that they purpose continuing the trade for several weeks to come. We have long known Gen WOODBURN as an active, energetic and intelligent business man, and he and his colleague deserve great credit for their enterprize and perseverance.

We have no doubt that under the able manage nent of the present Superintendent, Col. BAKER, and the officers under him, the Columbia and Philadel phia Railroad will be made to yield a large revenue to the Commonwealth, over and above the ex pense of keeping it in repair. With the immense increase of business on the road, however, it is all important that new rails should be laid, so as to render it more safe, and we are pleased to find that an appropriation of $200,000 is contemplated by the Legislature for that purpose. We trust it will pass, and that the contracts may be given out without delay, so that the work can be completed during the present season.

More Fire in the Rear.—The nomination of Gen. Scott by the Federal party of Pennsylvania has created quite an uproar in the Southern Camp. The name of JOHNSTON at the head of the delegation to Philadelphia is not at all palatable to the Sout i rn Whigs. The Petersburg Intelligencer, leading whig paper of Virginia, says: "When we remember the course pursued by this man Johnston, when Governor of Pennsylvania, in regard to the Fugitive slave law, we, of the South, cannot help looking with the South, cannot help looking with suspicion, if not absolute distrust, on any cause with which he and his coad-jutors are connected. It is very true that General Scott is not responsible for the action of Pennsyl vania, with respect to her delegation to the Na-tional Convention, but if his cause ir that conven-tion is to be advocated by such champions as Johnston & Co, the effect upon the slave holding States not be doubted."

The Democrats of Columbus county. North Carolina, have nominated James Buchanan for the Presidency.

Communication with Asia.

We are pleased to learn as we do from the Washington correspondent of the Daily News, of Thursday last that the House Committee on Na val Affairs have agreed to report in favor of the roposition submitted by Messrs. Moore, Lawrence Goodman, Deihl and others, for the establishmen of a line of steamships from our coast on the Pacific to Shanghai in China. The writer says that this project is preferred by all the members of the committee, with one exception, to that submitted by Mr. Thompson. He says further, that - "Judging from the disposition manifested by members in regard to the importance of establishing such a line of steam communication between this country and China, I have little doubt that the bill about being reported by Mr. Cabell, to whom the Committee of Naval Affairs assigned the duty, will have a sufficient number of friends in the House to en sure its passage; and, if so, I have as little doubt that it will pass the ordeal of the Senate, and be enacted into a law before the close of the presen session of Congress."

That the proposed line is one of vast importanc to the commercial interests of this country, no one can doubt for a single moment who will take the pains to inform himself on the subject. The ad vantages which would flow from it are incalculable and our only wonder is that an enterprise of sucl vast magnitude, involving such an immense outlay of money at the start, should be seriously contemplated by a few private individuals. That it will pay them well in the end is beyond all doubt, but that it will benefit our whole country vastly more is, to our mind, clear to a demonstration.

We hope to see the bill pass both branches of Congress and be signed by the President without any unnecessary delay; and then a fresh impetus will be given to the commerce and trade of the U States with the countries of the east, and our own country will be benefited and enriched beyond calculation. •

Letter from the President.

A number of documents relative to the Japan expedition were sent to the Senate on Monday week. The following extract of a letter from President Fillmore to the Emperor of Japan, will be read with interest:

"I send you by this letter anenvoy of my own appointment, an officer of high rank in his country, who is no missionary of legion. He goes by my command to bear to you my greetings and good wishes, and to promote friendship and commerce between the true countries.

tween the two countries. "You know that the United States of Americ now extend from sea to sea; that the great country of Oregon and California are parts of the United States; and that from these countries, which are rich in gold and silver and precious stones, ou teamers can reach the shores of your happy land less than twenty days.

"Many of our ships will now pass in every year. and some, perhaps, in every week, between California and China; these ships must pass along the coast of your Empire; storms and winds may cause them to be wrecked on your shores, and we ask and expect from your friendship and your great-ness, kindness for our men and protection for our property. We wish that our people may be per mitted to trade with your people, but we shall not authorize them to break any law of your Empire

"Our object is friendly commercial intercours and nothing more. You may have production which we should be glad to buy; and we have prowhich we should be giad to buy; and we have productions which might suit your people. Your Empire contains a great abundance of coal; this is an article which our steamers, in going from California to China, must use. They would be glad that a harbor in your Empire should be appointed to which coal might be brought, and where they might always be able to purchase it.

"In many other respects, commerce between your Empire and our country would be useful to both. Let us consider well what new interests may arise, from these recent events, which have ight our two countries so near together; and what purposes of friendly amity and intercourse this ought to inspire in the hearts of those who govern both countries."

Book Notices.

THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, for February from the re-print of Leonard Scott & Co. N. York is on our table, and contains a vast amount of use ful and interesting matter. The contents are as PLAINFIELD CLASSICAL ACADEMY.—We have follows:—The Works of John Milton, New Zealand, The Life of John Sterling, The Geology of th Surface and Agriculture, The Literature of the N. Testament, Arctic Searching Expeditions, Memoir of Bishop Copleston, Wesley and Methodism, Progress of Popular Education in Great Britain, and France in January 1852. For Sale at Spangler's. Goder's Magazine, for May, is a very superior number. The tales are excellent and the poetry beautiful. Among its choice engravings, we are pleased particularly with the one entitled "May Day among the Juveniles," in the scene of which Rusticity and Coquetry seem to be striving for the mastery. Godey knows full well how to cater for the public taste, and we are pleased to record the fact that the Ladies' Book is going forward prosperously.

THE LADIES' KEEPSAKE, for April, is a capital number, beautifully embellished with an engraving representing "The Boston Boys and Gen. Gage"-The work is published monthly by JOHN S. TAY-LOR, New York, and furnished to subscribers at the low rate $1 per annum.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE, for May, is one of the finest numbers yet issued of that excellent periodical. The front engraving representing the "Baviarian May Queen," is a beautiful production. Altogether there are about a dozen engravings and thirty-six different contributions in this number.-We are pleased to see the work prospering under its able management.

THE DEMOCRATIC REVIEW, for March, is embellished with a beautiful portrait of the late Col. Jas-DUNCAN of the U.S. Army, accompanied with a sketch of some of the important Military Services of that distinguished officer. The other articles are as follows:

Congress, The Presidency and the Review. Maury's Sailing Directions. Come on !

The Pacific Railroad. Soulouque and the Dominicans. Ready-Rill.

South-Western Scenes, by an Ex-Texan. The Maine Liquor Law. Necessity of Parties-American Democracy. The Issue. Editorial Note.

HENEY CLAY AND Kossuth.-We have been kindly permitted, by a gentleman of this city, to transcribe the annexed passage from a letter re ceived by him a day or two ago from the illustrious and venerable Henry Clay .- N. O. Bee. · WASHINGTON, March 30, 1852

I have never distinctly understood what M. Kosuth said of me at Louisville. I certainly had given him no cause of offence. The interview between him and me cannot be regarded as private, as it certainly was not a confidential one. It was attended by three members of Congress, and the At-torney of the United States for this district, and torney of the United States for this district, and would have been by others but for my feeble state of health. What I had said in the interview with of health. What I had said in the interview will.

M. Kossuth was variously and sometimes contradictorily represented in the newspapers. Under these circumstances, Mr. Ewing, one of the members in attendance, prefaced the statement which has been, published, and the substantial accuracy of which had been verified by another attending nember. Over my own sentiments and language thought I had entire control, just as Gen. Cass thought proper to state to the Senate of the United States what he had said to Mr. Kossuth ipon their first interview. Mr. Ewing, in his statement, treated M. Kossuth with perfect respect and said nothing to compromit him in the slighter egree. Such, my dear sir, was the origin and suc otives of the publication alluded to.

I am with great respect, Your friend and obedient ser't, Bosron, April 17.-It is now officially stated hat the Suffolk Bank has lost $274,000 by the late defalcations of Brewer and Rand. The surplus fund of the Bank to meet deficiencies is $300,000. The amount taken by Brewer and Rand, was mostly in stock speculation.

City and County Items.

The spirit or improvement is rife in our city Several of the Stores and Shops in North Queen st. re being modernized in front, and every where there s a disposition manifested to "go ahead" in real Davy Crockett style. Workmen are also now em. ployed clearing off the ground, preparatory to commencing operations at the New Court House-the same may be said of the old German Reformed Church, in E. Orange street. We also learn that it is in contemplation to build a new and splendid Catholic Church, in South Prince street, to be com. menced the present season—and a large number of new and substantial dwelling houses are to be erected in various sections of town, some of which are already under way. If our Democratic friends over in Reading don't spur up a little, we shall overtake them yet in point of size and population What say you to that, friend Getz?

California News.

The intelligence from California, brought by the teamer El Dorado which arrived at New York on Tuesday last, is important and interesting. A most disastrous flood had occurred on nearly all the rivers. The cities of Sacramento, Nevada, and Marysville had been completely overflowed, causing wide-spread devastation and the most frightful com

The loss at Marysville is estimated at $100,000. At Sacramento the embankment gave way, and everal houses floated down the river. At Marysville all the stores were submerged, and a large quantity of goods destroyed.

The city of Stockton and San Joaquin Valley had also suffered by the flood. The loss in the city mounted to $25,000.

At Nevada two Quartz Mills, the Theatre, Empire Hotel and several houses were swept away.— The bridges over Salmon Falls and Coloma River were carried off, and no doubt every bridge on the South and Middle Falls has shared the same fate. The country between Sacramento and the mines is impassable. The Legislation Halls are surrounded by water and the members reached them in boats. Nearly all the houses on the Marysville and Sacrahouses in Marysville have been rendered untenan able. The damage at Sacramento amounts to $40-000. Many lives were known to have been lost. great was the consternation that few particulars had been obtained. Great quantities of live stock had perished throughout the country. At the last ints the flood was abating at all points.

The storeship Lexington arrived at San Francisco on the 14th of March. The steamer Monumental City had also arrived from Panama on the same day, having put into an intermediate port in consequence of an accident. Her passengers were

DESPATCH OF BUSINESS --- The new Supreme Court was organized on the 2d Monday of Dec. 1851, and has been in session in this city ever since except one week spent in the country, for the dis-position of cases there. During this time, 170 position of cases inere. During this time, 170 cases have been argued and disposed of, exclusive of a large number non prossed and estiled by agreement of parties. Every case ready for argument has been reached, and the Philadelphia and county cases continued over until next term, at the stance of the parties, constitute but a fraction of what the list contained at the commencement of the present term. The number of cases argued efore, and disposed of, by the new Court, is unpre-edented in the annals of the Supreme Court; and cedented in the annals of the Supreme Court; and it will be gratifying to the public to know, that their cases can be determined as speedily by the present Bench as in any of the subordinate Courts A knowledge of this fact will be very spt to increase the business of the Nisi Prius in future.— Last year a vigorous effort was made by the then Court to reduce the number of cases on the list.— The Court sat until some time in May, and some thing over 100 cases were argued and disposed of. High commendations were generally awarded the Judges for their energy and despatch of business, and they deserved it. The encomiums of the Bar, the thing is the state of the same of th the parties litigant and the public generally, which have already been awarded the new Court, must e highly gratifying to their teelings, and will prove ses of the year in which they shall hereafter hold heir sessions. BOLDLY SAID .- The Danville (Ky.) Tribune, zealous whig organ, seeing so much said of Gen Scott's popularity, puts in a disclaimer, so far a Kentucky is concerned, and after this order: "While General Scott is a great military leader, his overgrown vanity, and poor civil qualifications do not entitle him to the suffrages of the American people, for the highest office in their gift. We are nomination would be the death knell of the Whig party." HARRISBURG, April 17 .- It is announced here with much confidence, by the opponents of the nu-merous Bank bills which have recently passed both houses of the Legislature, that Gov. Bigler will veto the whole lot, with perhaps the exception of two or three which are regarded as necessary. Not less than sixteen or eighteen of these bills have passed, most of them through both branches, and authorize an addition to the banking capital of the State of upwards of three millions of dollars. Several daring burglaries have recently been perpetrated here. The residence of Judge Pearson was entered a few evenings since, and robbed of silver plate valued at $300. Several other dwellings, shops, &c., have been robbed.

There is little probability of the Legislature adjourning before about the 10th of May. Most of the important public business is yet to be disposed

Boston, April 13.-The House of Delegates this afternoon passed the Maine Liquor Bill by a ma-jority of 75. THE One FELLOWS.—The next semi-annua meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd-Fellows will be held in Philadelphia on the 3d Monday of May next. The proposed amendments of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge and of the subordinate Lodges will be finally disposed of, and many other subjects of impor-tance to the welfare of the Institution.

Another Warning .- The wife and seven chil-Berks county, came very near losing their lives, last week, by poison. The husband had purchased arsenic for rats and placed it in the cupboard with-out the knowledge of his wife, who, baking cakes used the arsenic for salaratus. The wife and children ate heartily of the cakes, and were soon taken with vomiting, &c. The administration of timely antidotes saved their lives.

HORRIBLE DAETH .- On Monday week last, a colored woman met with a most horrible death, in a house on Minersville road. She was on a wake with a woman whose husband was lying dead in the house. It appears they both indulged freely in the use of liquor, and became sufficiently intoxicated to be unconscious of what they were doing During the night the clothes of the unfortunate victim took fire, while she was lying asleep on the floor near the grate, and before the other woman could be aroused, was burnt to a crisp.—Pottsvill

His formances have been witnessed by eighty thous and persons. Such an engagement never has beer recorded in dramatic annals.

MURDER OF A FEMALE IN VIRGINIA .- Mrs Rains, an old lady who recently disappeared from the neighborhood of Harrisonburg, Va., has been found in the Shenandoah river, about 20 miles below the place where she disappeared, in a bag, with her head cut off. Some time ago she received a check from her son, (who is now in California,) on a Philadelphia bank, for $1,000, which she had deosited with Gen. Lewis to draw for her. On the day she disappeared, she had gone to Gen. L's to see about the matter, and on her return home, she being partially blind and it becoming dark, lost her way, when some fiend in human shape, supposing she had procured her money, (which she had not,) outchered her in the manner above indicated. THE GOLD MANIA .- About 2,000 persons leave Michigan this spring for California. delay in the work of collecting the funds required for the establishment of the College and as it is desirable that the buildings should be commenced at the earliest possible date which can not be done, by any means, until the $25,000 required by the charter law shall have been collected and the Governor certified of that fact; and as the Board of Trustees of Franklin College, at their late meeting held in they prevent unnecessary delay, and much expense, by calling at the Lancaster Bank, or the Farmers' Bank of Lancaster, and paying over should there be any further delay? All the friends of the institution, and patrons of the movement to bring it into actual existence and useful operation, are, certainly, anxious to have t opened and ready at as early a date as is at all oracticable: and we are persuaded that every patron and subscriber honestly intended, when he subscription was given, to pay the amount punctually and without occasioning any unnepunctually and without occasioning any unne-cessary delay. And as each subscriber has had the full use of the money subscribed, up to this time, the Board having deemed it unadvisable to collect the instalments as they became due, before all should come to be due, it is now hoped that the subscribers will come forward promptly and without delay, and deposit the amount as requested. Those who cannot by any means thus come forward, are respectfully requested to lay by them in store the amounts subscribed by them respectfully, to be able to hand the money over to the agent promptly when called upon, to save his time and the necessity of making repeated calls.—Shall not the honor of the City and County be maintained in this, movement without further delay?

Will any one hesitate to discharge the solemn pledges given and obligations made? Surely, we hope to be constrained to report more joyful news and more honorable tidings, and to say that the subscription book, credited in full, is deposited in the archives, and shall remain in enduring monument to the honor and praise of the generous and liberal subscribers and or spress who have already so promptly answered the call, depositing the amount subscribed, or handing it to him in person; and he sincerely hopes all others will feel inclined and will make efforts to go and do likewise.

Thus the revenue has been $351,373 16 mor han the whole cost, and exceeded the expenditures early $6,000,000. This is a nut to crack for those tho, at the present time, would turn over the pub-c works to the hands of private companies. We like to see fair play in every thing; and s both parties are now about square, and as the Maine Liquor Law has received its quietus in the Legislature, we suppose there is no longer a necessity for keeping up the discussion. We, therefore hope to see it dropped all round, as too much of a good thing is very apt to produce satisty:

Having had its quietus last week in the Legisla-Having had its quietus last, week in the Legislature, the Express in its last spass gives one more of those "fantastic kicks" at the writer of this, by saying "X. X. has used himself up, and there is nothing left for him to work upon;" simply obcause he pretends to be a temperance man, using rothing stronger than "X. X." Ale, Brandy and Cold Water. Thus, our Solon would imply, that no man can be temperate, who will either "touch, taste or handle." Now the edutor may have his own private views of what constitutes temperance, which in his particular case may mean total prohibition, as many men, if they but look at a little, are tion, as many men, if they but look at a little, are past redemption; but when he desires to give the public his "hi-dears" on temperance, I would advise him to refer to Webster's standard, and save

The attack upon my articles was unnecessary and The attack upon my actoes was unnecessary anninvited. The Express first tried open exposure, then kept up a running fire of slurs, abuse and low ribaldry /determir d to annihilate any poor "liquorite?" who dares to open his mouth in defence of his rights and liberties, against a few fanatics who could not give one solid argument, reason, or the least particle of common sense to justify their strange proceedings.

Although this question is now settled, our teetotal friends are determined to support none but "Cold-water doctors" for our next Legislature. I do hope the "Express man? will have his "reward of merit" by being entered upon the "track" at

now fairly upon his lega and only wants a fair start;
when after being under the influence of the Moow
for so long a time, he may probably follow her example, viz. starting with a couple of "Granz" unfor so long a time, he may probably follow her example, viz: starting with a couple of "thorns" until she gets "full;" then after spending his last "quarters" for a couple more "horns" retire in the shade. And should he ever appear again before the public, I have no doubt he will still be under the influence of a "couple of horns."

We will now bid our prospective member addeu.

Maine Law and Ministers. Ms. Editos:—Several articles have appeared in your paper over the signature of "X X," who "desires to use your columns for a temperate discussion of the Maine Law." I am at a loss to know how any man can desire a temperate discussion, who in an address to Farmers, makes a most wanton and insulting attack on the Ministry. Should he sucinsulting attack on the Ministry. Should he suc insulting attack on the Ministry. Should he succeed, it certainly will not be owing to his prudence. Ministers who advocate a Prohibitory Law are called "a certain class," who "to advance their own power," are willing to sacrifice the "principles and interests of the people at large." They are "the emissaries of the Church and pour down its holy thunders at the doors of our capitol." They "wheedle and threaten by turns, and to manufacture public opinion, the Rev. orator takes the vote of the meeting, when he knows that almost all present are members of the religious denomination present are members of the religious denomination now at the lead." These "christian politician now at the lead.³⁷ These "christian politicians are so abusive that their opponents are quiet through fear, and the public press is husled on the same ground, being destitute of moral courage," etc.—
These same Ministers desire "the union of Church and State," and are sneeringly called "white cravats and kid gloves, who will stop at no means to accomplish their ends." This is a singular method of obtaining a temperate discussion. Were I to of obtaining a temperate discussion. of obtaining a temperate discussion. Were I to send you an article equally abusive of the liquor sellers, would you have the moral courage to publish it? Your correspondent never attended the meetings which he attempts to describe; or, if he did, he has wilfully misreprented them, I was present at several and saw but one vote taken by & Minister. The President and rearly all the Vice Preside its were members of the Legislature. The audience was compassed of all classes in acciety. Preside its were members of the Legislature. The audience was composed of all classes in society, and from almost every part of the State. Charles C. Rahn, Esq., a Lawyer of Harrisburg, who presided at another, took a vote without being requested, and it was unanimous is favor of Prohibition. Of that meeting, the Whig State Journal says "the spacious Court Room was crowded to its utmost capacity by a highly fashionable and intelligent audience. It was a most enthusiastic and triumphant demonstration of THE PROFILE in favor of Prohibition." His representations of the timidity of the FRANKLIN MARSHALL COLLEGE.

Mr. Editor: The subscriber desires to say a few words to the friends and patrons of Franklin and Marshall College, through the medium of the Lancaster County Press. My prostrated health, and the hard winter, made it impossible to prosecute the objects of my agency during the inclement season which is now drawing to a close, and occasioned much the work of collecting the funds redelay in the work of collecting the funds rethan their publication in the Press and Republican. than their publication in the Liberthian they were requested to publish, they shad the moral courage in all serionsness. I ask, why all A review of ness proceedings, which they were requested to publish, they had the moral courage not to notice. In all seriousness, I ask, why all this spleen at the Ministers? Your correspondent only follows the general course in opposing the Maine Law. Is there no other argument that they, to carry their point, should attack the motives and endeavor to create prejudice against Ministers?—There is a reason for this course, and it is by no means creditable to those who adopt it, or to the cause which they espouse. Have the Ministers of this country ever been found any where else than on the side of morality and humanity? Shame on the man who would traduce them. A most interesting question presents itself, just here. Why are the Ministers, not only the most prominent, but nearly alone in the public advocacy of prohibition? Why are not other public speakers equally prominent? The answer is plain, and it entirely refutes all that "X X" has said about the intimidation of the people. Nother class of men, fare take a similar

Will the Ministers, not only use more public advacagy of prohibition? The seller is all respects, all that "X X" has said about the intimidation of the political power of the liquor sellers. Will the Ministers, not only use more public advacagy of prohibition? sellers would not deal with them. Will the Me chanics? Their customers would be offended.-Such has been the overwhelming influence of the Such as been the overwhelming innuence or true injure traffic, that but few of any class of business men could afford to provoke opposition, and bear the results. It is fortunate for the interests of bleeding and down-trodden humanity, that there is one class of men, who are out of the reach of this influence. Ministers must do this work, or it will be appropriate to the community in sails of the emain undone. The community in spite of the meers of "X X" will do them justice and hold sneers of WAA. Will do them justed and note them in higher honor as the advocates of homan rights. When public opinion is sufficiently reformed to protect the advocates of prohibition, then there will be no lack of speakers. In some parts of the came due, before all should come to be due, it is now hoped that the subscribers will come forward promptly and without delay, and deposit the amount as requested. Those who cannot by any means thus come forward, are respectfully requested to lay by them in store the amounts subscribed by them respectfully, went our County Commissioners from building a vent our County Commissioners from buildi Court House where they please, and Minister debarred from advocating the rights of innocent women and children? Have we no right to advowomen and children? Have we no right to save-cate the claims of humanity and religion, both of which are suffering beyond all description from this awful scourge? We will let the people judge and abide the result. The argument of "X X," will meet with but little favor from intelligent farmers. Facts are against him. A very intelligent and re-spectable man, raised in Lancaster county, remark-cut to me after reading his articles to farmers.—"It spectable man, raised in Lancaster county, remarked to me, after reading his articles to farmers—"It is all fallacious, I remember when there were six times as many distilleries as there are now, and corn sold atthirty-three cents. Now, with one-sixth of the distilleries, and a much larger amount of corn raised, the price is fifty-five cents. Facts are stubborn things." I wish to see the subject of prohibition discussed on its merits, without appeals to prejudice or personal abuse; I therefore propose to prove that the traffic of intoxicating liquors as a beverage ought to be prohibited.
