This is a strong statement for any paper to make -especially a Whig paper-but the Mirror is really independent in many things, and has doubtless, on this occasion, given a plain, unvarnished tale of the Scott doings in the Empire State. Wm. H. Seward is good at wire-pulling-indeed he is one of the most accomplished adepts at it in the country, and he will be just as successful in pulling the wool over the eyes of some of the Southern Delegates at the Whig Convention in Baltimore. He is a shrewd politician and not over particular in the employment of means to effect his ends. He and his friends, for months past, have been catering for Abo lition votes, and hence Gen. Scott's silence on the Compromise question.

That the General will receive the nomination the Whig Convention, we do not entertain the slightest doubt. It has been evident for two months past The Pennsylvania and Ohio Delegations will go for him almost to a man, and New York will be nearly unanimous. The Delegates from the Southern States will be taken care of by Mangum & Co., and thus the result can be predicted with unerring certainty Mr. Botts will take the stump in Virginia, and tell his Whig triends all about the conversation he re cently held with the General. Stanley will do ditto in North Carolina, and Underwood will follow sui in Kentucky. Tennessee will be spoken to by Jones and old Parson Brownlow silenced. How the Whigs do hate military chieftains!

But how about that coup detat of which the Mirror speaks? Dare the "National Whigs" take the responsibility? We think not. As much as they profess to admire Fillmore, they have not the moral courage to stand by him. Two-thirds of them, within a month after the nomination, will be dan cing the "Scott-ish."-New Jersey Eagle.

. DEATH BY HYDROPHOBIA .- On the third day of last March, a daughter of Mr. Thomas Winch, re siding four miles west of Cleveland, Ohio, was bitten by a dog supposed to be mad. Unknown to any person in that place, the dog was immediately afterwards shot, thus leaving no certain evidence that he was actually rabid

The wound of the child (who was eight years old) healed readily, and she manifested no symp-tons indicating illness, until the 17th of May, 75 days after she was wounded, which was merely as looth, thus showing as the dog run against the child one of his teeth struck the forehead, and others the mouth. On the 20th ult., the child having be very restless and having had some fever for three days previous, Dr. Dodge was called in and at once pronounced the symptons those common to the first stages of hydrophobia, and so stated to Mr. Thos. Hurd, who furnished this information who was also acquainted with all the facts, and they can be relied on as being perfectly correct. In the afternoon of the same day, convulsions commenced, and the worst fears as to the termination of the case began

Dodge was again called and remained most of the night. The remedies appeared to be relieve ing the child, so that in the morning she was an parently much relieved of both the spasms and general nervousness. About noon she was again at tacked with convulsions, which terminated in death, at 2 o'clock, on the 21st ult .- Clevel and True Dem-

POR several weeks past, the proprietor has been engaged in making extensive improvements in Pengaged in making extensive improvements in his long-established DAGUERREAN ROOMS. He has the pleasure of announcing that they are now completed and ready for the accommodation of the public,—being in every respect unequalled by any similar establishment in this city.

Among other improvements, he has enlarged his rooms to double their former size, and erected a great NORTHERN SKY-LIGHT, more than twice as large as the largest side-light in Lancaster, and unsurpassed in arrangement and effect by any and unsurpassed in arrangement and effect by any of the celebrated New York and Philadelphia es-stablishments.

With this powerful SKY-LIGHT, and an apparatus of the largest and most approved manufacture, Daguerreotypes can be taken in less than the usual time, at all hours of the day, late or early, clear or cloudy, which, for elegance of finish, durability, and richness of tone, cannot be excelled.

GROUPS, containing any number of persons, can be taken on one plate, in a much superior manner, the light falling equally on all the sitters.

Children can be Daguerrotyped almost instantaneously. tablishments.

CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not our wish to trifle with the lives or health of the afflicted, but frankly to lay before them the opinions of distinguished men and some of the evidences of its success, from which they can judge for themselves. We sincerely pledge ourselves to make no wild sesertion or false state ments of its efficacy, nor will we hold out any hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant. Many proofs are here given, and we solicit in inquiry from the public into all we publish, feeling assured they will find there perfectly reliable, and the medicine worthy their best confidence and patronage. 37 The following was one of the worst of cases, which the physicians and friends thought to be incurable consumption: CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 22, 1846.

J. C. Ayer,—Sir: I was taken with a terrible cough, brought on by a cold, in the beginning of last February, and was confined to my bed more than two months. Coughing incessantly night and day, I became ghastly and pale, my eyes were sunday, I became ghastly and pale, my eyes were sun-ken and glassy, and my breath very short. Indeed, I was rapidly failing, and in such distress for breath that but little hope for my recovery could be en-tertained. Whise in this situation, a friend of mine, (the Rev. John Keller, of the Methodist church) brought me a bottle of your Cherry Pecto-ral, which I tried more to gratify him, than from any expectation of obtaining relief. Its good effect induced me to continue its use, and I soon found my health much improved. Now in three months, I am well and strong, and can attribute my cure only to your great meicine. only to your great meicine.

With the deepest gratitude, yours, &c.,

JAMES GODFREY.
