Vermont Testimony in favor of the Oxygenated Bit-ters—a remirkable cure.

WINDSOE, Vt., Sept. 12, 1816, Windson, Vi., Sept. 12, 1816,

Dear Sir:—From my earliest recollections I have been troubled with violent Catarrh and Assima, the difficulty increased as I advanced in years, and til the last two years; since that time the inconvenience has been but triffing. The relief I attribute wholly to the effect of your "Oxygenated Bitters." For many years, from about the 20th of August the 1st of October, I have suffered extremely from a lightness in the head, preceding a difficulty on the larger then would follow severe triching in the eyes. ngs; then would follow severe itching in the eyes, se, and ears, attended with an increased fi nd ears, attended with an increased flewing on from the glands in the head; this falling of meets for an august of the lungs, produced a fightness, attended with a violent cough, and altumately loss of appente, feverish habit, and pain in the side. For many years I have been commenced to be added in the other external irritation. My difficulty in breathing has been such, and such has been the accumulation of mucus or phicem on the lungs, that I have been obliged to keep in an apright posture, sitting in a chair during the night; and my health had become on much impaired, and having a severe cough fixed upon me, that it was considered doubtful as to my upon me, that it was considered doubtful as to my recovery. Since I have used the Bitters, my sleep has been quiet and retreshing, enabling me to recline upon the bed, my appetite has been good, as also my digestion, and although I am not in the enjoyment of perfect health, and never expect to be, disease having made such inroads upon my constitution, yet none of those grievous evits and brd symptoms attend me. I feel that duty, and discharge it most cheerfully, to resomened the use of the any of the above symptoms; feeling that the rachings has been worth thousands to me, and trusting the has been worth thousands to me, and trusting cine has been worth thousands to me, and trasting that it will prove equally beneficial to others. Duty to the afflicted requires that you give more on higherty, and wider circulation to the medicine. You are at liberty to make such use of this communication as you may deem proper. Feeling under great obligations, I am your obedient servant,

The Greatest Historical AND ALLEGORCAL PRINT OF THE AGE,

AND ALLEGORCAL PRINT OF THE AGE,

I N commemoration of that most important event of the American Revolution, the British surrendering their arms to General Washington after their defeat at Yorktown, Virginia, October, 1781:
The engraving is executed by Tander, Vallance,
Kearney & Co., from an original drawing by J. F.
Remault, and published by Benjamin Tanner, Engraver, Philadelphia. The size of the print is 25 by 34 inches, and was originally published to subscribers at $12 in the sheet.

EXPLANATION. THE HISTORY.—In the first and grand plan are THE HISTORY.—In the first and grand plan are exhibited three large groups of the principal officers, who were present at the transaction, with a faithful likeness of each.

In the first group is seen General Washington, the first group is seen General Washington, the country of the property of the pro

General Rochambeau, General Lincoln, Colonel Hamilton, an old farmer eager to contemplate the cene. Billy the servant, and the Horse of Genera Washington.

In the second group are American and French
Officers, General Knox, Secretary Wilson, the Duke

Maningon.

In the second group are American and French Officers, General Knux, Secretary Wilson, the Duke de Luazua and the Marquis de La-Fayette.

The third group is descriptive of the British sur rendering their arms, Lord, Cornwallis, General O'Hara, Commodore Simmons, Colonel Tariton, with two fingers cut off, Lieutenant Colonel Raiph Abercrombie, Lieutenant Colonel Dundas, Lord Chewton, &c. Lord Cornwallis appears presenting his sword to the first General Officer he meets, but General Washington is pointed out to him as the only person to whom he is to surrender his sword. On the heights and in the distance are the different armies and crowds of spectators. The House of Secretary Wilson, occupied by Lord Cornwallis and his staff, which was hombarded and pierced with balls; the Marquis de La Fayette having rewith halls: the Marquis de La Fayette having r with balls; the Marduis de La Fayette having imarked that they were carrying dishes for the dinner of Lord Cornwallis, asked leave of General Washington, to serve him a dish of his own cooking, and immediately after several bomb-shel s fell through the roof on the table, and wounded some,

and dispersed the party.

THE ALLEGORY.—On the left is erected a monument in honor of those illustrious heroes who sacrificed their lives and fortunes to insure to their fellow-citizens, the Liberty and Independence they now enjoy.

In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not our wish to trife with the lives or health of the afflicted, but frankly to lay before them the opinions of distinguished men and some of the evidences of its success, from which they can judge for themselves. We sincerely pledge ourselves to make no wild assertion or false state ments of its efficacy, nor will we hold out any hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant. Many proofs are here given, and we solicit an inquiry from the public into all we publish, leeling assured they will find them perfectly reliable, and the medicine worthy their best confidence and patronage. CONSUMPTION.

patronage.

From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Dear Sir: I delayed answering the receipt of your preparation, until I had an opportunity of witnessing its effects in my own family, or in the families of my friends.

This I have now done with a high degree of satisfiction, in cases both of adults and children.

I have found it, as its ingredients show, a powerful remedy for colds, and coughe, and pulmonary diseases.

From an Overseer in the Hamilton Mills, in this city.
Dr. J. C. Ayer: I have been cured of the worst cough I ever had in my life, by your "Cherry Pectoral," and never fail, when I have apportunity, of recommending it to others.

Yours, respectfully,
S. D. EMERSON.

And am, sir, yours respectfully,
And am, sir, yours respectfully,
J. F. CALHOUS, of South Carolina.
The following was one of the worst of cases, which the physicians and friends thought to be inwhich the physicians and friends thought to be incurable consumption:

CRESTER, Pa., Aug. 22, 1846.

J. C. Ayer,—Sir: I was taken with a terrible cough, brought on by a cold, in the beginning of inst February, and was confined to my bed gore than two months. Coughing incessantly night and day, I became ghastly and pale, my eyes were sunken and glassy, and my breath very short. Indeed, I was rapidly failing, and in such distress for breath that but little hope for my recovery could be entertained. White in this situation, a friend of mine, (the Rev. John Keller, of the Methodist church) brought me a bottle of your Cherry Pectoral, which I tried more to, graufy him, than from any expectation of obtaining relief. Its good effect induced me to continue its use, and I soon found my health much improved. Now in three months, I am well and strong, and can attribute my cute only to your great meicine.

With the deepest gratitude, yours, &c.,

JAMES GODYREY.
