in the rapids near the brink of the Falls of Niagara The boat stuck fast on a rock, and was still there a day break this morning, when arrangements wer at once commenced to rescue the man from his perilous situation. The man in the boat was a fisherma nnamed John son. He was on a rock between Goat Island and the Canada shore, and directly above the Falls. Notwithstanding the risk, a man named Joel Robinson, at the peril of his life, went to his relief in small skiff taking a rope from the island, and suc ceeded in rescuing him from the boat. About five minutes after Johnson was taken from the boat, t loosened from the rock, and went over the Falls The man had been in that position since 12 o'clock purse of $200 was made up by the visitors for Robinsen.

RICHMOND, Va., July 19 .- At an early hour this morning, a respectable citizen of this place na-med Joseph Winston, together with his wife and child, were found schockingly butchered in their beds. Both the wife and child were found dead, or died soon after they were discovered, and the husband was insensible, his injuries being of such a character, that there is no hope of his recovery. The horrid deed appeared to have been committed with an axe or hatchet, as the bodies were horribly mutilated about the head and face. Two slaves of Winston, a negro man and his wife, have been ar-rested on suspicion of being the murderers. The affair has caused great excitement.

The Greatest Historical ALLEGORCAL PRINT OF THE AGE N commemoration of that most important event of the American Revolution, the British surren-1 of the American Revolution, the British surrendering their arms to General Washington after their defeat at Yorktown, Virginia, October, 1781:

The engraving is executed by Tanner, Vallance, Kearney & Co., from an original drawing by J. F. Renault, and published by Benjamin Tanner, Engraver, Philadelphia. The size of the print is 25 by 34 inches, and was originally published to subscribers at $12 in the sheet.

EXPLANATION.

THE HISTORY.—In the first and grand plan are exhibited three large groups of the principal officers, who were present at the transaction, with a faithful likeness of each. In the first group is seen General Washington, General Rochambeau, General Lincoln, Colonel Hamilton, an old farmer eager to contemplate the scene, Billy the servant, and the Horse of General

Hamilton, an old farmer eager to contemplate the scene, Billy the servant, and the Horse of General Washington.

In the second group are American and French Officers, General Knox, Secretary Wilson, the Pulce de Luazua and the Marquis de La Fayette.

The third group is descriptive of the British sur rendering their arms, Lord Cornwallis, General O'Hara, Commondore Simmons, Colonel Tarlton, with two fingers cut off, Lieutenant Colonel Raiph Abercrombie, Lieutenant Colonel Dundas, Lord Chewton, &c. Lord Cornwallis appears presenting his sword to the first General Officer he meets, but General Washington is pointed out to him as the only person to whom he is to surrender his sword. On the heights and in the distance are the different armies and crowds of spectators. The following was one of the worst of cases, which the physicians and friends thought to be incurable consumption:

CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 22, 1846.

J. C. Ayer,—Sir: I was taken with a terrible cough, brought on by a cold, in the beginning of last February, and was confined to my bed more than two months. Coughing incessantly night and day, I became ghastly and pale, my eyes were sunken and glassy, and my breath very short. Indeed, I was rapidly failing, and in such distress for breath that but little hope for my recovery could be entertained. While in this situation, a triend of mine, (the Rev. John Keller, of the Methodist church) brought me a bottle of your Cherry Pectoral, which I tried more to gratify him, than from any expectation of obtaining relief. Its good effect induced me to continue its use, and I soon found any expectation of solutions its use, and I soon found my health much improved. Now in three months, I am well and strong, and can attribute my cure only to your great meicine.

With the deepest gratitude, yours, &c., DAMES GODFREY.
