On September 28, 1852, at Castle Pinckney,

the Harbor of Charleston, South Carolina, of the Yellow Fever, Brevet Major John F. Roland, Cap-tain in the 2d Regiment of Artillery, U. S. Army. He was the third son of the late Henry Roland Esq., of New Holland, in this county, and was aged about thirty-six years; was graudated at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, in 1836, and commissioned Brevet 2d Lieut, in the 4th Regiment Artillery on the 1st of July of the same month; 1st Lieut, on the 8th of July, 1838, and Captain on the 3d of March, 1847.

3d of March, 1847.

Brevet Major Roland served with his Regiment in the Florida War, and took part in the battle of the "Wahoo Swamp," in the Cherokee Nation, and on the Canada frontier during the disturbances there. In the summer of 1845 he sailed from New York, with Duncan's company of Light Artillery (of which he was the Senior Lieut.) to join Gen. Tayfor at Corpus Christi, and served with that distinguished corps throughout all its brilliant career under its chiralting to the company of der its chivalric and gallant commander, Duncan on the Rio Grande, at Monterey, and at Vera Cruz.
For h's gallantry and good conduct at Palo Alto and Resaca de la Palma, he received the brevet of Captain, and for like services at Monterey, that of At Palo Alto, he commanded that section of Duncan's Battery, which, by rushing through the fire and smoke of the burning prairie, made its sud-den and unexpected appearance in front of the en-my's right, and thus foiled the attack on Gen. Tays left. At Monterey, by means of ropes, he hois ted a gun up the mountain, which he directed and opened on the "Bishop's Palace," soon causing its capture and contributing greatly to the surrender of the town. After the siege of Vera Cruz, he re-ceived his promotion to a Captaincy, and was re-lieved from duty with "Duncan's Battery,"—having been ordered to the U. S. to raise his company. In the following November he returned to Vera Cruz, from New York, with his new company, and in December joined Gen. Scott's army in the city of Mexico. The General immediately had it mount ted and equipped with a battery of guns,—and such it remained until the evacuation of the country.— After the war, his Regiment having been sent to garrison the Southern Atlantic posts he was sta-tioned at Savannah and Augusta, Georgia, for a short time, when, in consequence of rumored Indian hostilities he proceeded to Florida with his command.
