THIS superb pic ure, engraved under the superinet and highly gifted artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington ever published. It has been characterised as the greatest work of art ever produced in this country. As to its fidelity, we refer to the letters of the adopted son of Washington, George Washington, George Washington of the celebrated original, and to Chief Justice Takey of the Supreme Court of the United States, who says, "it is a faithful representation of the celebrated original," and to Chief Justice Takey of the Supreme Court of the United States, who says, say a work of art its excellence and beauty must strike every one who sees it: and it is no less happy in its likeness to the Father of his country. It was my good fortune to have seen him in the days of my boyhood, and his whole appearance is yet strongly impressed on my memory. The portrait you have issued annears to me to be an exect likeness. ren impressed on my memory. The portrait you have issued appears to me to be an exact likeness, representing perfectly the expression as well as the form and features of the face." And says Senator form and leatures of the lace. And says con-Cass, it is a life-like representation of the great original. President FILLMORE says, "the work ap-pears to me to have been admirably executed and eminently worthy of the patronage of the public." Says MARCHART the eminent portrait painter, and

Says MARCHART the eminent portrait painter, and the pupil of Stuart. "your print to my mind is more remarkable than any other I have seen, for presenting the whole individualty of the original portrait, together with the noble and dignified repose of air and manner, which all who ever saw him considered a marked characteristic of the illustrious man it commemorates."

For the great merits of this picture we would refer every lover of Washington to the portrait itself, to be seen at the office of this paper, and to the letters of the following Artists, Statesmen, Jurists, and Scholars accompanying it.

THE object of this Cosmetic is to harmonize and soften the character of the complexion. Being an article entirely different from and much superior to ordinary powder, it requires a small quantity in its application, and yet so identifies itself with the natural appearance as to be imperceptible to the ni-cest observer. To those ladies particularly who are subject to flushes of the face or neck, to such as are subject to flushes of the face or neck, to such as are exposed to habitual or occasional agitations, whether nervous or otherwise, the Pearl Powder affords harmless, effectual and most welcome relief; it is also very cool and refreshing in warm weatner.

TOILET POWDER.

The Toilet and the Nursery bear equal testimony to the value of this article; in both it is justly esteemed indispensable. To cool the surface of the skin—to conceal the effect of agitation—to allay chang and irritation, are its functions. The proskin—to conceat the elect of agitation—to analy chafing and irritation, are its functions. The proprietor directs his attention to secure purity and sweetness in the selection of the ingredients as well as neatness and exactness in its preparations.

ton, M. D., Philadeiphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, curing after Nature's own method, by Nature sown Agent, the Gastric Juice.

Half a tenspoonful of Pepsia, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Boel in about two hoors, out of the stomach.

Persix is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the solvent of the food, the purifying, preserving and sumulating agent of the stomach and intestines. It is extracted from the digestive stomach of the Ox, thus lerming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its chemical powers, and natural Gastric Juice in its chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils mution of the due quantity of the Castric Juice is a prominent and all prevailing cause of Dyspepsin's and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding everything else to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomach of living animals, which proved completely successfull."

Dr. Graham, author of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachs of animals, macerated in water, impart to the fluid the property of dissolving va. one articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digistion of them in nowise difficent more the natural digestive process."
