THE LEADING LITERARY WEEKLY. OVER Thirty-one years have now elapsed since the POST began its weekly round of blended instruction and amusement; and never, in all that instruction and amusement; and never, in all that period, was its success to marked as at the present moment, Possessing undeniably the largest circulation, by many thousands, of any paper of its class in the Union, its substribers have the best of reasons for believing that it stands upon a permanent basis, and that they will receive the full value of every dollar intrusted to its publishers. In annuncing some of our preparations for the coming of every dollar intrusted to its publishers. In announcing some of our preparations for the coming year, we may begin by stating our continued connection with Mrs. SOUTHWORTH, a writer who, in vigor and fertility of genius, is not surpassed by any male or female, in the Union. Mrs. CAROLINE LEE HENTZ, a lady whom it would be almost superfluous to praise, in view of the general popularity of such tales as "The Mob Cap," "Eoline," "Linda," "Rena,", etc., also is enrolled among our contributors.

We are now engaged in the publication of a sto-

We are now engaged in the publication of a story entitled, "Clara Moreland," by Emerson Bennett, Author of "Viola," "Prairie Flower," "Bandits of the Osage," etc.

And at the opening of the ensuing year we design commencing the publication of the following Novelet:—"Miss Thusa's Spinning-wheel," by Mrs. Lee Hentz, of Florida, Author of "Eoline," "Linda," "Rena," etc. 'Linda." "Rena." etc.

"Linda," "Rena," etc.
This novelet we design following by a story entitled, "A Stray Patch From Aunt Hannah's Quilt," by Mrs. Frances D. Gage. of Ohio, widely known as the author of some admirably written and very effective household poems, sketches, etc.
After this we expect to be able to commence "The Lost Heiress; A Story of Howlett Hall," by Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth, Author of "The Curse of Clifton," "Virginia and Magdalene," "Shannondale," "The Deserted Wife," etc.
In addition to these and Original Tales, involving In addition to these and Original Tales, involving a large expenditure of money, we shall lay before our readers, as heretofore, choice Tales, Sketches, Essays, Narratives, etc., from the English Magazines—such as have given the Post a name for the excellence of its selections.

ENGRAVINGS.—In the way of engravings we present at least two weekly-one of an instructive, and the other of a humorous character, and the other of a numerous character,
Agricultural Articles, Miscellaneous matter, General News, Witty and Humorous Sketches and Anecdotes, Letters from Europe, Editorials, View

To Of course, we shall maintain for the Post the character it has acquired, of being a strictly moral paper—not ridiculously squeamish and straight-la-ced, but really and truly moral—such as may be ta-ken into the family circle without fear. Advertisements of an improper character shall be, as here-tofore, rigorously excluded. CHEAP POSTAGE.—The postage on the Post to any part of the United States, when paid quarerly in advance, is now only 26 cents a year. And we trust that the pubicl generally will show their appreciation of the commendable reduction of postre, by largely increasing the number of papers ta en at the various offices—that thus there may be no falling off in the revenue of the Post Office De-partment. This will insure a continuance of the present reduced rates.

TERMS.—The terms of the POST are Two Dollars if paid in advance, Three Dollars if not paid in advance. For Five Dollars in advance, one copy is sent three years. While many inferior remedies thurst upon the community, have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and proluced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

While it is fraud on the public to pretend that my one medicine will infallibly cure—still there is abundant proof that the CIRERY PECTORAL does not only a general thing, but almost invariably cures
the maladies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better

ICENT PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON.

Engraved (by permission) from Stuart's only original portrait, in the Atheneum, Boston.

THIS superb picture, engraved under the superintendence of Thomas Sully, Esq., the eminent and highly gifted artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington ever published. It has been characterised as the greatest work of art ever produced in this country. As to its fidelity, we refer to the letters of the adopted son of Washington, George Washington Park Custis, who says,

"it is a faithful representation of the celebrated original." and to Chur Justics Tanky of the Su-considered a marked characteristic of the illustrious man it commemorates,"

For the great merits of this picture we would refer every lover of Washington to the portrait itself, to be seen at the office of this paper, and to the letters of the following Artists, Statesmen, Jurists and Sabelan accommendation:

bald Alison, Lord Mayor of London, &c. &c. The Press, throughout the entire Union, have with one voice proclaimed the merits of this superb engra ring.

To enable all to possess this valuable treasure, it is sold at the low price of $5 per copy.
