CITY OF LANCASTER, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 30, 1852.

For the Inte A Tribute to Lancaster.

How smooth the Conestogo river the its pebbly bottom rows, Winding onward, ceasing never, Into the Atlantic flows; Leaving ferule plains behind it, Clad with flocks of every grade, Just as Nature had designed it Where her sweets should be display'd.

When the stranger's eye beholds it, Captivated is his mind, Such a landscape thus unfolded, Where can Man its equal find; Feilds all clad with waving treasure, Comfort smiles round every cot, To balance nature's boundless measure, Why has art so long forgot ?

Near its banks stands sweet Lancaster, In the summit proud, erect, Aloof from tumult or disaster, Basking in profound respect; Glorious deeds of former ages, By her sons performed in war, Marks her name on freedom's pages, righter than the morning star.

When the trump of war was sounding, Ihreatening danger all around, And thousands into battle bounding, Foremost still thy sons were found ; The name of hand, oh how endearing, Oft your sons to victory led. l took the van and never fearing, Minding not who fell or bled.

Where's your Gibsons, Humes and Hambrights, Heroes bold who took the field, Herees bold who took the field, Your Bowmans, Mescopes, Reitsells, Snyders, Who never abrunk from head or steel; But in their country's hour of trouble, Manfully their muskets borc, Salying forth with strength redoubled, Drove the tyrants from the shore.

When your vet'rans wore sojurning, Strangers to the golden sands, And evry breast with ardour burning, Aiding them with heart and hand— Who was he, that fifthy creature, When be them course to move a May he yet have cause to mourn, Degrading to all human nature, Who prayed they never might return.

For men who in the hour of trial, Struggling for their country's claim, He who dare give such denial In oblivion sink his name, But two nasty vines don't make a forest, Two oblongs do not make a round ; Nor can two sheep-folds in a desert, Eter be called a splendid town.

When blissful peace with all her charms Loll'd the thundering pall of war, Bequesthing through our powerful armies Victory to our stripes and stars; But leaving in a distant Nation, Mouldering in a warrior's bed, Men of every creed and nation, Braver, nobler, never bled.

Tew survivors circled round them, Comrades dear composed the crowd, Who in their gory garments bound them, Without either sheet or shroud. But on oblivion's couch they laid them, Minding not the toll of bell, And when regards, last mark was paid them, Bade their ashes long farewell.
