The Printer Wants Money. Now that the Presidential election is over and the Democracy every where triumphant, we hope our pations will not be offended when we tell them-we mean those in arrears-that we need MONEY badly. Those indebted for subscription, advertising and job work, or either, will confer a great favor by paying us what is justly our due.-The a proaching Courts will afford a tavorable opportunity to many, who cannot come to town, to send it with their neighbors., Those living out of the County or State can remit by mail at our risk.

The President's Message. To the exclusion of our usual variety, as well as many advertisements, we publish, this morning, the last Annual Message of Mr. FILLMORE, in advance of many of our contemporaries. It was delivered, on yesterday, at 1 o'clock, to both branches of Congress. We have not room to speak of its merits or demerits this week, but shall leave, for the pres ent, our readers to make their own comments upon it. Its publication at this time has necessarily delayed our paper a few hours. We have no objection to the Pennsylvanian copying our articles without giving us credit for them, as that is sometimes done by every paper but we do object to its habit of giving credit to another paper in this City for editorials that origi nally appeared in the Intelligencer. The Pennsylvanian has done this in several instances recently the last of which is the short article headed "Clarion County," which appeared in Friday's issue, and which will be found, word for word, in our paper of November 16th. It is a matter of small moment to be sure; but still, if an article is worth crediting at all, the credit should be given in the right

A similar credit was wrongfully given by the Pennsylvanian, to the notice of Mr. DANIEL but defeated in the Senate, providing for the distri-DOUGHERTY'S very able speech, in this City, on the evening of the 25th of September. The hardship in this case was that Mr. D. might suppose we had acres of the Public Lands. The 27 Electoral votes of Pennsylvania were hen cast for FRANKLIN PIERCE, of New Hamphire, for President, and WILLIAM R. KING, of Alaama for Vice-President. Professor Andenson, the Great Wizard of the North, is performing his wonderful fears of magic, at Fulton Hall, in this City. He is unquestionably at the head of his profession, in this coun try, and the displays of his unequalled skill attract larger cities of the Union. We have seen nothing from the celebrated Signor Blitz, or any body else, to equal him, and we advise every one to go and limited, his engagement in Lancaster terminating on enjoying the benefit of the proposed Institute, by The track will be immediately repaired, so as to Friday evening-therefore, all who desire the privilege of witnessing his great magic performances should embrace the present opportunity, as it may be a long time before he comes this way again.-He had a crowded house last evening-as a matter of course.

HARRISBURG AND SUNBURY RAILROAD .- The contract for constructing this work has, as we learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph, been allotted to Messrs. Lauman, Daugherty, Traverse and Barnum in Company. They were altogether the lowest bid ders, taking it less than the estimate of the engineers, besides having taken $250,000 of the stock of the company in payment for the work. It is understood that the entire work will cost something over a million, and it is believed it will be finished complete in less than two years. The line of the road commences opposite Harrisburg, where it connects with the Ballimore and Cumberland valley railroads-it runs on the west side of the Susquehanna about eight miles, whence it crosses to Dauphin, between which point and Harrisburg there is already a railroad connexion on the east side of the river. From Dauphin it runs to Sunbury, along the eastern margin of the Susqueors at Washington, when he takes his seat in the hanna, and from thence to Lewisburg.

DEEMING it unaccessary to remind any mem-lished medical profession, of the estab-lished medical properties of pure Holland Gin, in many diseases of dropsical tendency, I respectfully invite your examination of a very superior article, manufactured by myse f exclusively, at Schiedam, in Holland, by a process peculiar to my own Fac-tory. It is flavored and medicated, not by the comtory. It is havored and medicated, not by the common harsh berry, but by the choice botanical variety of the aromatic Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distiled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, and thus becomes a concentrated tincture, of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendent, in its cordial and medicinal exoperties, to any Holtand's Gin heretofore known.

Amid the influx of interior distillations with Amid the influx of interior distillations Amid the influx of inferior distillations with which this country is now flooded, physicians find no difficulty in procuring a good and pure Gin, which they can prescribe with confidence in its benefical effects.
