Engraved (by permission) from Nuart's only ori-ginal portrait, in the Atheneum, Boston. This superb picture, engraved under the super-intertand highly gitted artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington ever published. It has been chracterised as the greatest work of art ever produced in this country. As to its fidelity, we refer to the letters of the adopted son of Washing-ton, GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK CUSTLS, who says, "it is a fauthul representation of the celebrated original," and to CHIEF JUSTLE TAREY of the Su-preme Court of the United States, who says, "As a work of art its excellence and beauty must strike severy one who sees it and it is no less happy in its likeness to the Father of hie country. It was my good fortune to have seen him in the days of my boyhood, and his whole appearsnee is yet strongly impressed on my memore. The portrait you have insued appears to me to be an eract likeness, rep-resenting perfectly the expression as well as the form and features of the face." And says Senator CASS, it is a life-like representation of the great original. President FILMORE says, "the work ap-pears to me to have been admirably exceuted and eminently worthy of the patronage of the public?," Says MARCHART the eminent portrait painter, And the pupil of Suart, "your print to my mind is more remarkable than any other I have seen, for pre-senting the whole individually of the original por-trait, together with the noble and dignified repose of air and manner, which all who ever saw him considered a marked characteristic of the illus-trious man it commemorates." For the great merits of this picture we would re-fer every lover of Washington to the portrait itself, to be seen at the office of this paper, and to the letters of the following Artistis, Statemen, Jurists and Scholars acco
