The only true Portrait of Wash-JUST PUBLISHED, T. B. WELCH'S MAGNEL Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boot and Shoe Store

ICENT PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON. Engraved (by permission) from Stuart's only original portrait, in the Atheneum, Boston.

This superb picture, engraved under the superinterdence of Thomas Sully, Esq., the emission highly with active in the activation. THIS superb picture, engraved under the superinterdence of Themas Sully, Esq., the eminent and highly gifted artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington ever published. It has been characterised as the greatest work of art ever produced in this country. As to its fidelity, we refer to the letters of the adopted son of Washington, George Washington, Pank Custs, who says, "it is a faithful representation of the celebrated original," and to Chief Justice Taney of the Superior Court of the United States, who says, "As a work of art its excellence and heauty must strike a very one who sees it: and it is no less happy in its likeness to the Father of his country. It was my good fortune to have seen him in the days of my bothood, and his whole appearance is yet strongly impressed on my memory. The portrait you have issued appears to me to be an exact likeness, representing perfectly the expression as well as the form and teatures of the face." And says Senator resenting perfectly the expression as well as the form and features of the face." And says Senato form and features of the face." And says Senator Cass, it is a life-like representation of the great original. President Fillmone says, "the work appears to me to have been admirably executed and eminently worthy of the patronage of the public." Says Marchart the eminent portrait painter, and the pupil of Stuart, "your print to my mind is more remarkable than any other I have seen, for presenting the whole individualty of the original portrait, together with the noble and dignified repose of air and manner, which all who ever saw him considered a marked characteristic of the illustrious man it commemorates."

For the great merits of this picture we would refer every lover of Washington to the portrait itself, to be seen at the office of this paper, and to the letters of the following Artists, Statesmen, Jurists and Scholars accompanying it.
