ach of the calf, in which various articles of lood, as meat and eggs, will be soltened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach." Dr. Pereira, in his lamous treatise on "Food and Diet," published by Fowler & Wells, New York, page 35, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are few higher authorities than Dr. Pereira. Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a dim-inution of the due quantity of the Gastrie Jance is a promuent and all-perevailing cause of Dyspepsia," innition of the due quantity of the Gashie Julice is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia," and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding overything else to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Julice, obtained from the stomach of living animals, which proved com-pletely successfull."
