Strine, Adam On the 20th ult. by the Rev. J. J. Strine, Adam Mowrer to Sasana Barr both of Martic twp. On the 25th ult., by the same, Daniel O'Neal, to Mary Gingri h both of. Dauphin co. On the 27th ult., by the same? John Coble of Derry twp., Dauphin co., to Mary.Becker of Rapho. In this city on Friday, the 28th of January by Alderman M. Carpenter, Christian Rohrer, to Eliz-abeth Wunsch both of this city. On the same day, by the same, John George Mil-ler, to Terresa Reatschen of the same place.

DEATHS.

On Sunday, the 9th inst. at the College of St. James, Md., John Barrett Kerfoot, aged 2 years, and 8 months, youngest child of the Rev. J. B. Ker-foot, D. D., Rector of the college. On Snnday morning, [23d ult, in the fifth year of his age, Gerard Bond, youngest son of James B. and

Mary Ann Wager. In this City, on Sunday night last, after a linger-ing illnes, James B. Wager, Esq., aged about 52 years. At his residence in Salisbury twp., on the 26th ut., John Livingston, Esq., aged about 60 years. On the 21st inst., Mary, wife of John Raub of Leesburg, Lan. co., in the 53d year of her age. Leesourg, Lan. co., in the 53d year of her age. The subject of the above notice was a Christian, not only as far as mere outward ceremonies were concerned, but a christian in deed and action—a lowly follower of Christ in the truest sense of the term, having had full confidence in the fulfilment of the promise given by him to those who shall walk in the ways of the righteous. Her illness was a long and paintil one—but she bore up through, -The months of afflictio

The days and the nights of distress, With that marked fortitude and resignation which alone characterizes the true christian-calmly awaiting the hour when the Great Physician would we her relief, and call her to that heavenly home ere,-

No sickness or sorrow or pain.

Shall ever disquiet her now She has gone gone from the midst of those whose so fondly and faithfully loved her—to that" bourne from whence no traveller ever returns." - She has left a fond husband and affectionate family of chi dren who deeply mourn their loss—but may HE "who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," in his infinite mercy, enable them to bear their depriva-tion with meekness; knowing that "the Lord doeth all things!"—In the language of the Poet— Leaves have their their time to fall, And flow'rs to wither at the north winds breath, And stars to set—but all The seasons thou hast for thine own, O Death? Notice.—The subscriber purposes, (if the project is favorably received,) to furnish and apply Numbers to the Dwellings, Stores, Offices, &c., throughout Lancaster city. That this improvement is very much needed is obvious to every one. So popular is the system of numbering, that there is probably no city in the Union of the size of Lancaster in which it has been so long neglected. It is unnecessary to enumerate the many advantages of having streets regularly numbered. The advertiser will call upon the citizers of Lancaster, in a few days, with a variety of new and beautiful styles of Numbers and Door Plates, which he will supply at Philadelphia prices.
