FRANK FERN. . We left Rushville about 8 o'clock in the morning, and soon struck the prairie trail for McDonough. In prairie waggons, (here dignor acconough. In prairie waggons, (here dig-nified with the name of coaches) we sometimes meet with characters sui generi, and we had them in the present instance. The company consisted of one lady and three gentlemen; the former, a resi-dent of Kentucky—of the latter, two were Hoosiers, self from Pennsylvania,—"we four and no Considerable time elapsed before any conversation ensued, until at last warmed into some thing like sociability by the lurching of the coach thing like sociality by the totering of the controlling us heterogeneously to-gether, gave to each a tongue. The Hoosiers were rampant politicians and one passed a glowing tribute upon Judge Driverass, winding up with his great availability for the Presidency. Hoosier No. 2, was an out and the student into the little out Houston man, and he pitched into the little out mouston man, and he picened into the fitter Giant champion with a Mustang charge, or some such as Sam gave Santa Anna on the plains of San Jacinto. Of course I did not interrupt their collo-quy, for I telt an indifferent interest about the result—my affections being at home. But the lady was not so apethetic, as myself; for being appealed was not so apethetic, as mysell; for being appealed to in their conversation, she spoke nearly as follows, in a clear silvery voice and with a most electrical effect: "Gentlemen, I'm a Pennsylvanian by birth, and by education a Kentuckian. To the first offin, and by education a nentuckian. To the first I am indebted for my existence—to the latter for whatever of usefulness I may be to society. Under these circumstances, I yield the palm to my native state, of which I feel proud, when I think of her great Senator, James Buchanan. But my preference for Mr. B. is not based upon State pride alone; he has evinced the devotion of a true patriot to his country by marching with a musket on his shoulder, in times of public peril, when Senators were inviting the enemy to batter down the walls of the Capitol. He has illustrated in his public life as much political wisdom—governmental sagacity and high moral and intellectual worth, as any cotemporary statesman: He was the acknowledged Nestor of the American Senate while associated with such intellectual giants as Wright, Clay, Cal-

with such intellectual giants as Wright, Clay, Calhoun, Benton, King, Webster, Woodbury and others, all of whom yielded a ready tribute to his practical sense and all-grasping intellect."

[That's the speech, my dear iN—but the speaker.
"aye, that's the rub!" is there not moral beauty in a rose leaf; you should have seen her fine dark eye, glowing with enthusiasm—you should have heard the emphasis—the tone—earnestness—the warmth of her expression—but it's no use talking; my emotions were almost painful, and I could not utter the west of gratitude; though I felt it and must ome word of gratitude; though I felt it and must have looked it, for the lady acknowledged it with one of the sweetest smiles that ever played upon the face of Southern beauty. I felt proud of my home; I felt proud of BUCHNAN, and would not have exchanged the title of "Pennsylvanian" with e "first citizen of Rome," in the most illustriou

OBITUARY. Although the death of Mr. Sherer was by no means unexpected, as he had been in extremely bad health for several years past, yet it is a sad be: eavement to a large circle of relatives and friends, who watched the transition from life to death with painful solicitude. By a life of most exemplary depor ment and spotless integrity, he won for himself a large number of devoted friends. Of a kind, amia le and humane disposition, he was universally es-temed in the community in which he so long resi-ed. He has fallen in the "sear and yellow leaf" "the grain was fully ripened for the sickle of death," and he has been gathered into the "common garner of morality." Let us cherish the hope, that after a long, useful, and well spent life, he is now ing that peaceful rest promised to all who Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia.

MR. DEACON'S CASE.

Dr. J. R. Schence—
My dear si:—I am pleased beyond expression, to inform you of the extraordinary cure your Pulmonic syrup has made in my case. Eight or nine years since I was attacked with a violent scrofulous affection. Painful ulcers appeared on my face and neck, which in a short time ate the flesh to the bones. My sufferings were awfuls. In a short time ulcers came out n my arms and body. The discharges from the ulcers were so offensive that it was unpleasant for any one to stay in my room. I applied to several physicians, who informed me it could not be cured except by my undergoing a mrecurial treatment, which I was very loath to do. However, my disease continuing, the ulcers increasing in size and number, my health becoming daily impaired, and death inevitable, I consented to the treatment. I took an immense deal of calomel and mercury before the disease appeared to be arrested, all the time suffering tordeal of calomel and mercury before the disease ap-peared to be arrested, all the time suffering tor-tures, my appetite gone and my body much emaci-ated; every joint in my body seemed loosened, and much swoolen and sore. I was pronounced cured of scrofula, but bady afflicted with a "mercurial My system was in a | horrible condition. Every change in the weather would bring upon me pains which were almost beyond endurance. My digeswhich were almost beyond endurance. My digestive organs were very much impaired; the ulcers would occasional re-appear, discharging very offensive matter. I was induced to take "Syrup of Sarsaparilla," which I procured of some of the most popular manufacturers. After taking six or eight bottles the disease would apparently subside, but in the course of three or four weeks it would return and compel me to resort to the same remedy. The the course of three or four weeks it would return and compel me to resort to the same remedy. The benefit I deriveed from using the Sarsaparilla was merely temporary, and was costing me a great deal of money, more than I was able to pay. I despaired of ever being cured; my life was a burthen to me; I often felt as though I would rather die at once than linger on in such awful misery without hope. About eighteen months since some of my friends informed me of several cures of Scrofula performed by SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, and requesting me to try it. I had no confidence performed by SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, and requesting me to try it. I had no confidence in anything, Mr. Van Doran, Conductor on the Bamden and Amboy Railroad, told me of a person cured by your Syrup, and insisted on my grving it a trial. His confidence in it produced me to procure a half dozen bottles. At the time I was suffering tortures, my limbs were much swollen and very painful, the ulcers discharging very offensive matter; nothing but large dose of landanum enabled me to sleep. Being rising the rsing the conbled me to sleep. Being rising the rsing the con-tents of the fifth bottle I experienced a benefit; my bled me to sleep. Being rising the rising the contents of the fifth bottle! experienced a benefit; my to degistive organs much improved, and seemed to regain their healthy exercise; my appetite was much increased, and I felt atronger throughout my while system; the ulcers discharged very freely, for and the discharges became less and less offensive. Whilst using the tenth bottle all swel.inn, and sore ness left me, the discharges subsided, the ulcers commenced healing, and before the buttle was empted, all appearance of ulcers were removed, and I was permanently cured. I have enjoyed uninterrupted good health for the last fifteen months. I am convinced that scrofula and mercurial diseases are entirely endicated from my system. I have not had ache for more than a year past. Prior to my using the Pulmonic Syrup, there was not a week that: I did not suffer day and night more or less the most excruciating pains. I am confident if I had used your Pulmonic Syrup, there was not a week that: I did not suffer day and night more or less the most excruciating pains. I am confident if I had used your Pulmonic Syrup fering, and saved me several hundred dollars. I am on, thank God, a perfectly w. Il man, and attitute it entirely to your "Pulmonic Syrup."

CHERRY PECTORAL For the rapid Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS; BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

OF all the ll the numerous medicines extant, (and me of them valuable) for the cure of pul-O some of them valuable; for the cure of pul-monary complaints, nothing have ever been tound which could compare in its effects with this prep-aration. Others cure sometimes, but at all times and in all diseases of the lungs and throat where medicine can give relief, this will do it. It is pleasant to take, and perfectly safe in accordance with the directions. We do not advertise for the information of those who have tried it but those who have not samilies that have known it value who have not. Families that have known its value will not be without it, and by its timely use, they are secure from the danserous consequences of Coughs and Celds which neglected, ripen into fatal consumption.

The Diploma of the Massachusetts Institute was awarded to this preparation by the Board of Judges in September 1847; also, the Medals of the three great Institutes of Art, in this country; also the Diploma of the Ohio Institute at Cincinnati, has

Read the following opinion founded on the experience of the eminent Physicians of the Port and City of ST. JOHNS, May 8, 1851.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, —Five years trial of CHERRY PECTORAL in my practice, has proven what I foresaw from its composition, must be true, that it eradicates and cures the colds and coughs to which we, in this section, are peculiarly hable.

I think its equal has not yet been discovered, nor do I know how a better remady can be made for the distempers of the Throat and Lungs.

SUMBURY, Jan. 24th, 1861.

Dr. Ayer:—In the month of July last I was attacked by a violent diarrhosa in the mines of California. I ret rned to San Francisco in hope of receiving benefit from a change of climate and diet. My diarrosa ceased, but was followed by a severe cough—and more soreness. I finally started for home, but received no benefit from the voyage.—My cough continued to grow worse, and when I arrived in New York, I was at once marked by my acquaintances as a victim of consumption. I must confess that I saw no sufficient reason to doubt what my friends all believed. At this time I commenced taking your truly invaluable medicine with little expectation of deriving any benefit from its use. Dear sir — Feeling tast I have been spared from a premature grave, through your instrumentality by the providence of God, I will take the liberty to express to you my gratitude.

A cough of the alarming symptoms of Consumption had reduced me too low to leave me anything like hope, when my physician brought me a bottle of your "Pectoral." It seemed to afford immediate relief, and now in a few weeks time has restored me to sound health. THE TAPE WORM!

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of all that infest the human system, it grows to an almost indefinite length, becoming so coiled and fastened in the intestines and stomach, effecting the health so sadly as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seldom if ever suspect, that it is Tape Worm hastening them to an early grave.—In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 or 8 of my Liver Pills so as to remove all obstructions, that the Worm Syrup may act direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 tablespoonfulls 3 times a day—these directions followed have never been known to fail in rections followed have never been known to fail in rections followed have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm.

HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER, it serving as a filterer to purify the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong action of the Liver effects the other important parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, &c. We should, therefore, watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Liver.—These Pills being composed of Roots & Plants furnished by nature to heal the sick: Namely, lat, An Expectorant, which augments the secretion from the Pulmonary mucus membrane, or promote the discharge of secreted matter. 2nd. An Altertive, which changes in some inexplicable and insepsible manner the certain morbid action of the system. Srd. A Tonic; which gives tone and strength to the nervous system, renewing health and vigor to all parts of the body. 4th. A Cathartic, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the bowels and expelling the whole mass of corrupt and vitiated matter, and purifying the blood, which destroys disease and restores health. disease and restores health.
