

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention of Pennsylv nia, to nominate candidates for the office of Can Commissioner, Auditor General, and Surveyor General, of the State, assembled to-day at 9 o'clock in the Hall of the House of Representatives, pur in the Hall of the House of Representatives, pur-euant to the call of the State Central Committee. The attendance of Delegates was very full, and the strong interest felt by the friends of the rival candidates, especially for the office of Canal Com-missioner, caused much excitement to prevail. The Convention was called to order at 12 o'clock, and much received and turnels by Mr. Wise who amid much noise and tumult, by Mr. Wise, who moved that the Hon. Arnold Plumer, of Venango,

Mr. Wise put the question amid cries of "order," order," and great confusion.

Mr. Cessna, alter a time, and when order had in some measure been restored, expressed his regret at the scene which had been enacted, and besought all to act with calmness and decorum. To settle the difficulty as to the choice of a Chairman, he proposed the appointment of tellers to count the votes.

The motion was put and agreed to, and tellers then having been appointed, the vote for a temporary chairman was again taken, and resulted in Mr. Plumer receiving 66 votes, and Mr. Ceson 64 votes.

Mr. Plumer thereupon took the chair, and, in a brief speech, thanked the delegates for the compliment conferred, at the same time alluding to the convention but assembled to important duties the Convention had assembled to perform, and trusting that no excited feeling migh-be aroused to mar their harmonious action.

A committee of one from each Congressional district was then, on motion, appointed to report officers for the permanent organization of the Con-The Convention then adjourned until three o'clock

The Convention re-assembled at 3 o'clock, when the Hon. J. M. Porter, of Northampton county, chairman of the committee appointed to select of dicers for the permanent organization of the convention, reported that they had selected Wm. L. Hirst, Esq., of Philadelphia, as President. The committee also reported the names of some twenty gentlemen as Vice Presidents, and five Secretaries the Vice-President from Lancaster county was Dr.

The officers reported by the committee were then unanimously approved by the convention, and the President (Mr. Hirst) being conducted to the chair, addressed the convention in a brief speech of thanks, alluding also to the many happy, and gratifying circumstances under which they had assembled, and which had in a great measure resulted from the bold and independent position taken and main-tained by the Democracy of the country in the late National contest

The list of delegates was then called, and the credentials of the delegations from the several counties submitted. In a number of cases substitutes appeared and were admitted.

The matter of the contested seats was then taken up, but one only—that of the contesting delegates from Montour and Columbia counties—occupied any considerable time.

The question of the admission of the Represen tative delegate from the counties of Montour and Columbia being before the Convention. Mr. Valentine Best, of Montour, advocated his right to his seat, and discussed with much minute-ness the circumstances attending his appointment, and the shadow of a claim, only, that was set up by his contestant. Mr. John Dean, of Columbia, [the contesting delegate,] replied at length.

Some further discussion followed, and the Con vention finally decided to admit neither, first by rejecting by a large vote the claim of Mr. Best, and then refusing the seat to Mr. Dean.

The Convention being then fully organized it was moved to proceed to the nomination of candidates for the offices of Canal Commissioner, Auditor General and Surveyor General, taking first the office of Canal Commissioner.

The motion was agreed to, and the names of some ten or twelve gentlemen were then placed general nomination for the office of Canal, Com-

Kimberton Boarding School.— This Institution is located twenty-eight miles north-west from Phiiadelphia, and three miles from the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad at Phoenixville, where there is a stage to Kimberton daily, during the Summer, and every other day during the Winter months. Kimberton is also connected with Lancaster City, by a line of stages, by way of Churchton.

Parents and Guardians will find Kimberton a very desirable place at which to educate their daughters or wards. Its location is retired, beautiful and healthful. The buildings are commodious, particularly designed for school purposes, and well supplied with pure spring water for bathing and other uses. It will be the constant aim of the Principal to make the school a pleasant and profitable home to all who may be entrusted to his care. None but experienced and will qualified teachers are employed.

experienced and will qualined teachers are employed.

The government is, as hearly as practicable, that of a well conducted christian family.

The course of study includes all the branches of a complete English education, together with the classics, and the ornamental branches, such as Music, Drawing, Painting, Needlework, &c.

The scholastic year is divided into two Sessions of five mouths each—the Summer Session, commencing on the second Wednesday in May, and the Winter Session on the second Wednesday in November.

TERMS.—(On half in advance.) For board at uition in all English and classical studies, per session, $65,00. For the ornamental branches there sion, $60,00. For the ornamental variances their is a moderate extra charge. Circulars and further information may be obtained by addressing the undersigned at Kimberton.
