MARRIAGE. HAPPINESS AND COMPETENCE

WHY IS IT! That we behold many females, scarce in the meridian of life broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and allments, depriving them of the rower for the enjoymen of life at an age when physical health, buryancy of spirits, and happy seepainty of mind, arising from a condition of health and happy serenity of mind, anising from a condition of health should be predominant.

Many of the crusses of her sufferings at first—perhaps year before, perhaps during girlhood, or the first years of marriagewere in their origin so light as to pass unnoticed, and of course neglected.

IN AFTER YEARS. When too late to be benefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of our ignorance.

What would we not often give to possess, in early life, the knowledge we obtain in after years! And what days and nights of anguish we might not have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is

MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING To behold the siekness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable, easily remedied—or better still,—not incurred, if every WIFE AND MOTHER

Possessed the information contained in a little volume, (with in the reach of all) which would spare to herself YEARS OF MISERY, And to her husband the constant toil and anxiety of mind, necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wrife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that com petence which his zertrious are entitled, and the possession of which would secure the happiness of himself, wife, and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousand in view of such consequences, no wife or mother is exceed if a such capable if she neglect to avail herself of that knowledge respect to herself, which would spare her much suffering, the means of begoiness and prosperity to her husband, a conferupon her children that blessing above all price—health bodies with healthy minds.
