SHOCKING TRAGEDY.—The following horrible tale is told by the Springueld (Mo.) Advertiser, which receives it from a correspondent at Cark, Missouri: "On Tuesday evening last, a gentleman who says he lives near the mouth of the James, in Stone county, on his return from Springfield home, to which place he had been on business connected with the Land office, was overtaken on the road between Collier's old place and the head of Crane, by three villains, who manifested a disposition t stop his progress.

He became alarmed, and attempted to make his escape from them. They gave him chase, and his horse becoming jaded, and discovering that they had got ahead off him, he turned off from the road. Seeing they were about to overtake him, he abandoned his horse, and attempted to make his escape on foot. He was soon overtaken, however, his throat cut, and his pockets rifed, and then dragged into a thicket, in which he was endeavoring to conceal himself before he was overhauled. Here he was a spendand supposed to be dying.

But he survived until Wednesday morning, when But he survived until Wednesday morning, when one of the wretches returned and cut his throat again. He had crawled to the road which leads from the neighborhood of Porter's over to Kimberlings', on James, below Yokeman's Mill, and was tracked by his blood, it is supposed. Kimberling had started from home on some business, and came up just at the time, running off the villain before he had finished his work. Mr. Kimberling was perfectly horrified at the spectacle before him. The trachea was cut off, so that articulation was prevented. Mr. Kimberling galloped his horse back to Alexander Berry's, where the people were assembled for meeting, got help, and returned as quickly as possible. While he was gone, the fiend again returned, and finding him not dead, told him he should not live to give evidence against him. The returned, and finding him not dead, told him he should not live to give evidence against him. The poor fellow, apprehending the murderers' return had got out his knife, and intended to try to defend himself. His knife was discovered—a rock was dashed against his head which stunned him—his throat was again cut with his own knife, and the work was supposed to be finished. However, "the ways of Providence are inscrutable and past finding out?" out." Mr. Kimberling returned in a few minutes after the murderer had left him, with soveral of his neighbors. They succeeded in getting him to a house, where Mrs. Messenger stitched up, as well as she could, the horrible cut, so that he was able as she could, the norrible cut, so that he was able to give the information above detailed. The poor fellow may get we.l; he seemed to be as comfortable as could be expected! swallowed water well, and breathed through the natural orifice. Fortunately he had but little money, and they did not get that, he having placed it in a side pocket in his coat, and they falled to examine all his pockets. We have succe leaved that the name of the internal of the side. We have since learned that the name of th red man is John Russel.

THRILLING CASUALTY AT NIAGARA FALLS .- U Monday evening of last week, three men-two them, named John Able and Andrew Hannamar and the other a stranger—got adrift in a small boat just above the frightful abyss, over which the two latter were hursed, and instantly dashed to atoms. Able, when near the verge of the foaming cataract, succeeded in reaching a rock, to which he clung till about six o'clock on Tuesday evening. The anxiety of the people on shore to reacue the unformate then from his perilous situation was most intense throughout the day. But if the feelings of the spectators were aroused to such a pitch, what must spectators were aroused to such a pitch, what must have been the thoughts of him who almost certain of eventually becoming a prey to the roaring torrent? every scheme that human ingenuity could devise was resorted to; life boats were brought from Buffalo, and provisions were floated to him on raits. Late in the afternoon he succeeded in placling himself on one of these raits, and was on the point of stepping from it fitto a liteboat, when to the dismay and horror of the spectators on shore, the boat came in collision with the raft with so much violence, as to pitch poor ABLE into the was ter. Still undaunted, he struck out boildly for a small island in the vicinity; but the current overpowered his already exhausted physical energies, and, after thus desperately struggling for life, and tenaciously clinging for twenty houra to a slippery rock, which itself could scarcely withstand the impersions of the stream the vicinium tenactions. petuous force of the stream, the victim was swept into eternity. REV. Dr. IVES .- The statement that the Rev. Dr. Ives, late Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, was about to be ordained a priest in the Cath-olic Church, and that the Pope had informed him that he must separate from his wife, is positively contradicted by the Freeman's Journal. As regards contradicted by the Freeman's Journal. As regards the separation, the Journal says such a thing is not likely to find favor anywhere in the Catholic Church. The Journal also publishes an extract of a letter of Dr. lves to the Rev. Dr. Forbes, of New York, in which he alleges that an account had been made up against him in North Carolina, and aprocess served upon his library and Mrs. Ives personal articles left behind in that State. He further says: "All I ask in this life is to have my dear wife side by side with me at the altar, and some situation however low, however obscure, where I can keep her above positive want."

A MELANCHOLY TALE. - The Chicago Tribune in forms us that five unknown persons, who were bu-ried as such, killed by the collision last April at the junction of the Illinois Central and Norther Indiana roads, were a family by the name of Kellog, moving from the State of New York to Minnesota. They were a man, his wife, and three lads. An infant, taken unhurt from among the ruins, it has now been ascertained, belonged to the same lamily. The two elder sons with a grown updaughter are living in Minnesota. They have been on to Illinois, and have visited the graves of the family that were killed on their way to join them, and have taken their sittle sister away with them.

Mournful as this bereavement is to the friends of the deceased, it gives great consolation to know that in his dying moments he was supported by the hopes of our holy religion. He was for many years an esteemed member of the Reformed church.—

While with full confidence in the everlasting cove-nant he was enabled to look forward to the hour of his dissolution without a fear or regret; confi-ding his bereaved family to the care of Him who had redeemed him, he raised his voice in songs of praise and thanktulness. Counseling his children, and bidding his dear wife and friends a last fare-well, with that resignation and calmness which but the true christain can know. His light is still shining, and we trust that under the blessing of God it will lead many an inquiring soul to follow him in the way of life.

Shed not your tears, dear friends, for me; Calmly I've sailed o'er life's troubled sea, Now I've reached my long sought prize, Which lies in Heav'n beyond the skies. There with patience I long to meet You all around Christ's mercy scat; There shall we our voices sweetly raise,

WELCH'S PARISIAN HIPPODROME.

The Largest Establishment in the world, formed for the purpose of restoring the Ancient Games, Festivals, and Ceremonies of the GREEKS and ROMANS, Will exhibit at Lancaster on Friday and Saturday, July 29th and 30th, 1853. Doors open on Friday at 7½ o'clock P. M., on Saturday at 2½ and 7½ o'clock P. M. Performance will commence half an hour after opening. Admission---Boxes 25 cts., Reserved seats 50 cts. Children under 10 years of age will be admitted to the reserved seats at half price. This Colossal Exhibition is one of the most novel affairs ever gotten up. It is the result of individual enterprize, and was formed at the expense of $120,000. The Entertainments are of a purely classical character, differing entirely from anything ever witnessed in this country. An idea of their extent can be gained, when the public are informed, that One Hundred and Sixty-three male and female artistes and six auxiliaries, are necessary to give to and effect to the various PAGEANTS, PROCESSIONS, and TABLEAUX, whilst the entire stud is composed of 200 Imported Horses, Trained Ponies, and educated animals.

to the various PAĞEANTS, PROCESSIONS, and TABLEAUX, whilst the entire stud is composed of 200 Imported Horses, Trained Ponies, and educated animals.

The HIPPODROME is the largest pavilion ever built, containing ample accommodation for 6000 Spectators, and is so constructed as to be cool in warm weather, and comfortable at a cooler degree of temperature. This is an advantage that no other Pavilion is said to possess. During the evening, it will be illuminated with gas, furnished from a patent apparatus, of sufficient capacity to supply the immense amount required for the purpose. The entree into town will be made in the early part of the day, and observed by a GRAND PROCESSION, led by Post's celebrated Bras Band, composed of over 20 musicians. Then will follow the company mounted, afterwards the long line of chariots, cars, vans, &c., &c., the whole forming a collossal and unique display.

The performances being new in a great measure to the majority of persons, it perhaps will not be out of place to particularize few of the most prominent, aithough we cannot give them in detail. The full particulars will be afforded by the descriptive sheets, bills, pamphlets. lithographs, &c., &c. The best historical authors—Homer, Anthon, Goldsmith, Hume, Rollin, Pindar and others, in their various works give full descriptions of the beauties of the Grecian and Roman Hippodromes.

The Grand Prensentation will commence with a Triumphal Roman Procession, composed of the King, Queen, Squires, Ladies of Honor, and Lords of the Royal Household, attended by their armour bearers, vassals, slaves, courtiers, &c., &c. Then will come the meeting of the Knights and Champions on the Tiling Ground, known as the "field of the Cloth of Gold!" During this scene a fair and true representation of the TOURNAMENT OF OLDEN TIMES will be given, together with a deadly Shield and Sword Combat, concluding with the exciting CAROUSAL, the JAVELIN SPORTS, and the Lancing of the Head of the Saracen.

ced and patronized by the ancient Lawgiver.

I.A PERCHE EQUIPOISE, by the French brothers, is one of the most complicated and startling feats ever witnessed. It is accomplished by one of the artistes balancing a pole 30 feet high, upon which the other ascends, and at the dizzy height goes through a scene of graceful movements, that enchant, terrily, and astonish all who behold them.

LA COURSE GREQUE; by the Five French Girls: Miles, Rosa, Pauline, Amelia, Gertrude, and

Marie; a scene of wild excitement, first done by ladies in the Athenian Amphitheatre. In this scene the ladies appear mounted on thorough bred charges, and at the tap of the bell, go off at full speed, each one striving assiduously to win the prize, known to the ancients as the Chaplet of Beauty.

The WAR CHARIOTS, four horses harnessed abreast to splendid cars will be driven, at the top of

The WAR CHARIOTS, four horses harnessed abreast to splendid cars will be driver, at the top of their speed around the course. The grand beauty of this scene, beggars description. The steeds foaming and dashing, the drivers urging them on, the audience shouting, and the clarion sounding above all the din, at once fills our mind with a strange uncontrolable feeling. We imagine ourselves once more in an age when the exciting scenes of the Hippodrome were National Features, and claimed their votatics from the Tribunes, the Senate Chamber and the Forum.

The Menage Exercises, given in this Exhibition are paramount to any ever witnessed. The horses were all imported by the Proprietor at an immense expense, and trained expressly in Paris and Berlin, for MD-LLE MINNA, Premere Equestrienne from the Royal Hippodromes of Berlin and Vienns, and the Cirque Nationale, Paris. She will have the honor of introducing as fine a stud of trained horses as the best menege in the world can claim. Included in the number will be found the Leaping Horses Hercules and Napoleon and the dancing steeds Empress and Jupiter.

For the purpose of relieving the continued succession of splendor the Hippodrome affords, the manager deemed it necessary to introduce, by way of variety a "little piece of humor," occasionally. He therefore has prepared a French Equestrian Pantomime, called BERTRAND. Founded however, on the vagaries of Robert Macaire, and Jaques Strop, in France. This scene will develope some of the finest pantomimic talent ever witnessed, and the peculiar revolving, not revolting situations of the fancy when doomed by the gens d'armes, will be found particularly amusing.

A series of ariel miracles on the corde volante, by that celebrated American artiste, for several years the wonder of Europe, and the principal star at Francon's, H. W. FRANKLIN. The Poses by this gentleman are the "poetry by motion." He concludes by throwing a Somersault from the-rope, and the wonder of Europe, and the principal star at Francon's, H. W. FRANKLIN. The Poses by this gentleman are the "poetry by motion." He concludes by throwing a Somersault from the-rope, and alighting on the ground, at a distance of 40 feet.

The STEEPLE CHASE, a royal sport of "Merris England," by the five Amazons, Madlles. Eloise, Armine, Josephine, Margueretta, and Julie; introducing the stud of English Fox liunters, bounding over hudles, barries, and 5 barried fences. This scene is one of the most graceful, though arduous feats of Equestrianism. It is but little seen in this country, although English ladies of rank aspire to be mistresses of the Hurdle chase. This performance will undoubtedly, be extremely interesting to the "fair daughters of America," for whose instruction and gratification it is specially introduced.

The Trial of the POSTILLION; a Triple Quadruple Tandem Act, requiring twelve horses. Each artist riding two and driving two, a novel feat—one of the prettist features of the modern Hippodrome LA COURSE DES SINGES, a scene travestic of the Turf. By a troupe of Monkies, Apes, Baboons, attired as jockies, and riding the Lilliputian Ponies, after the style of the English Sportsman. Pheaton driving the horses of the Sun, and offering to Olympian Jupiter, in which one Artiste will ride and manage Twenty four Horses. This feat supersedes all attempts hitherto made by Equestrians, in fact it was never attempted, let albne accomplished, out of Welch's Parisian Hippodrome.

The other novelties offered in each entertainment, are too voluminous to warrant publication in the columns of a journal. To the "posters" must we refer the people. But there is one more that mus mot be overlooked; that is the scene from the Italian Corso, and entitled the Flight of the LIBERTY STEEDS. In it 12 fine proud and splendid horses are let free on the track. The boundings, gambols, and racing of these beautiful animals, charm all beholders, and draw forth the undivided plaudits of approached the superserved of the proud and

Dear Sir: You ask me for my opinion of "Silver's Mineral Paints," which you have put on my Machine Shop and Planing Mill. I give you with pleasure my full and hearty recommendation of it as a preventive of Fire communicating from Chimneys, or from adjoining buildings. The Paint which you put on my roofs, has now become as hard as slate, and I feel as secure from Fire, in this direction is prescrible. A few wasks after the roofs tion, as is possible. A few weeks after the roof had been painted, I made an experiment on two or three shingles by placing them in the furnace unde the boilers; the result was, that the portion uncov ered was entirly consumed, while the painted par was apparently sound, though upon examination the wood was found to be charred; the Paint however was firm and but little blistered. I conside this as severe a test as your Paint can be put to and under the circumstances I'do not hesitate to commend at as an invaluable preventive against Fire. Respectfully, &c. (Signed,) AMBROSE SPENCER. (Signea,) AMBROSE SPENCER.

june 21 1y-22 Memorials of Lancaster county; Historical and Biographical, Statistical and Incidental, by J. M. Willis Geist. Illustrated.
Having engaged to write a new History of Lancaster county, on an original plan, as indicated in the title above given, the undersigned adopts this plan of calling the attention of his fellow citizens to the interest and importance of such an underta king, with a view to their aid in collecting materi-als for the same.

It will be apparent to any one that a complete book, covering the ground contemplated in the ti-tle, will be an important contribution to the library of every citizen. As our title implies, it will be something more than a mere history—A book of Memorials of the past, treasured up for the present and the future—embracing I. Historical—An authentic narrative of local events in the order in which they happened, with comprehensive and impartial reflections on their causes and effects, as revealed in the facts related. II. Bluggaphical—The history of the life and There is also on this property a large Orchard of character of our most prominent and useful citizens —many of them the home-bred heroes of un-writ ten history—from the first settlement of the county up to the present time.

III. STATISTICAL—A collection of interesting facts, systematically arranges, respecting the State of Society, the condition of the People, their Domestic Economy, Arts, Property, and Political Strength, in the past and present.

IV. INCIDENTAL—This division will embrace such matter of local interest as may not be considered execution. ered essential to any of the other divisions of the work, but which have been invested by circum work, but which have been invested by circumstances of sufficient importance to claim a subordinate place in the Memorials.

The Memorials will be handsomely illustrated with appropriate embellishments, among which we may name full-page panoramic and perspective views of the city of Lancaster, and Boroughs and principal Villages, with their picturesque landscapes; the Public Buildings, including the old Court Houses and Jails, with an outline plan of the town of Lancaster, and a map of the surrounding town of Lancaster, and a map of the surrounding country in 1730, from the original copy in the Archives of the State; also, a complete map of the county at the present time. In addition to the above, each biographical sketch will be, so as far as practicable, illustrated with a portrait.

All persons in possession of interesting or curious Facts and Documents, or any information which might be of use to the author in writing out the Memorials on the plan laid down, will confer a special favor by opening a correspondence with the undersigned. Additional particulars relating to the time and place of birth, the early history and family connections of Romer Fullow, and other family connections of ROBERT FULTON, and other prominent natives of the county, are especially so-licited. To cure a cold, with Headache and soreness of the body, take the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, and wrap up warm, to sweat during the night.

For a cold and cough, take it morning, noon, and evening, according to directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will soon be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble when they find it can be so readily cured. Persons afflicted with a seated cough, which breaks them of their rest at night, will find, by taking the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of sound, unbroken sleep, and consequently refreshing rest. Great relief from suffering, and an ultimate cure, is afforded to thoussuffering, and an ultimate cure, is afforded to thousands who are thus afflicted, by this invaluable remedy.

From its agreeable effect in these cases, many find themselves unwilling to forego its use when the necessity for it ceased. From two eminent Pyhysicians in

Sir:—We have given your Cherry Pectoral an extensive trial in our practice, and find it to surpass every other remedy we have for curing affections of the respiratory organs.

DRS. DIEMER & HAMPTON. To singers and public speakers this remedy is nvaluable, as by its action on the threat and lungs, when taken in small quantities, it removes at hoarseness in a few hours, and wonderfully in-creases the power and flexibility of the voice. Asthma is generally much relieved, and often wholly cured by Cherry Pectoral. But there are some cases so obstinute as to yield entirely to no medicine. Cherry Pectoral will cure them, if they can be cured. Bronchitis, or irritation of the throat and uppe portion of the lungs, my be cured by taking Cherry ectoral in small and frequent doses. The uncomortable oppression is soon relieved. Rev. Dr. LANSING, of BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, states:-- 'I have seen the Cherry Pectoral cure such cases of Asthma and Brnochitis as leads me o believed it can rarely sail to cure those diseases."

For Croup. Give an emetic of antimony, to be ollowed by large and frequent doses of the Cherry Pectoral, until it subdues the disease. If taken in scason, it will not fail to cure.

Whooping cough may be broken up and soon cured by the use of Cherry Pec.oral.
The influenza is speeduly removed by this remedy. Numerous instances have been noticed where whole families were protected from any serious consequences, while their neighbors, without the Cherry Pectoral, were suffering from the discuss.

Salem, Ohio, June 11th, 1501.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: —I write to inform you of the truly remarkable effects of your Cherry Pectoral in this place, and in my own family. One of my daughters was completely cured in three days of a dreadful Whooping Cough, by taking it. Dr. Means, one of our very best physicians freely states that he considers it the best remedy we have for cases of Croup with it than any other medicine he ever administered.
