Vouth, Age, Style, Taste, Beauty and Fashion.—The seasons of life should be arranged like those of the year. In the spring of youth, when all is lovely and gay, then as the green cover is spread on all the face of smiling nature, in brightness and beauty, so let the dress partake of the season. Fine taste, as well as fashion, decrees the necessity of nicely adapted garments to age, circumstances and seasons. The man whose head is silvered with age, who feels not the blood of youth dancing warmly in his veins, should not run into extremes of dress, nor yet should he permit his clothing to be so far behind the times as to render him ridiculous. There is a becoming fashionable dress, suitable for the age and seasons of life as well as the seasons of the year. You can be suited in handsome style in clothing that is well and fashionably made, of good materials that will fit well and become the figure and season, at the

HAPPINESS AND COMPETENCE.

WHY 18 1T 1 That we behold many females, scarce in the meridian of life broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and aliments, depriving them of the power for the enjoymen of life at an age when physical health, baoyancy of spirits, and happy serenity of much a rising from a condition of beath. of life at an age mounted arising from a common and happy secretary of mind, arising from a common and should be predominant.

Many of the capter of her sufferings at first-perhaps years before, perhaps during girlhood, or the first years of marriage—were in their origin so light as to pass monoticed, and of course were in their origin so light as to pass monoticed, and of course

IN AFTER YEARS, When too late to be benefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of our ignorance. What would we not often give to possess, in early life, the knowledge we obtain in after years! And what days and nights of anguish we might not have been spared, if the knowledge was timely possessed. It is

MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING To behold the sickness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable, easily remedied—or better still,—not incurred, if every WIFE AND MOTHER "

Possessed the information contained in a little volume, (with in the reach of all) which would spare to herself YEARS OF MISERY, And to her husband the constant toil and anxiety of mind, accessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the wife, without giving him the opportunity of acquiring that competence which his zertions are entitled, and the possession of which would secure the happiness of himself, wife, and children.

SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and poverty of thousands ln view of such consequences, no wife or mother is excussible if she neglect to avail herself of that knowledge in respect to herself, which would spare her much suffering, be the means of harpiness and prosperity to her husband, and conferupout a children that blessing above all price—healthy bodies with healthy minds. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled

SURPRIZING OR WONDERFUL.

Considering that EVERY FEMALE, WHETHER MARRIED OR NOT, can here acquire a full knowledge of the nature character and causes of her complaints, with the various symptoms, and that nearly HALF A MILLION COPIES

It is impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married, or those contemplating marriages, but no female desirous of equiyoring health, and that beauty, consequent upon health, which is so conductive to her own happiness, and that of her husband, but either has or will affect to the desirous of each of will heart, or that of his own pecuniary improvement.
