From the Harrisburg Telegraph. Abstract of Opinions of the Supreme Court, Sterrett vs. Faxon-Error to Mifflin-Lowrie, J. A book of original entries, in which alterations appear, is admissable if the party testifies that he made the very entries, and at the proper time; and his credibility is for the jury. It is also evidence of goods sold and delivered, although the plaintiff On cross-examination, swears that some of the were delivered to the men in the employ of defendant. The book cannot be excluded on evidence that the defendant instructed the plaintiff not to le the hands have goods unless they paid for them. Such evidence is for the jury and not the Court,

Mitchell vs. Middleton—Error to—. Lewis, J.

The devise to the testator's wife of "house that we dwell in, to be disposed by her as she shall think just," passes a fee simple, unless a contrary intention appears from other parts of the will.

Porter vs. Mayfield—Error to Lancaster.—Lowrie,

J.—When the relation of landlord and tenant J.—when the relation of latinion and relating created by writings, oral testimony cannot be at lowed to contradict the terms of the agreement. Evidence that at the time of the making of a con veyance, the vender agreed to hold the title in trus for the vendee, is a flat contradiction of the written instrument executed by the parties as the bond and evidence of their relation, and would make then void in their inception. As between vender and vendee, such testimony cannot be heard to change a title, absolute on its face, into a trust.

It is no fraud for the plaintiff to insist upon prompt payment of the bid and in default of payment he may legally agree to Haus vs. Palmer-Error to - Lowrie J. legatee or devisee releasing (not assigning) his claim, may be a witness to prove the will. A leg-atee or devisee releasing all claim upon the executors or administrators, as to the matter in controversy, may be a witness in actions to recover assets of the estate. In order to establish a nuncupative will, the substance of the will, the intent will, the call upon two or more disinterested persons to bear witness to it as a will, and the necessity of resorting to, and depending on a verbal will, must each and all appear with great clearness. Senseman's Appeal—Error to Cumberland—Lewis,

J. It is improper to appoint a lather guardian of his child's estate. But his duty and power to pro-tect its interest remain; and where he is full life and within the jurisdiction of the court, he should have notice of the proceedings and is entitled to be heard The appointment of a guardian is a final decree upon the right to the care and control of the person o the minor. A settlement of the accounts of the Executor, when the minor has no guardian to see that they are properly settled, and a distribution of the assets without a refunding bond, is neither a discharge of the Executor, nor a justification of his appointment as a guardian.

Cessna vs. Russel—Error to Bedford—Woodward

J. A will contains the following words, "it any of my children should die before receiving their share of my estate, without leaving any issue, then said share or shares to be equally divided among the survivors;" the Executor's account was confirmed on the 5th day of Sept. 1851, the court there upon decreeing distribution according to the will, and in January 1852, before the Executor had paid over the amount, one of the heirs died without issue.—
Held that from the time of the decree, the Executor stood as her trustee, agent and attorney in respect to the fund, and his custody was her custody l on his paying over to the Executor of the de ceased heir, he could not recover in an action for money paid in mistake.

To singers and public speakers this remedy is invaluable, as by its action on the throat and lungs, when taken in small quantities, it removes al
hoarseness in a few hours, and wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the voice.
Asthma is generally much relieved, and often wholly cured by Cherry Pectoral. But there are some cases so obstinate as to yield entirely to no medicine. Cherry Pectoral will cure them, if the can be cured.

Bronchitis, or irritation of the throat and upper portion of the lungs, my be cured by taking Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. The uncomfortable oppression is soon relieved.
