

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS: JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT, JOHN C. KNOX. CANAL COMMISSIONER, THOMAS H. FORSYTH. AUDITOR GENERAL, EPHRAIM BANKS. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, J. PORTER BRAWLEY.

Trouble in the Whig-warm! By reference to another column it will be seen that Charles Bowers, Esq., of this City, has announced himself an independent candidate for County Treasurer.

Mr. Bowers has always been an active, ardent and influential Whig, one of the most so in the county, and his services for many years surely entitled him to a nomination for the office he ever sought, and for which he was so much better qualified, in every respect, than the most of his competitors.

THE GAINES CASE.—For a considerable time past, this celebrated and obstinately contested case has remained dormant, and the nature of the latest decision upon the points at issue was such as to lead most persons to believe that a termination had virtually been reached.

Mrs. Gaines is, or has lately been, in New York City, with a new and important witness, General Villami, of South America, said to be a gentleman of unblemished character, having a personal knowledge of the principal fact necessary for Mrs. Gaines to prove, which, we suppose, must mean the fact of the marriage, although this point is not stated.

DEADLY MORTALITY.—In New Orleans, on the 14th inst., the total number of deaths was 270, of which 235 were from yellow fever! This, in a population of sixty thousand, to which the city is said to be reduced from deaths and flight, is truly awful.

AWFUL FATALITY.—The New York Tribune of Tuesday last, publishes a list of TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY persons who died in that city and the adjacencies, in the six days of the week previous, from the effects of the unprecedented heat of that period.

MAILS TO THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The P. O. Department has given instructions to the Postmaster at New York to make up and send all mails for the Sandwich Islands in sealed bags, to be opened on the way, accompanying each bag by a letter bill, stating the contents, &c., and to send a duplicate of each letter bill, at the same time to the Postmaster at San Francisco.

POST OFFICE ORDER.—The Postmaster General has sent a circular to the various railroad companies carrying United States mails under charge of route agents, pointing out the necessity for their proper accommodation, and for the security of their charge; demanding, too, that they shall all strictly comply with the common clause of their specific contracts, binding them to have cars exclusively for mails.

THE CORONER'S JURY on the 17th inst., in the case relative to the terrible collision on the Providence Railroad, have rendered as part of their verdict, "That the said collision was the immediate result of the culpable carelessness, inexperience and want of judgment of FREDERICK W. POTTS."

THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER announces to its patrons that ROBERT A. PAXON, Esq., (whom of the Washington Union) has become interested in that paper, and will, in a few days, enter upon his editorial duties. Mr. P. is a polished and vigorous writer, and his accession to the editorial corps of the Enquirer will make it still more able and interesting.

THE President has appointed GEORGE SANDERSON, Esq., of Lancaster, to be the Democratic Representative to Congress from this County.

CITY AND COUNTY ITEMS.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

A SINGULAR SPECTACLE AFRICA.—On Thursday evening last, a young man named JAMES MILLER, brother, aged about 18 years, was driving a horse and cart on the Harrisburg pike near the city, he met a party consisting of William Finlock, Wilson, a black man, and William Stone and Andrew Dewart, who had been out gaming, and were returning.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

THE FULTON HALL Dramatic corps under the management of their talented and popular leader, Mr. McFARLAND, opened last evening for the Fall season of three months, to a well filled house.

Proceedings of Court.

The Court of Quarter Sessions was occupied all last week with the criminal list. The calendar for the term was unusually heavy, 165 cases having been returned for trial, in most of which true bills were found.

Com. vs. John Flanagan.—Indictment, Assault and Battery on Robert Martin. Sentenced to 3 months imprisonment, with fine and costs, and also held in $1000 to keep the peace towards all good citizens, and especially towards prosecutor.

Com. vs. John Conrad Deitcher.—Burglary. This defendant was charged with burglariously entering the house of Henry Greenwalt, in Manor township, on the night of the 6th inst., in intent to steal goods and commit a rape on daughter of prosecutor.

Com. vs. Jacob Welling.—Kidnaping. On complaint of Estlin Hawkins, colored. Prosecution not appearing, verdicts not guilty, were taken and defendants discharged.

Com. vs. Wm. Curtis (col.).—Kidnaping. Charged with being concerned with Smith. Verdict guilty. Sentence $500 fine and 6 years imprisonment.

Com. vs. Wm. Glisco (col.).—Burglary. Verdict guilty, and sentenced to 7 years at hard labor in the Lancaster Co. Prison.

Com. vs. Wm. Glisco (col.).—Keeping a Disorderly House in Columbia. Verdict guilty, 6 months imprisonment.

Com. vs. Glisco Finture (col.).—Assault and Battery on Washington Rigter, whose house he had burglariously entered, in Columbia. Verdict guilty and sentenced to one year imprisonment, to commence at the end of his seven years for burglary.

Com. vs. Wm. Johnson (col.).—Larceny, stealing a silver watch from Jacob Gable, of Marietta. Verdict guilty, and 10 months imprisonment.

Com. vs. Wm. Johnson (col.).—Assault and Battery at State Harbor. Verdict guilty. Sentence $30 fine and costs.

A number of other cases of a similar character were tried—in some of which the Defendants were found guilty, and in others not guilty, but it is unnecessary to enumerate them.

The following Sheriff's Deeds were acknowledged on Saturday.

To one Henry Keen, for a tract of land in Little Britain Twp, containing 60 acres, (more or less) with the right of a stream. Sold as the property of J. O. Challant.

To James Wilson, for a house and lot of ground in the Borough of Marietta. Sold as the estate of Jacob Kreuter.

To James Wilson, for a house and lot situated on the west side of South Street, in the City of Lancaster, adjoining property of Jacob Leiby and others. Sold as the estate of William Taylor.

To J. R. Watkins, for a house and one acre of ground, more or less, in the village of State Harbor. Sold as the estate of Amos Keating.

To J. W. Cottrell, for a two-story frame coach maker shop and piece of ground on Walnut-st, Columbia. Sold as the estate of J. O. A. Hook.

To Mary and Catharine Bauman, for a house and lot on East King-st, Lancaster. Sold as the estate of John M. and Martha Moedinger.

To Geo. Ruedell, for a lot on Front and Pine-st, Marietta. Sold as the property of Daniel Kapp.

THE MEXICAN MINISTER'S INSTRUCTIONS.—The Freeman's Journal of Saturday professes to have a knowledge of the instructions the Administration have given to Gen. Gadsden, our new Minister to Mexico.

According to this authority, the General is commissioned to ask for and insist on the grant by Mexico to the United States of a free right of way for a railroad along the 32nd parallel of latitude.

The United States in return, agree to relinquish all claim to Tehuantepec; to give Mexico a certain sum as indemnity for Indian depredations; and to share with Mexico the advantages and use of the road.

This arrangement, it is hoped, will practically annul the 11th article of the Guadalupe Hidalgo Treaty, and render the keeping up a line of military posts along the Mexican border no longer necessary.

The Washington correspondent of the Journal, in communicating this information, assumes a kind of semi-official air, and he comments as if by authority.

Our Cabinet hopes to settle the conflicting interests respecting a Northern or Southern route for the Pacific railway. The South will not find here the Northern terminus for the road that she dislikes; and on the other hand, anti-slavery feeling is so strong in the North, that the powerful enough to induce her to accept the proposal held out to her.

The fearful mortality at New Orleans has excited the sympathy of the community at large, and meetings have been held in a number of cities for the purpose of collecting aid for the unfortunate sufferers, and we are rejoiced in being able to give a gratifying statement of the amounts obtained for this object, as near as can be ascertained.

The first session will commence on the 1st of November next.

TEMPERANCE TICKET.—There is to be a Temperance County Convention held in this City, on the 2d of September, for the purpose of forming a Temperance Legislative Ticket.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Information is wanted of a German named Joseph Eugen Rauck, commonly known as Eicher Rauck, about 63 feet high, 25 years of age, slight build, complexion sallow, and supposed to be partially insane. He is known to a number of persons in Lancaster. Any person knowing his whereabouts will confer a favor by informing H. C. Locher, keeper of the Lancaster County Prison, who recently received money for him from his friends in Germany, who are anxious to provide for him.

Washington Correspondence.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER TO THE EDITOR. WASHINGTON, D. C. August 19th, 1853.

You will see, Mr. Editor, that from the late news from Europe, it is generally supposed that the war terminated on the acquisition of the Danubian Province, and that the peace is now being negotiated.

It is not the secret cause of all this croaking discoverable in his exhibition of grief and sorrow, but the fact that he is interested in such temperate hands, as now have it in charge. "If they will not kill it dead," says he, "it will not be their fault." It may be possible, for such a fatal catastrophe to follow the "intermediate" act of the State Central Committee, composed of such men as our own county committee, and the active friends of Prohibition in general, but I confess I have no fears of the kind, though "men of ideas" they may be branded by this pseudo Prohibitionist. How lamentable it is that an individual should not trust this matter to politicians generally, who are more cool and amiable men-dealers of our land, or some calm, deliberate, philosophical, un-interested, cautious, slow, sure moving friend of a Prohibitory Law, whose safe and judicious management of the traffic of rum and ardent spirits, has not been derailed or overlooked entirely the great moral worth and effectiveness of this friend to a Prohibitory Law?

It behooves this man, who is so full of good will to be well armed for this conflict, so that our neutrality shall be respected as well as enforced. The public safety is imperiled, inasmuch as the protection of the port of San Francisco, and the protection of our citizens rights are invaded by the contending parties. It is our duty as a nation, to look to the safety of the States, and the first cardinal principle to extend republicanism, and with one quarter of a century at peace with all nations, liberty will be enjoyed by all the enlightenments of the world.

In our domestic relations, I am pleased to inform you that the election in Tennessee has resulted in a handsome democratic triumph. Andrew Johnson a Governor, and a member of Congress are constitutionally elected. In North Carolina 4 democratic members are elected, beside Mr. Gingham, and he is so near being a democrat that he voted for Pierce in Kentucky, in opposition to Fremont. This is considered here a victory. In Kentucky the result is equally as cheering. Alabama, is all one result, in favor of Fremont, and the result of the election is a powerful party. Indeed, wherever we have elections have taken place, since the inauguration of President Pierce, you will find, that republicanism is triumphing in the States, and that the Union is being preserved.

The only fear we have, is that the democracy is pretty well out in twigs and herbs, and that the republicans are not strong enough to convince them of their error in such division; but it appears, they are now more embittered against each other than in former years. It is a mistake, for sensible men, to be so much stirred for, it is evident, if they do not unite their forces for the contest in this fall election, the whigs will be the victors in the Empire State. This would be a burning shame to the whigs, and a great defeat of the whigs. We shall be pleased to see things take a more favorable turn before 2d November next, so that the State may be saved to the republican party.

Col. FORNEY, Clerk of the House of Representatives, has again gone on a visit. With this visit, he has again moved to the City of New York. I know that overtures have been made to Col. Forney, to assume the editorial chair in New York City, but I also know, that he is not inclined to do so.

BEVERLY TUCKER, Esq., is at this time, busily engaged in arranging matters, so as to be ready to move to the seat of the democratic party. There can be no question, but that the paper to be conducted by Mr. T. will be a valuable auxiliary to the democratic cause. All the official papers of the country, we do not believe, for a moment, but that the "Sentinel" will be edited with as much ability as any paper in the country; for we understand, that Mr. T. has a large number of political writers of the country, who have already been engaged to assist in the new enterprise.

Nothing new in Washington. Our friends are moving on the right hand and on the left, devoting all their energies to the advancement of the public good; so much neglected and delayed in the last four years. I hear that a Mr. Stevens and a Mr. Oldfield, two whig clerks, have been promoted, and also that a Whig Meeting, was held in New York, and that a Whig office in the Treasury. This is certainly a magnanimous administration, for their partiality to whig office holders and whig applicants, I am no opponent, but I am a friend of the whigs. I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

Yours, WYOMING.

WE do not intend to embark in the Temperance controversy; but having given place last week to some strictures on one of the lecturers of Mr. VAN WAGEN, it is nothing but fair that the other side should be heard in reply. Here, we presume, the discussion will cease.

LANCASTER, August 18, 1853.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

Washington Correspondence.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER TO THE EDITOR. WASHINGTON, D. C. August 19th, 1853.

You will see, Mr. Editor, that from the late news from Europe, it is generally supposed that the war terminated on the acquisition of the Danubian Province, and that the peace is now being negotiated.

It is not the secret cause of all this croaking discoverable in his exhibition of grief and sorrow, but the fact that he is interested in such temperate hands, as now have it in charge. "If they will not kill it dead," says he, "it will not be their fault." It may be possible, for such a fatal catastrophe to follow the "intermediate" act of the State Central Committee, composed of such men as our own county committee, and the active friends of Prohibition in general, but I confess I have no fears of the kind, though "men of ideas" they may be branded by this pseudo Prohibitionist. How lamentable it is that an individual should not trust this matter to politicians generally, who are more cool and amiable men-dealers of our land, or some calm, deliberate, philosophical, un-interested, cautious, slow, sure moving friend of a Prohibitory Law, whose safe and judicious management of the traffic of rum and ardent spirits, has not been derailed or overlooked entirely the great moral worth and effectiveness of this friend to a Prohibitory Law?

It behooves this man, who is so full of good will to be well armed for this conflict, so that our neutrality shall be respected as well as enforced. The public safety is imperiled, inasmuch as the protection of the port of San Francisco, and the protection of our citizens rights are invaded by the contending parties. It is our duty as a nation, to look to the safety of the States, and the first cardinal principle to extend republicanism, and with one quarter of a century at peace with all nations, liberty will be enjoyed by all the enlightenments of the world.

In our domestic relations, I am pleased to inform you that the election in Tennessee has resulted in a handsome democratic triumph. Andrew Johnson a Governor, and a member of Congress are constitutionally elected. In North Carolina 4 democratic members are elected, beside Mr. Gingham, and he is so near being a democrat that he voted for Pierce in Kentucky, in opposition to Fremont. This is considered here a victory. In Kentucky the result is equally as cheering. Alabama, is all one result, in favor of Fremont, and the result of the election is a powerful party. Indeed, wherever we have elections have taken place, since the inauguration of President Pierce, you will find, that republicanism is triumphing in the States, and that the Union is being preserved.

The only fear we have, is that the democracy is pretty well out in twigs and herbs, and that the republicans are not strong enough to convince them of their error in such division; but it appears, they are now more embittered against each other than in former years. It is a mistake, for sensible men, to be so much stirred for, it is evident, if they do not unite their forces for the contest in this fall election, the whigs will be the victors in the Empire State. This would be a burning shame to the whigs, and a great defeat of the whigs. We shall be pleased to see things take a more favorable turn before 2d November next, so that the State may be saved to the republican party.

Col. FORNEY, Clerk of the House of Representatives, has again gone on a visit. With this visit, he has again moved to the City of New York. I know that overtures have been made to Col. Forney, to assume the editorial chair in New York City, but I also know, that he is not inclined to do so.

BEVERLY TUCKER, Esq., is at this time, busily engaged in arranging matters, so as to be ready to move to the seat of the democratic party. There can be no question, but that the paper to be conducted by Mr. T. will be a valuable auxiliary to the democratic cause. All the official papers of the country, we do not believe, for a moment, but that the "Sentinel" will be edited with as much ability as any paper in the country; for we understand, that Mr. T. has a large number of political writers of the country, who have already been engaged to assist in the new enterprise.

Nothing new in Washington. Our friends are moving on the right hand and on the left, devoting all their energies to the advancement of the public good; so much neglected and delayed in the last four years. I hear that a Mr. Stevens and a Mr. Oldfield, two whig clerks, have been promoted, and also that a Whig Meeting, was held in New York, and that a Whig office in the Treasury. This is certainly a magnanimous administration, for their partiality to whig office holders and whig applicants, I am no opponent, but I am a friend of the whigs. I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.

Yours, WYOMING.

WE do not intend to embark in the Temperance controversy; but having given place last week to some strictures on one of the lecturers of Mr. VAN WAGEN, it is nothing but fair that the other side should be heard in reply. Here, we presume, the discussion will cease.

LANCASTER, August 18, 1853.

MR. EDITOR.—This letter of 'A Church Member' in the Intelligencer of Monday last, merits both correction and rebuke. I composed one of the hundreds of church members, who made a large portion of Mr. Van Wagen's audience, and I am proud to see the members of each of the last two Sabbaths; and, therefore, feel myself implicated in the grave charge of Sabbath profanation, so ostentatiously set forth in the lecture. In the presence of Mr. Van Wagen and his associates, I should prefer to promote and appoint my friends rather than select my political opponents for public favor. I am not quite equal to the Secretary, that was willing to be the second time.