CHOLERA.—During the past week there has been considerable excitement in this community caused by the death of Mr. Geo. Dively, of Ayr township, and his father, Mr. Jacob Dively, of Friends Cove, Bedford County, of that maligunt disease, the cholera! The yonng man died on Monday morning last and was buried on Tuesday. His father and mother, on hearing of his sickness, hastened to his bedside, and the old gentleman took sick on Tuesday morning about 6 o'clock, and at 2 P. M. was a corpse.

Mr. Dively, the younger, during last wesk went to Chambersburg, to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. John Stech, who it is said died with the cholera. and on hisway home was attacked with the same disease. In the short space of three weeks, the mother, Mrs. Stech, her son, Mr. John Stech, son-in-law, Mr. Geo. Dively, and his venerable father, have all gone to that "bourne from whence no traveller e'er returns." Deeply do the people of this community sympathise with the afflicted.

Dr. Duffield had a slight attack of this awful disease on Tuesday last, but at present is much better.

We would advise the people to keep cool and not to become excited. Fear will only add to the horrors of the disease. We hope its ravages are all recorded.—Fulton Democrat.

ARREST OF COL. COLLIER.—On Tuesday last, Jabez W. Fitch, United States Marshal for the District of Ohio, arrested Col. James Collier, of Steubenville, Ohio, late collector at San Francisco, on the indictment forwarded from California. The indictment charges Col. Collier with having deposited $300,000 of public money with Wells & Co., bankers, contrary to law. The counsel for the Colonel sued out a writ of habeas corpus, before Judge Jewett, but the hearing was deferred until the 27th of September next. Col. Collier gave $5,000 bail for his appearance at that time.—The act of Judge Jewett, of a State Court, granting the writ of habeas corpus, thus taking Col. Collier out of the custody of the United States, and discharging him on a bail of $5,000, to appear before him more than a month hence, is commented upon in some of the papers in severe terms.—It is said to be a thing unknown before in the United States.

NEW ORLEANS, August 26.

THE PESTILENCE SUBSIDING.—The long expected period, when a diminution in the number of cases of yellow fever, and a decrease in the mortality by which our population has been decimated, seems to have at length arrived, and the decline has been so rapid as to excite hopes where all before was blank despair.

On Thursday morning, the whole number of deaths reported were 219, including 200 from the fever.

The report of this morning is still more favorable, the total mortality being 183, while the fever deaths were 154.

☞By the burning of the Virginia Woollen Mills at Richmond, on Thursday, nearly 300 operatives are thrown out of work. Loss $200,000; insured $70,000.

THE SHOE BUSINESS IN LYNN.—The town of Lynn, (Mass.) contains one hundred and fifty-five shoe factories, which give employment toten thousand and eighty-six persons of both sexes in the manufacture of shoes.

THE MARKETS.

Flour and Meal.—The foreign news has operated unfavorably on the market for Flour, and there has been very little doing in the way of sales.—Prices unsettled and lower—generally running in favor of the buyer. The week's sales reached 7000 a 8000 lbs, in lots, within the range of $5,31½a 5,37½ for fresh ground, 5,12½ for re-inspected old stock, $4,70a4,75, for our superfine, and $4 for extra, for home use, within the range of $6,25a 5 per bbl, according to brand and freshness. Rye Flour and Corn Meal remain inactive. Some 200 to 300 bbls. of the former sold at $3,68½, and 1000 bbls. of the latter at $3 for Penna. Meal.

Grain.—Wheat is rather lower this week. Sales of 24 or 25,000 bushels at 113ca115 for new Southern and Penna. red, and 118ca125c for white as to quality, including some fair old red at 114c, and prime Penna. white at 127ca130. Rye—Sales of Southern at 74c, and Penna. at Jersey at 75c. Corn —11a12,000 bushels only found buyers at 70a71c for Penna. and Delaware yellow, and 66 for white. Oats—Sales have ranged at 37a41c for new Southern in quality, and 42a45 for old Penna.

Cattle Market, August 27.—The offerings of Beef Cattle for the week were about 1500 head; Beeves are selling from $8 to 9½ per 100 lbs; Hogs are selling at prices ranging from $6¾ to 7¼, superior at 8; Cows are selling at $8 to 15 for dry, and from $16 to 45 for fresh; Sheep bring from $2,50 to 5; Lambs from $1 50 to 3 according to quality.

New York Cattle Market—August 27, 1853.—Beeves are selling from 7½ to 9½c per lb, according to quality. Sheep and Lambs—$2 25 to 5 50 to 7 for Sheep, and $1½ to 3½ to 5½ for Lambs. Cows and Calves are selling from $22 a 35 to 48.

To the Voters of Lancaster County.—Fellow Citizens: I offer myself to your consideration as an independent candidate for a seat in the State Legislature, and respectfully solicit your suffrages for the office. Should I be elected, I shall endeavor to discharge the duties of a Representative conscientiously, to the best of my abilities, and in such a way as my constituents may approve. JACOB L. GROSS.

Ephrata, aug 30 tf-32

To the Independent Voters of the City and County of Lancaster.—Fellow Citizens: I submitted my name to you as a candidate for County Treasurer. I have satisfactory evidence that a majority of the Delegates then chosen preferred me either as their first or second choice.—But I discovered on their assembling here, on Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning, that a conspiracy had been formed to combine all the other candidates against me. Their delegates, with difficulty, were induced to follow their direction. Seeing the will of their constituents about to be disregarded, I determined to withdraw from their decision, and appeal to the people themselves, in whom I have confidence; and now I announce myself as a candidate for your suffrages, and shall remain so until you have recorded your judgment on the 2d Tuesday of October next.

Hayes' Patent Tabular oven hot Air Range, patented June 27, 1852.—Various sizes, to suit families, boarding houses and hotels.

Those in want of a superior cooking aparatus are invited to call at our Warehouse and examine this Range. For durability, economy and simplicity in operation it stands unrivaled. It has a perfect hot air ventilated oven—and meats baked in this oven will retain their juice and flavor equal to that roasted before an open fire. Meats and pastry cooked at the same time without one affecting the other.—It will supply sufficient heated air to heat additional rooms for the coldest weather. It has no descending or return flues, and is equally well adapted to burning the bituminous, or common hard coal. The steam valve over the boiling part of the range carries off the steam and scent of cooking, as well as heat in summer.

Every Range sold warranted to give perfect satisfaction, or no expense to the purchaser.

Hayes' Ventilator patented October, 1848. For public halls, school houses, factories, railroads, cars chimnies, flues, ships, steamers, &c.

Pure air is a subject claiming the attention of every individual, and all buildings should be provided with the proper means of ventilation. Also, a powerful Warming and Ventilating Furnace, for dwellings, school houses, stores, churches, halls, factories, &c.

It is chiefly devoted to the advancement of the interests of Mechanics, Inventors, Manufacturers, and Farmers, by the diffusion of useful knowledge upon those important branches. It is edited by men practically skilled in the arts and sciences, and is widely regarded as a sound and able journal. Nearly all the Valuable Patents which issue weekly from the Patent Office are Illustrated with Engravings, and the Claims of all the Patents are published in its columns; thus making the paper a perfect Scientific and Mechanical, Encyclopedia for future as well as present reference. The Scientific American is very extensively circulated—its circulation in the last Volume exceeding 18,000 copies per week. It is in form for binding; each volumes contains Several Hundred Engravings and over Four Hundred Pages of reading matter, with an index. The practical receipts alone are worth to any family much more than the subscription price.

The publishers offer the following valuable prizes for the largest list of subscribers sent in by the 1st of January next:—$100 will be given for the largest list; $75 for the second; $50 for the third; $45 for the fourth; $40 for the 5th; $35 for the 6th; $30 for the 7th; $25 for the 8th; $20 for the 9th; $15 for the 10th; $10 for the 11th; and $5 for the 12th. The cash will be paid to the order of the successful competitor, immediately after January 1st, 1854.

TERMS:—One copy one year, $2; one copy six months, $1; five copies six months, $4; ten copies six months, $8; ten copies 12 months, $15; fifteen copies twelve months, $22; twenty copies twelve months, $28 in advance.
