The Temperance Resolutions.

After the nominations were made by the Temerance Convention, on Friday week, a lengthy Address was read by James Black, Esq., of this City' when Mr. Wickersham, of Marietta, reported the following Preamble and Resolutions, which were adopted as the platform of the Temperance men of this County:

WHEREAS: We are anxious by all proper means in our power to hasten the passage of a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors as a bevrage, and therefore cannot vote for those who are opposed to such prohibition; and, whereas, notwithstanding all remonstrances to the contrary, the ruling political party of this county still adheres to its policy of nominating men for the Legislature bitter-ly hostile to this measure; therefore,

Resolved, That, compelled by the necessity of voting for men opposed to Prohibition, or selecting candidates of our own, this Convention chooses the latter alternative, and presents to the voters of the county, a ticket composed of men, capable, honest, upright, and temperate, lavorable to low taxes and protection from the evils of the liquor traffic, and earnestly solicits their support.

Resolved, That now, as at the time of the formation of the Prohibition ticket last year, we have no design of creating a separate political party, and have no wish to continue as such longer than is essential to the accomplishment of the special purpose that has made our organization necessary. esolved, That all attempts to regulate the sale of liquor by the enactment of license laws, or to restrict it by the payment of license, are as false in principle as would be similar laws licensing robbery and counterfeiting; and therefore total prohiis the only remedy for the evil, true in theo ry and effective in practice.

Resolved, That since it is the duty of a legitimately constituted government to protect its citizens in their rights—to secure, in the language of our State Constitution, their peace, salety, and hap-piness—we hold that a traffic which fills our jails with criminals, our poor houses with paupers, and creates untold vice, wretchedness and poverty in every community, is subversive of these ends, strictunconstitutional, and should be abolished.

Resolved, That as the harmony and well being of Society can only be preserved when each of its members is content to pursue such a business as will injure that of no other member; or, as the truth of the sentiment expressed by Blackstone is unquestionable, that 'Natural law requires that we live honestly, hurt nobody, and render to every on his due," is is no improper exercise of the functions of government to sacrifice, to the public good, property accumulated in violation of the rights of So ciety and of natural law; and the consistent appli equal force, that the business of rum selling be out-lawed, and the liquor destroyed, that it does the de-struction of the tools of the counterleiter or the breaking up of the den of the gambler.

Resolved, That in addition to the obvious truth, that while the number of distilleries has greatly diminished, the price of grain has risen, the published declaration of Mr. C. S. HALDEMAN, a distinguished distiller of this county, "the whiskey manufactured in Pennsylvania is sold almost totally to alcoholic distillers; that Alcohol is never drank, and therefore a mere mite of the spirits made is ever used as a beverage," coupled with the fact that no advocate of Prohibition has any desire to interfere with such nanutacture, should convince our farmers that the have nothing to tear from the passage of a prohibi

Resolved, That the shameful fact that there are at this time at least 1500 habitual drunkards in Lancaster co.: that 1000 families are living in state of poverty and wretchedness in consequence of liquor; that 352 of the 440 paupers in the poor house, came there through intemperance; that two-thirds of the criminal business of the county results from this cause, that nearly all the vagrants and disorderly persons taken up by the city or borough police are in a state of intoxication; that most of the bodies upon whom coroner's inquests are held are those of drunkards; that the enormous amount of $40,000 is paid annually out of the county treasfor the support of Rum; should arouse the pec ple to some sense of the magnitude of the evils of the liquor traffic, and induce corresponding efforts

Resolved, That while we hold it to be the duty of our Legislature to pass a prohibitory law and grant us the protection which such a law would furnish, we will be satisfied if the democratic principle adopted, giving us the opportunity of Rum or no Rum at a special election, as we are satisfied that, like Vermont, Rhode Island, and Michigan with her 20,000 majority, the good old Key stone will cast off the shackles of the liquor traffic and assume her proper place among her sister States.

Resolved, That while as citizens of a Republic we will pay all due respect to the Constitution of the State and the Nation, and the laws enacted by our rulers, we can never torget that, high above all Constitutions and enactments of men are the eteredge of higher authority; and in accordance with the injunction, "to obey God rather than mend' we will ever strive in a moral and constitutional way to have such laws as the one licensing the sale of

Resolved. That with the Maine Law. Low Taxes. and Protection from Rum, inscribed upon our banners, and engraven on our hearts, we will go into the contest-enlisted for the war-satisfied of the eternal verity (thaugh its realization be distant,) of the God-inspired sentiment that "truth must triumph," and with that triumph Alcoholic Drinks and their concomitant evils be banished from the country, and PEACE, PLENTY and HAPPINESS universally prevail throughout its broad borders.

AN INCIDENT OF THE EPIDEMIC AT NEW-OR-LEANS .- The N. O. Delta, of the 14th inst., records the following sorrowful incident

"We greeted an old acquaintance vesterday, on Nayades street, whom we had not seen for a fort-night before. He had a care-worn and troubled countenance. His eyes were sunken and his cheeks brow; he looked at least ten years older than when last we saw him. We asked if he had been sick and, if not, to explain the cause of his great change! 'Alas!' he replied, a lew days ago, and I was happy in the possessian of a father, a mother, and three loved sisters; but I am alone now—I buried the last one yesterday.' We were answered; it was indeed enough to turn the darkest hairs to snowy white And yet it is but one instance out of many which daily occur in ou reity."

The ceremony took place upon the Isle of Wight, where the Quee was temporarily sojourning.

this paper was advertised to be sold by the Sheriff of Bucks county, on Wednesday last at 1 o'clock.— The editor and proprietor was obliged to make an assignment by the delinquency of many of his sub-scribers, who, had they discharged their obligations to him like respectable, fair-dealing men, would not only have saved his business from destruction, but prospects of the young editor and printer from the blighting influences of such an event. It is a sad commentary upon the negligence of subscribers to "pay the printer."

New Obleans, Sep. 8.—The terrible epidemic which has swept offeight or nine thousand inhabitants of this city, is at length decidedly abating, and it shoped that it will disappear before a great while while.

The interments reported by the Board of Health for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 o'clock this morning, were one hundred and thirty-seven, of which nigety five were of yellow fever, and fifteen described as "unknown." This is lower than any day since the first of August.

The story of the New York Tribune, in reference to the shipment of the clothes of yellow fever victims to New York, as old rags, originated in the old privilege of the Sisters of Charity, at the Hospital, of selling the clothes of the dead. But they are all washed and purified before they are

We learn from Mobile that the fever is on the increase there, but the cases are of a mild type.

NIAGARA.—Another large piece of Table Rock, at the Falls, became detached on Friday last, and and fell with a tremendous crash just over the path which leads under the sheet of water of the Horse Shoe Fall.

REVOLUTIONARY WINOWS .- Twenty-four hun dred claims have been made upon the Department for pensions under the act February 3, 1853, grant ing pensions to the widows of officers and soldier of the Revolution who were married subsequent to the year 1800. When the law was enacted it was generally supposed that there would not be more than three hundred claims in all. The Democratic Senatorial Conference Clarion, Indiana and Armstrong counties, balloted 105 times before effecting a nomination. Finally PETER CLOVER, Esq., was the successful candidate It took 372 ballots to nominate a Judge in the sam district. They must be a crooked set of disciples

ACKNOWLEDGING THE CORN.—The continual exposues, which are being made at Washington in relerence to the financial peculation and mismanage ment of the late FILLMORE Administration, is indu ing some of the Whig press even to admit the fac who have heretofore strengously contended that the charges of the Democratic press were gross calum nies, and that the late Whiedynastywas most shame fully belied in that particular. The Buffalo Express, an able and respectable Whig paper, printed at the residence of Mr. Fillmonk, being taunted by the Rochester American, which sympathizes with a different wing of the Whig party in New York from the Express, with the corruption and profligacy of the leading men of its branch of the party, thus retorts upon the FILLMORE organ, and all must admit its force and effect

"The shameful peculation, plunder and corrupt ion exibited in 1851," we would remind the Ame ican, were not altogether confined to the canal lettings of this State, but extended over a much wide sphere. The American, perhaps, has not yet heard
