The letters further state that the American named McGee, who was arrested and imprisoned, by the Mexicans on a charge of stealing cattle near El Paso, was still in confinement at Chihuahua. The American consul had stated that the authorities had sent to El Paso for tull and accurate information concerning the affair, when a decision in the case vould probably be rendered.

In the attack upon the juil to rescue M'Gee there were 48 Americans, the Mexicans numbering only eight, yet they succeeded in routing the Americans, with a loss of two killed. The names of the latter were Hamick and Hendree, besides these, there were six or eight wounded. The conflict lasted fif-

To cure a cold, with Headache and soreness of the body, take the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, and wrap up warm, to sweat during the night.

For a cold and cough, take it morning, noon, and evening, according to directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will soon be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble when they, find it can be so readily cured. Persons afflicted with a seated cough, which breaks them of their rest at night, will find, by taking the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of sound, anbroken sleep, and consequently refreshing rest. Great relief from suffering, and an ultimate cure, is afforded to thousands who are thus afflicted, by this invaluable remedy.
