pect than ever. The money market was depressed by the conflicting rumors.

The cholera was decreasing in the Baltic ports.

Breadstuffs were firmer. Corn was scarce, and advanced 2s to 3s. Sound yellow was quoted at 38s to 39s; white 40s to 42s. Flour had advanced 6d to 1s: wheat 3d. The Eastern question was still unsettled.

ENGLAND. There is nothing of interest from England in th way of general news.

The cholera seems to be abating. At Newcastle, since it broke out, the total number of deaths has been about 1000. In other places the returns report from one to two cases daily.

A public meeting has been held in Sheffield fo the purpose of considering the present unsatisfactory state of the Eastern question, and memorial izing the British government, urging it "to take prompt measures to cause the immediate evacua-tion by Russia of the Danubian Principalities, and to prevent Russia from again outraging justice and international law by the forcible warlike occupation of the Turkish territory." The memorial was adonted unanimously.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY.

A telegraphic dispatch from Vienna, received a Paris on Thursday evening, announces that upo the demand of Lord Stratford de Redcliffe a nev conference had taken place, at which it was decided that the representatives of the four powers at Constantinople shall declare that the Vienna note does not contain the dangers which the Porte see in it. No other collective step will be taken.

The Lithographic News sheet of Berlin states, up der date of the 17th, that the Prussian governmen sent to M. de Wildenbruch, its ambassador at Con stantinople, despatches enjoining him to induce the Ottoman Porte to accept, without modification, the note of Vienna. It adds that the Principal Consul General in the Danubian Principalities, M. deMer ebach, has received a decoration from the Czar.

Letters from Constantinople of the 8th ult, say that, independently of the placards which continued to be posted up every night on the walls of the principal mosques, the inhabitants of Constantinopublicly signed addresses to the Sulta ind his ministers, entreating them to march agains the enemy without waiting any longer for the support of France and England. These addresses and placards produce great sensation among the people M. Kossuth has caused the feelings of the Porte to be sounded as to his wish to return to Constantinople, but it had not shown the slightest eager ness to encourage his wishes.

The general feeling prevailed at Constantinople that the Sultan would make no further concessions either to Russia or to the Four Powers. Thera was also a rumor that the dispute between the French and English Ministers at Constantino-ple had been revived, the French Minister insisting that the fleets should come up to Constantinople, while Lord Stratford de Redeliffe stoutly objected to any movement at present. Besides all this, a new and important feature though not unforeseen, has risen in the question .-Austria begins, more pointedly than before, to show symptoms of her Russian leaning. A despatch from a, dated Sept. 20th, received at Paris, states that Austria does not altogether adhere to the position of the two Western Powers respecting the collective note to be given to the Porte, containing a guarantee against any future interference on the part of Russia between the Porte and its subjects.

BALTIMORE, Oct., 6. The New Orleans papers of the 30th ult., were received here to-night. The ravages of the yellow fever in the interior of Lousiana are represented as awful. At Luke Providence, out of 90 inhabitants 60 of the number had died!

Departed this life on the 28th ult. of Hemorage of the Lungs, after a lingering illness, William Bitzer, son of Isaac and Joanna Bitzer, aged 31 years

The subject of this notice, cut off in the morning of life whilst surrounded by many kind friends, and acquaintances, and all that could render life desirable, resigned his spirit to his God, and his morthly bed was considered to the could be a considered to the tal body was consigned to the cold and silent grave Truly "in the midst of life we are in death." The aid and attention of his friends, and acquaintances were of no avail, and medical skill could not save him, for "death had marked him for ais own." Mild, benevolent, kind and gentle in his demeanour, a dutiful son, sincere in his friendship, and an ardent Christian, he was loved and este who knew him, of him may be said in the beautiful language of the poet, None knew him but to love him:

None knew him but to rove nim:

None named him but to praise.

At his own request, he received the holy communion of the blood and body of Christ, a few days previous to his departure, and, we trust, now sleeps in the bosom of Jesus, leaving to his surviving friends the example of a life usefully spent.

'Tis finished, the conflict is past,

The Heaven horne spirit is fled:

The Heaven bornp spirit is fled; His wish is accemplis And now he's entombed with the dead.

Then let us forbear to complain, That he's now gone from our sight; We soon shall meet him again, With new and redoubled delight.

To the Independent Voters of the City and County of Lancaster, Fellow Citi-To the independent veters of the Lity and County of Lancaster.—Fellow Citizens; I submitted my name to you as a candidate for County Treasurer. I have satisfactory evidence that a majority of the Delegates then chosen preferred me either as their first or second choice.—But I discovered on their assembling here, on Tuesday evening and Wednesdaymorning, that a conspiracy had, been formed to combine all the their candidates against me. Their delegates, with difficulty, were indused to follow their direction. Seeing the will of their constituents about to be disregarded, I determined to withdraw from their decisions, and appeal to the people themselves, in whom I have confidence; and I now announce myself as a candidate for your suffrages, and shall remain so until you have recorded your judgment on the 2d Tuesday of October next.

CONSUMPTION

To cure a cold, with Headache and soreness of the body, take the Icherry Pectoral on going to bed, and wrapiup warm, to sweat during the night.

For a cold and cough, take it morning, noon, and evening, according to directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will soon be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble when theyfind it can be so readily cured. Persons afflicted with a seated cough, which breaks them of their rest at night, will find, by taking the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of sound, unbroken sleep, and consequently refreshing rest. Great relief from suffering, and an ultimate cure, is afforded to thousands who are thus afflicted, by this invaluable remedy.

edy. From its agreeable effect in these cases, many find

FAYETTEVILLE, TERN., April 16th, 1851.

Sir:—We have given your Cherry Pectoral an extensive trial in our practice, and find it to surpass every other remedy we have for curing affections of the respiratory organs:

DRS. DIEMER & HAMPTON.

Asthma is generally much relieved, and often wholly cured by Cherry Pectoral. But there are some cases so obstinate as to yield entirely to no medicine. Cherry Pectoral will cure them, if they can be cured.

Bronchitis, or irritation of the throat and upper to believed it can rarely fail to cure those diseases."

For Croup. Give an emetic of antimony, to be followed by large and frequent doses of the Cherry Pectoral, until it subdues the disease. If taken in eason, it will not fail to cure.

edy. Numerous instances have been noticed where whole families were protected from any serious consequences, while their neighbors, without the Cherry Pectoral, were suffering from the disease.

Salem, Ohio, June 11th, 1851.

Dr. J. C. Ayer:—I write to inform you of the truly remarkable effects of your Cherry Pectoral in this place, and in my own family. One of my daughters was completely cured in three days of a dreadful Whooping Cough, by taking it. Dr. Means, one of our very best physicians freely states that he considers it the best remedy we have for pulmonary diseases, and that he has cured more has seen cures from your medicine he could scarcely have believed without seeing.

Yours respectfully, J. D. SINCLAIR,

Dr. VALERTINE MOTT, the widely celebrated Professor of Surgery in the Medical College, New York City, says:—"It gives me pleasure to certify the value and efficacy of 'Ayre's Cherry Pecble of containing 75 horses. There is a seguine never-failing well of water with a pump therein at the door and an Orchard near the house. The farm is very productive, laid off in convenient fields, and well set with grass. There are near the barn several pens erected for the purpose of feeding or assorting droves of cattle, sheep, $c$. This is decidedly one of the best Tavern Stands in Lancaster county, being on the great theroughlare from Pittsburg to Philadelphia. Most of the droves coming from the West pass by it as well as a great portion of the travelling public. It is in a pleasant neighborhood, convenient to churches, schools, stores, milis, &c., $c., and by a slight expense a money paid into court for distribution, arising from the sale of defendants real estate, are requested to take notice that the same will be distributed by said court on the 24th day of September next, at
