Erdman, of this city. After living with Mr. Erdman some four years, and having two children by him, she left him, and went to board somewhere in the neighborhood of Cherry and Tenth streets.

There, a Mr. Joseph G. Bowman saw her, and, after a brief courtship, made an offer of his hand and fortune, which were accepted. This marriage took place before Alderman Hibbard, on the 20th of last August. The parties lived happily together for some weeks, Mr. Bowman being much attached to his new wife, and indulging her in every whim and caprice. Finally he left the city, to pay a brief visit to some friends in the country, and, while ab-sent, his wife packed up a portion of his personal effects, and left without any intimation as to where or why she was going. Mr. Bowman heard noth-ing of her, and saw nothing, until last night, when chance and the Bleak House took him to the Arch Street Theatre. Judge of his surprise, on entering the boxes, to find his runaway wife seated by the side of a strange man.

'He proceeded to the individual, and naturally asked him what he was doing with his wife? 'She is my wife,' replied the other, 'and I'd like to know is my wife,' replied the other, 'and I'd like to know how you claim her as you wife.' An altercation ensued, the officers of the house was summoned, and Mr. and Mrs. Erdman (the man with her being her first husband) were treated to a realization of Bleak House, in Cherry street, above Fourth, known as 'the City Police Station. She denied all knowledge of Bown, said that she had never seen him before, and probably would have induced this belief in many, if her previous history was not fully known. A partial hearing of the was not fully known. A partial hearing of the case was hed before the Mayor, this morning, and Mrs. Rebecca Erdman was held in $500 to await a further investigation.'

THE INDIANS IN MEXICO.—The late advices state that the ravages of the Indians in the frontier States of Mexico are more horrible than ever. In States of Mexico are more norrible toal ever. In Zacatecas and Dutango, these wretches torture their victims with an infernal ingenuity of malice. On one occasion, they scalped a female, sixty years old, and then abandoned her, leaving her to perish by protracted agonies. The incursions and cruelties of the Indians are committed with impunity. Now and then a few men at course and assets head to and then a few men of courage and energy band to-gether, pursue the barbarians, and recover their stoperty or take a bloody revenge; but, for the most part, the wretched inhabitants are panic stricken at the mere sight of an Indian, and never dream of any other resource than immediate flight. Our files teem with details of Indian atrocities, but they are only a repetition of horrible narratives such a have been already published.

The immense success of this Magazine in 1853, assures for it, at the same rate of increase, a monthly circulation of 100,000 in 1854, especially with the improvements the proprietor intends making in white paper, new type, more reading matter, greater beauty of embellishments, &c., &c. Its Literary character unrivaled.

No other periodical publishes such thrilling tales or such capital stories of real life, the most eminent American writers in this department being engaged to contribute to its pages. At their head is Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, the editor, whose Romances are unequalled in power and beauty. Morality and virtue are always inculcated. The Newspaper press and the Ladies unite to promote this, the most readable of the Magazines. It is also the only original one of its class—the only one thoroughly American.

The "Gossip about the Fashions," published in each number, is fuller, better and later than can be had elsewhere at any price. In the Eastern cities this work is universally held to be the textbook of fashion. In addition, the departments for new receipts, Crochet work, Embroidery, Netting, Horticulture and female Equestrianism, are always well filled, profusely illustrated, and rich with the latest novelties. The publisher offers it to the sex as the best Ladies Magazine in the world.

The Globe.—The official paper of Congress, and newspaper for the people.—It will be seen by the annexed extract from a letter of General Washington to David Stewart, dated at New York-Washington to David Stewart, dated at New York17th March, 1790, that the idea of such a paper as I propose to make the Globe, originated in the mind of the father of his country. He said:
"It is to be lamented that the editors of the different Gazettes in the Union do not more generally and more correctly (instead of stuffing their papers with scurrility and nonsensical declamation which few would read if they were apprised of their contents) publish the debates in Congress on all great national questions. The principles upon which the difference of opinion arises, as well as the decisions, would then come fully before the public, national questions. The principles upon which the difference of opinion arises, as well as the decisions, would then come fully before the public, and afford the best data for its judgment." Sparks' Writings of Washington, vol. 10, p. 84.

In surrendering my interest in the organ of a great political party, I cherished the purpose of continuing the Congressional Globe, and, if possible in time, to derfect it into a full history of the action of Congress, giving the debates accurately and fully with the proceedings—all stamped with the variety of an official record. From the passage of the letter of General Washington, which I have quoted, it will be perceived that he thought his effice might be combined with that of a regular newspaper; and it is certain that the avidity of the public for news of the less important kind greatly contributes to give wings to the weightier matter which may be called Congressional news.

Having succeeded in my purpose of perfecting-the reports of the debates in Congress and giving them abroad, in connection with the news of the day, in such haste as shall outstrip full and accu-

It will even anticipate the scraps of new forwarded to cities within two hundred and fitty miles of Washington by teltwo hundred and hity miles of washington by teregraph. Before the events thus transmitted are published in the morning papers, (for instance, of the city of New York,) the Globe containing them will have reached the post office of that city by the Express Mail of the previous light. The process by which this will effected I now lay before the public.

I will have a corps of sixteen Reporters in Congress; each in succession will take notes during five minutes, and then retire, prepare them for the nve minutes, and then retire, prepare them for the Press, put them slip by slip in the hands of compositors, and thus while a debate is going on in Congress, it will be put in type, and in a few.minutes after it is ended it will be in print. I shall by this means be enabled to send by the Express mail of 5 o'clock p. m. for the East, West and North and by that of 9 o'clock p. m. for the South; all the proceedings of Congress up to the ordinary hour of proceedings of Congress up to the ordinary hour of adjournment. Thus the accurate debates of Con-gress will reach the city, two hundred and fifty miles from the capital, before their duly morning papers are in circulation.

The miscellaneos news I shall be careful to The miscellaneos news I shall be careful to gather from remote sections of the country by telegraph. I will obtain from the Executive Departments, through official sources; the matters of moment transacted in them, and, through agents employed for that purpose, all the city news of consequence in sufficient time to be put into the Globe and mailed in the express mail trains. In this way I hope to create a new era in the dissemination of news from Washington before the public mind at a distance had received its first impressions from irresponsible telegraphic despatches; or by letter writersons in the contract of th distance had received its first impressions from irresponsible telegraphic despatches; or by letter writers biased by peculir views.

Washington has now become so great a centre of political interest during all the year—the proceedings of the Executive Departments, and the information collected by them, even during the recess of Congress, is of so much importance to the interest of every section of the country—that I shall continue the publication of the daily paper permanently, with a view to become the vehicle of the earliest and most correct intelligence.

It is part of my plan to reduce the price of the earliest and most correct intelligence.

It is part of my plan to reduce the price of the daily paper to half that of similar daily papers; and thus I hope to extend its circulation so as to invite advertisements. I will publish advertisements of the government. To subscribers in the cities I hope to submit such terms as will induce them to advertise their husiness in avery village throughhope to submit such terms as will induce them to advertise their business in every village throughout the Union, where the Globe is sent daily under the franks of members of Congress, all of whom take it and some of them a large number of copiez. The installation of a new administration and a new Congress portends much change in the course of public affairs as the result of the next session.—Many vary interest which were brought up in the new Congress portends much change in the course of public affairs as the result of the next session.— Many vast interests which were brought up in the last Congress were laid over by the democratic majority to await the action of a democratic executive. The new modelling of the tariff; the new land system; the question of giving homesteads, and making every man a fresholder who may shoose to become one; the approximation of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans by a national railroad across the territory of the Union; reform in the Army, Navy, and civil offices—all these, great questions, with a thousand minor ones, deeply affecting multitudes of men and every State in the Union, will, now being matured by public opinion come up for the government's decision. These new issues, co-operating with old ones, coming up to be disposed of by new actors on the scenes at Washington, will be apt to modify greatly if not alter essentially, the party organizations of the country.

To these elements of interest another is likely to be introduced by the interposition of the agitations of Europe. After nearly forty years of peace in Europe, there is an evident restlessness that now seems franght with tendencies threatening war; and if war comes, in all !!keWhood there will follow such universal change that the United States can scarcely hope to escape the united states can scarcely hope to escape its vortex. Indeed, from late events it is apparent that our Government is already drawn into European difficulties. These circumstances are calculated to draw the public mind towards the next Congress with much expectation.

expectation.

The Daily Globe will be printed on fine paper, double royal size, with small type, (brevier and nonpareil,) at five dollars a year.

The Congressional Globe will also be printed on a double sheet, in book form, royal quarto size, each number containing sixteen pages. The Congressional Globe paper will be made up of the property of Congress and the running debates.

gressional Globe paper will be made up of the proceedings of Congress and the running debates as given by the reporters. The speeches which members may choose to write out themselves will, together with the message of the President of the United States, the reports of the Excentive Departments, and the laws passed by Congress, be added in an appendix. Formerly 1 received subscriptions for the Congressional Globe and Appendix separately. But this has not been found satisfactory, masmuch as it gave an incomplete view of the transactions in Congress; and therefore I have concluded not to sell them apart, considering that neighbors can have the advantage of both by club

To facilitate the circulation of the Congressional Globe, and cheapen it to subscribers, Congress passed last year a joint resolution making it free of postage. I annex it, as the law may not be accessible to postmasters generally:

To cure a cold, with Headache and soreness of the body, take the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, and wrap up warm, to sweat during the night.

For a cold and cough, take it morning, noon, and evening, according to directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will soon be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble when they find it can be so readily cured. Persons afflicted with a seated cough, which breaks them of their rest at night, will find, by taking the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of sound, unbroken sleep, and consequently refreshing rest. Great relief from suffering, and an ultimate cure, is afforded to thourands who are thus afflicted, by this invaluable remedy.
