The Cities of the Principalities of a State of Siege-Sailing of the Turkish Fleerfor the Black Sea. obstacle, to the bank held by the Russians. October 24th, having passed and gone, without any movement, on the part of the Russians, to show that they intended to retreat, the Turkish comman-der waited only for a suitable opportunity, which, on the 27th of October he found, and immediately threw across a strong body of both infantry and cavalry, into the town or village of Kalafat, a po-sition recently evacuated by the Russians. The crossing was made in tront of and under cover of the fort of Widdin; and although the previous occu-pation of the islands rendered the movement more easily accomplished, there was still a distance pation of the islands rendered the inversion more easily accomplished, there was still a distance of 500 io 600 yards in width of rapid stream be-tween the most outlying of the islands and the Russian bank. The passage was however, effected with out opposition. It remains to be seen whether Omar Pacha would further keep his word, by passing the 1st of November in Bucharest. The reason assign ed for leaving Kalafat, by the Russians, was that cholera was prevailing there. Our correspondent here mentions a rumor that was afloat, and which subsequent advices might prove true or might not, that to n the 24th the Rus-sians returned in force upon Kalalat, and deleated the Turks. The rumor referred to distinctly stated the 24th as the day of the supposed defeat, and the 23d as the day on which the Turks crossed. Pre-vious advices, probably authentic, state that the passage was effected on the 27th. Prince Paskiewitch had left St. Petersburg for Bacherset is the supposed of the Director Bucharest, to take command of the Russian army in the Principalities. The main force of the Ru and the Finiteparties. The main inter of the lass stans is near Bucharest, where they have some hun-dred heavy cannon posted. A steamer, which reach-ed Dzudzwru on the 19th, brought information to eu Dzutdzwru on the 1911, orougat miormation to the Russians that a strong force of Turks under the personal superintendence of Omar Pacha, stood op-nosite Kalafat. The same arrival reports that the Russians were working day and night, by relays, at intrenchments, which extend from Swirda to Dzurdzwru. These tidings strengthen the proba bilities that a collision has ere now taken place.

Respecting the diplomatic movements of the Powers, the Journal des Debats learns from Constantinople, that, on the 21st Oct. M. de Bruck, the Austrian Interninnicio, had an interview with the Sultan, and handed to him a new project of note, with the callection with the collective guarantee, it is said, of the four Powers, whose representatives have assembled anew at Vienna, that it would be accepted by Russia.-The terms of the note did not transpire, but at the termination-of-the interview, a message was immediately depatched to Omar Pacha, to direct him to wait some time before commencing hostilities.— That circumstance led to a belief in Constantantinople, that the note was of a nature to be accepted by the Divan.

To the above statement was added, from anothe source, that the Czar had declared his acceptance of the note on condition that England and France guaranteed its acceptance by the Porte, which, it is understood, both England and France declined, neither being disposed to use coercion The Czar took the opportunity of stating that this was the last proposition he would make or accep-and the king of Prussia had given notice on his part that if the note were now rejected, he would with-draw altogether from any interference in the matter.

It is unlikely that the Sultan will take the re-sponsibility of changing his measures, on the faith of the despatch, although he may have sent orders to Omar to delay active hostilities. The Grand Council will probably be again assembled to consult on the subject. There are also rumors of the near retirement of Reschid Pacha from the ministry, which it was thought might tend to accelerate an understanding with the ambassadors. HOSTILITIES GOING ON BRISKLY IN WALLACHIA.-By sub-marine Telegraph to London, information has been received that light to both going on briskly in Wallachia. Two thousand Turks (no date given) appeared at Ginogeos and fired upon the town. This brought on an engagement with the Russians. A force was dispat to the assistance of the place, and a considerable slaughter ensued.

Another encounter took place between 4000 urks and about the same number of Russian ca-Turks and about the same number of Russian civalry, between Kalafort and Suthia, when the Ru forces had to fall back. THE WAR IN CIRCASSIA.-From the last accounts received at Constantinogle, via Trebisonde, it seems certain that the Circassians and men of Daghestan have begun the war with spirit. al thousand of these mountain warriors have decen ped on the fortresses on the eastern coast of the Black Sea, from Soujouk Kale to Navoghinskoi; and in Daghestan, the tribes undes Schamyl have attacked the Russian troops occupying the banks of the Terek.
