Youth, Age, Style, Taste, Beauty and Fashion. The seasons of life should be arranged like those of the year. In the spring of youth, when all is lovely and gay, then as the ture, in brightness and beauty, so let the dresspar-take of the season. Fine taste, as well as fashion, decrees the necessity of nicely adapted garments to age, circumstances and seasons. The man whose head is silvered with age, who feels not the blood of youth dancing warmly in his voins, should not run into extremes of dress, nor yet should he permit his clothing to be so far behind the times as to render him ridiculous. (Signed.) JOHN TUCKER, President. Augusta, Ga., September 29, 1852. Steam Planing Mills. Dear Sir: You ask me for my opunion of "Sil-ver's Mineral Paints," which you have put on my Machine Shop and Planing Mill. I give you with pleasure my full and hearty recommendation of it as a preventive of Fire communicating from Chim-neys, or from adjoining buildings. The Paint which you put on my roofs, has now become as hard as you put on my roofs, has now become as hard as date, and I feel as secure from Fire, in this direcion, as is possible. A few weeks alter the roots ad been painted, I made an experiment on two or hree shingles by placing them in the furnace under the boilers; the result was, that the portion uncov-ered was entirly consumed, while the painted part was apparently sound, though upon examination the wood was found to be charred; the Paint how ever was firm and but little bistered.
