The result has heretofore been uniform. These nostrums have indeed imparted a momentary vi-vacity to the nervou- system, a transient and delu-sive vigor to the muscles; but this flash of reliet has been succeded by a depression and prostration greater than before, and the end has the offene of the nerves, and the vital organization, and finally to destroy the unhappy patient. Every woman of sense, who suffers irom weakness, derangement, nervousness, tremors, pains in the back, or, any other disorder, whether peculiar to her sex, or common in both seces—to give the Invigorating cordial 4 trial.
