The Fighting Preacher.

WESTERN ITINERANTS FORTY YEARS AGO. The Western itinerants, (who were the legis ful-minea of the American ministry of their day,) were usually brawny, athletic men, physically, if not, mentally, educated almost to perfection. They had occasion sometimes to preach to their rude hearers with the stout fists, as well as their stentorian plexions. lungs. 'At a camp meeting,' says Mr. Finley, 'a row was raised, on Saturday, by about twenty lewd tellows of the baser sort, who came-upon the ground intoxicated, and had vowed they would break up the meeting. One of the preachers went would to the leader for the purpose of getting him to leave; but this only enraged him, and he struck the preacher a violent blow on the face, and knocked him down. Here the conflict began. The mem-bers saw that they must either defend themselves him lower, the the context began.
