low, according to their own option. The appointments of the house are of the most approved modern style. The first two floors are arranged in suites of rooms, with parlors and bed-rooms.— On the third, fourth and fitth stories, the rooms—each fourteen test square, with fitteen feet ceilings—are so arranged as to communicate, af-fording ample accommosations for families, and extending imple accommodations for an income account extending from the Broadway front (fifty feet) along the Frankin street side of the building, a distance of one hundred and fifty feet—the apartments on each of these floors being all connected together in suites of rooms to shit the requirements of guests The fitting up of these apartments is in the best style of modern art. On the first and second floors, the ceilings and walls are richly freescoed; and on the three upper stories they are handsomely finish ed in fine oil painting. The furniture of the house has been selected with a view to the combination of elegance and comfort, and it is hoped that nothing is left to be desired in this respect. The Proprietor desires especially to call the attention of the public to the fact, that passengers arriving in the city by the Boston or late night trains, will be furnished with suitable accommodation at all hours of the night. The International Hotel will be under the direct superintendence of Mr. William Hemingway. The Proprietor, grateful for the patronage hith erto bestowed so liberally upon him, respectfully requests a continuance of public favor.
