Youth, Age, Style, Taste, Beauty and Fashion.—The seasons of life should be arraged like those of the year. In the spring of youth, when all is lovely and gay, then as the green cover is spread on all the face of smiling nature, in brightness and beauty, so let the dress partake of the season. Fine taste, as well as fashion, decrees the necessity of nicely adapted garments to age, circumstances and seasons. The man whose head is silvered with age, who feels not the whose head is silvered with age, who feels not the blood of youth dancing warmly in his veins, should not run into extremes of dress, nor yet should he permit his clothing to be so far behind the times as to render him ridiculous. There is a becoming fashionable dress, suitable for the age and seasons of life as well as the seasons of the year. You can of life as well as the seasons of the year. HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS.

No part of the system is more liable to disease than the LIVER it serving as a filterer to purily disorder itself, but rebuild the broken constitution. The derangements of the system, leading to nervous diseases, and the forms of dervous diseases itself are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladles for which this preparation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, viz: nenralgia, tic delereaux, headache, incipient baralysis, hystoria, palpitation of the heart, spinal affections, miscular debility, tremors flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh numbness, torpidity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will; indisposition to move, faintness after exercises, broken sleep and nove, faintness after exercises, broken sleep and terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place or position, weakness of the procreative organs, sexual incompetency; melancholy, monomanin, fluor albus, sinking of the stomach, female irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscarriage, cma-ciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the pastions and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from mallormation or strictural diseases, it is aver-red that Morse's invigorating Ellair will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural activity, and this not only without hazard of relaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization. Bear in mind that all maladics, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralization of the nerves of motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elizer Cordial is the only reli-
