Youth, Age, Style, Taste, Beauty and Fashion.-The seasons of life should b and Fashion. — The seasons of the seat of the should be arraged like these of the year. In the spring of youth, when all is 1 vely and gay, then as the green cover is spread on all the face of smiling na-ture, in brightness and beauty, so let the dress par-take of the s-ason. Finc taste, as well as fashion, decrees the necessity of nicely, adapted garments to age, circumstances and sensons. The man whose head is silvered with age, who feels not the blood of youth dancing warmhy in his verues, should not run into extremes of dress, nor yet should he permit his clothing to be so far behind the times a render him ridiculous. There is a becomin Is because in relations. There is a becoming fashionable dress, suitable for the age and seasons of bite as well as the seasons of the year. You can be suited in handsome style in clothing that is well and fashionably made, of good materials that will fit well and become the figure and season, at the great Clothing Barage of great Ciothing Bazaar of
