Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial.—A Phenomenon in Medicine. Health treatored and Life lengthened, by Dr. Morse's Invision of the length of the ore unheard of, in this, or any other country. A first the properties attributed to Prof. Morse's In-vigorating Elizer or Cordial were deemed fabu-lous. The public often deceived could not believe the simple and subjime truths announced by the coverer. But facts, undentable facts attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumphing over all doubts. Incredulity is overthrown, by a mass of testimony which is perfectly irresuitable.

The Elizer remedies, in all cases, the deplorable evils arising from a imisuse or douse of the various organs which make up the wonderful machine called man. It restores to full vigor every delicate lunction connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, necessary to the re-production of human life. To persons of feeble-muscular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communicating that nergy which is necessary to the proper en-joyment of the natural appetites as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are 100 confined to either see or change are. The fee not confined to either sex or to any age. The fec-ble girl, the aiting wife, the listless, enervated youth, the overworn man of hissiness, the victim of nervous debitity, or from the weakness of a single organ, will sill find immediate and perma nent relief from the use of this; incomparable ren-ovator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis it will prove a complete and unfailing safeguard against that terrible malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so triffed with their con-stitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elizer deals with disease as it exists, without reference to cases, and will not only remove the not confined to either sex or to any age. The fee The Elizer deals with disease as it exists, without reference to cases, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but rebuild the broken constitution.

The derangements of the system, leading to nervous diseases, and the forms of nervous diseases itself are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this preparation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, viz: neuralgia, tic dolereaux, headache, incipient paralysis, hystoria, palpitation of the heart, spinal affections, muscular debility, tremors flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh tremors flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh aumbness, torpidity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indisposition to move, faintness after exercises, broken sleep and terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place or position, weakness of the procreative organs, according to the procreative organs, and the procreative organs are procreated to the procreative organs. sexual incompetency, melancholy, monomania, fluor albus, sinking of the stomach, female irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscarriage, ema-ciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the pasiions and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from malformation or strictural diseases, it is averred that Morse's invigorating [Elixir will replace weakness with strongth, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural activity, and irregularity with uniform and natural activity, and this not only without hazard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization. Bear in mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralization of the nerves of motion and sentation is physical death. death. The mental and physical symptoms of nervous disease vanish altigether under its influence. Nor is the effect temporary; on the contrary, the relief is permanent, for the cordial properties of the medicine reach the constitution itself, and restore to its nominal condition. Well may the preparation be called the medicinal wonder of the nineteenth century. It is as the first scientific the nineteenth century. It is, as the first scientific man in the world would have admitted, that mira cle of medicine heretofore supposed to have no ex-

The effect of these is brief, and it may well be said of him who takes them, "that the last state of that man is worse than the first." But the Elixer is an exhiberan without a single drawback—safe in its operation, percetual in its drawback—safe in its operation, perpetual in its happy influence upon the nerves, the mind, and the entire organization; it will also remove depression, excitement, a tendency to blush, sheeplessness, dislike of society, incapacity for study or business. A GREAT MEDICINE FOR FEMALES.—The unparallelied effects of this great restorative, in all complaints incident to Females, mark a new era in the annals of medicine. Thousands of stimu lants have been invented—thousands of invigorants concocted—all purporting to be specified in the various diseases and derangements to which the delicate formation of works condens. delicate formation of woman render her liable.—
The result has heretofore been uniform. These costrums have indeed imparted a momentary vivacity to the norvous system; transient and delicative vigor to the muscles; but this flash of relief has peen succeeded by a depression and prostration greater than before, and the end has too often bee greater than before, and the end has too often been utterly to paralyze the rocupérative power of the nervee, and the vital organization, and finally to destroy the unhappy patient. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-district, love of solitude, timidity, &c. are some of the evils produced. All thas afflicted before contemplating marriage should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness: indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage the prospect hourly darkens the view; the mind, becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melapcholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with your own.
