A Baby ELEPHANT, only one year old, and but 3½, feet high, will carry upon his back around the interior of the immense Pavilion, the Lilliputian GENE RAL TOM THEM. The Magnificent Cortege comprises 149 Horses and 100 men. The Pavilion of Exhibition has been enlarged until it is capable of accommodating 15,000 spectators at once. The collection of living wild animals includes the most splendid specimens, ever exhibited in America. Among many others will be found Effelt BEAUTIFIL LIONS, fresh from their native forests. A MONSTER WHITE OR POLAR BEAK.—O proadjous size and fencity.

A PAIR OF YOUNG LIONS,—only six months old. Brazilian TigergyBlack and Poonah Bears, Hyenas, Ac. The drove of ELEPHANTS were captured in the Jungles of Central Ceylon, by Messer, S. B. June and Geo. Nutter, assisted by 200 Natives, after a pursuit of three months and four days in the Jungles. They were finally entrapped and secured in an Indian Kraal or Trap of enormous dimensions and prodigious strength, where they were subdued.

MUSEUM OF WONDERS! Which comprises a greater variety of Attractions, and upore extraordinary novelties, than any Travelling Exhibition in the world. Every feature of this mammoth establishment is of a pseudiar and interesting nature, and the whole is produced upon a gigan-teresting nature, and the whole is produced upon a gigan-tie scale of magnitude. The travelling parapherantia of the American Museum, as it enters each town, is preceded by the gorgeous CAR OF JUGGENNAUT, drawn by eight Elephants, superbly caparisoned, being an accurate model of that terrible engine of idolatrous scriftce, finished and decorated in all the extravagance of Hindos style. Following this monster vehicle, is a long procession of costly Cages and Carriages, the whole forming a spectacle of more than Oriental sphendor. The Exhibition will take place within a magnificent variegated Pavilion, composed of American Flags, of water-proof fabric. The red continu

OEO SANDERSON. OEO. SANDERSON,

Valuable List of Text Books for General Instruction in the United States, and especially adapt to the schools of Lancastor county. Published by A.S. Barnes & Co., 51 John street, New York, pnd sold by Munax & Stoek, Lancaster. The attention of teachers and the friends of Education generally, is invited to the following educational works.

New and improved editions of several of these works have recently been published, and the publishers will conce to the most approved edition of their several Text-Books, and thus provide a series of Standared Books for our Union School Districts and townships, that can be regarded as a modern, uniform and permanent series, and render entirely unnecessary those frequent changes in school books that have heretofore been so perplexing, expensive and annoying to both teacher and parent,

The list embraces some of the most approved Text-Books, in the various depaatments of study, viz:

For Reading Books—Parker's sories are regarded the most thorough by a multitude of the best teachers. They are adopted by the schools of Lancaster city.

For English Grammar.—S. W. Clark's System is superseding the old Grammars heretofore published. His system of diagrams is the ne plus ultry for oral teaching.

For Spelling and Good Pronunciation.—No teacher will fail to appreciate Price's Spelling Book, Wright's Orthography, Martin's Orthoepist, and Northend's bletation Exercises.

For Rhetoric, Oratory and Choice Reading,—Professor Valuable List of Text Books for General

ercises.

For Rhetoric, Oratory and Choice Reading.—Professor Day's Art of Rhetoric is pronounced, by the best judges, as being greatly in advance of every other work on this subject.

Northend's Little Speaker. American Speaker and School
Listogras, and Zachoc. Now. American Speaker and School ject.

Northend's Little Speaker. American Speaker and School Dialogues, and Zachos' New American Speaker, contain the choleest selection of pieces (oratorical, postural and declamatory) ever embraced in four volumes.

Parkor and Zachos' Introductory Lessons in Reading and Elecution, will be found a valuable hand-book for every teacher and normal school student.

Professor Boyd, of Genova, has laid our Seminaries and Academies under lasting obligations of the English Peeta, viz. Milton's Paradise Lost, Cowper's Task, Table Talk, &c., Thomson's Seasons, Young's Night Thoughts. Those works need only to be known to be appreciated. Pollock's Course of Times is in press.

For History and Geography.—Mrs. Willard's History of the United States and Universal History, with her incomparable Charts, are not equalided in excellence by any other author.

Monteith's Youth's Manual of Geography, just published, has already been adopted in the ward and public schools of the city of New York (by take the place of Smith and Mitchell's Primary Geography.) A more advanced work on Geography for higher classes, to follow Monteith's Manual, prepared by Francis M'Nally, will be published in January, 1855.

For Arithmetic and Mathematics.—Professor Dayles' System is now regarded the National Season and the season and the property of the System is now regarded the National Season before the
