HONESDALE, Pa., Tuesday, Dec. 5, '54 A Judge against the Know Nothings-Wayne County, (Pa.) Quarter Sessions-Dec. Tor 1854

At the present term of our Court, his Honor James M. Porter, President Judge, after recapitulating the provisions of the Constitu-tion of the United States, and of this State, in regard to the rights of conscience, and other civil rights of the citizen, whether native or Beeription. 47 Money can be ave do de allow of the line in the interview of the original states, and of this State, in regard to the rights of conscience, and other civil rights of the otizzen, whether native of the otizzen, the state and Personal Property. By thrue of an order, of the otizzen, native or naturalized, of any right or rights, given and secured to him by the Constitution and lars of Pennsyl, and the outset of the otizzen.

 His Honor told the Grand Jury, in strong and dicaded language, that if they, or any nor the same to this Court, by indictment, the same to the existence of any such combination or if the same to the same to this Court, by indictment, the same to the cattere.

Disappointed Politicians.-It is a striking feature of the political campaign this fall; that in almost every state in the Union disappointed and decayed politicians have enjoyed a kind of jubilee. Those who have been gorged with office, and allowed to retire, and who for any reason have been laid on the shelf in their respective localities, have taken occasion this year to emerge from their hiding places, and at once to gratify their private revenges, and make a new effort for a fresh share of spoils. Wherever the fusion movement has prevailed these men have been among its prime leaders; wherever the secret order been organized they have been sachems in the tribe; wherever the anti-Nebraska war cry has been popular they have almost split their throats by joining in it. In the hour of calm repose they were quiet as the grave, or, if they throats by j attempted to make mischief, they were res-trained by the people, who knew their histo-ries. But, with the confusion and excitement of 1854, they have gloried in the opportunity to show themselves, and even claim now to be the most pure and patriotic and worst used persons the republic ever had. It is unnecessary to call names in order to describe them. In the Morrill ranks of this State, in the Pollock ranks of Pennsylvania, in the antiadministration ranks of Illinois and Indiana, and Ohio and New Hampshire, the same characters show themselves by unmistakable signs. They have generally corrupt histories. sour tempers, and a hatred of all politicians more honest than themselves. Some of them may succeed, for a brief period, in getting places once more at a public crib, and in satsfying a little their personal resentments; but they will have short terms and early punishment.—Easton (Maine) Argus.

AP KOSSCTII, according to reports, is preparing for a revolutionary attempt in Lurope as soon as the proper time may arrive. We may then look for a revival of the Kossuth hate and revolutionary fashions. But we have so doubt the Philadelphia public, no matter what may be the changes in dress, will still continue to provide themseisand with clothing from ROCKIIILL & WillsON's cheap and elegant clothing store.
