A GREAT MEDICINE FOR FEMALES.—The unparallelled effects of this grent restorative, in all complaints incident to Females, mark a new era in the annals of medicine. Thousands of stimulants have been invented—thousands of invigorants concocted—all purporting to be specified in the various diseases and derangements to which the delicate formation of woman render her hable.— The result has heretofore been uniform. These nostrums have indeed imparted a moment vacity to the nervous system, a transient an sive vigor to the muscles; but this flash of relief has been succeeded by a depression and prostration greater than before, and the end has too often been utterly to paralyze the rocuperative power of the nerves, and the vital organization; and finally to destroy the unhappy patient.
