were equal to their position, and Louis Napo-leon knew it. He did not want Schastopol to necessary. Neither Raglan nor Canrobert were equal to their position, and Louis Napoleon knew it. He did not want Schastopol to be taken this winter. He knew that short of a butchery, of which the history of war affords no parallel, that place could not be carried.—

He determined that Sebastopol should subserve a mighty political purpose.

For this, he has been delaying supplies, while he has concentrated his forces in France. An overwhelming army is gathering on the Prussian frontier. At Marsellles, Toulon and Algiers, a flotilla, to be reinforced by English yessels, will be ready to sail with 70,000 men on March 15th. On the arrival of this armada in the Crimea, the Emperor will leave Paris, and appear in person before Sebastopol. A coup de main, upon a gigantic scale, will be attempted. Sebastopol will fall. The elated army, flushed with the feat, will sweep over the Crimea, and coupy the Isthmus of Perekop. After a campaign which willendure a fortnight, Louis Napoleon will return to Paris, where the suddenness of his departure and the promptness of his return will find all conspiracies unprepared for development, and where the glower of the results of th prepared for development, and where the glory of his victory will scatter all further treasou to the winds. "Such is the campaign contemplated by Louis Napoleon. Be assured that if Providence does not interfere, it will take place as I have said. Collaterally with the departure of the Emperor for the East, the French army on the Prussian frontier will operate upon Rhenish Prussia. A note will be sent to the King of Prussia, demanding free passage for the French troops through his dominions, which if refuted ns, which if refuted. they will advance to the Rhine.

If the above prove to be correct, Louis Na-poleon has out-played the whole world. We have only been creating a monster in Schastopol; we have been endowing it with terrors, so as to appreciate the feat in contemplation by the astute Emperor of achieving a great Russian victory where his uncle encountered his most disastrous defeat.

Louis Napoleon is going to the Crimea We give the following extraordinary intelligence to our readers. We are not permitted to name our authority. It will suffice to say that by the last mails a letter was received from Paris by an individual in this city. We have been permitted to publish a translation of a portion of this correspondence.

"The Emperor has foreseen all the calamites and reverses of Sebastopol ever since the allied army sat down before the city. St. Arnaud was a trooper (pandour.) he might have taken the place by a charge of cavalry at the first onset, but failing that, a seige became necessary. In the same spot of magnificent rural scenery are to be found most excellent sanative springs, containing wonderful virtues only to be found in fresh water. These springs yield an abundance of water, clear arrystal of a cold temperature, (46 degrees Fahrenheit), soft and pleasant taste, rery refreshing without any strange admixture or nauseous smell.
In this beautiful spot of ground Dr. Leisering, encouraged by such a happy combination of circumstances, has established a HYDROPATHIC INSTITUTE.

HYDROPATHIC INSTITUTE, in order that these benificent gifts of nature, patiently applied, might be of advantage to suffering humanity. It was at Ephrata in Lancaster county, that Dr. Leisering, in the years 1845—1848, performed wonderful cures on persons laboring under diseases, and especially on such as resolutely persevered in his mode of treatment. He has done the same, and more besiede, from 1848 up to the present day, at his Mountain Home.

It is well known, for these 14 years, that he is no dealer, in humbugs. From nearly all Counties in the State, Dr. Leisering has been requested by persons afflicted with disease, to afford them an opportunity of seeing him, that they might personally consult him in regard to their own complaints. STARTLING BUT TRUE WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW

How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pitiable condition as not oven for one day to feel the happy and exhibitating influence incident to the enjoyment of health. THE BLOOMING BRIDE. BLOOMING BLOOMING BUILDING.
But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and buoyaney of spirits drapidly, and apparently in explicably, becomes a felche, sielly, sailow, debilitated wife, with frame practiced, never unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the impress of suffering, and an uttop physical and mental prostration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health at councied with the marrings glate, the violation of which cutails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often manner, and any lating they must propare HEREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN numining CONSUMPTION, SCROPULA KING'S EVIL, and other and worse Diseases, as a DREADFUL INHERITANCE FROM TILL PARLINTS.

"And must this continue? Must this Le? Is there are remedy? No relief? No fope?? The remedy is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and knowing the reladious, and kenediting by them. These are pointed out in the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to bundles, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thomsands both in person and by letter. Hero every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, auses of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of struction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health in respect to which her sensitiveness forblds consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion auxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregular-Ities peculiar to the female system, which an lermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many suffering from prolapsus uteri (talling of the womb), or from fluor albus (wealiness, debility, &c.) Many are n constant agony for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncortain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such tinde, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amblioration and relief.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. Reader, age you a husband or a father? a wife or a mother? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and luse no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and hanpiness not less than your own. It will avaid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and anxiety, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avecation, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of
