of those who advertuse to cure the discase of which it treats is a graduate of one of the best Colleges in the United Steteg. Jon. S. LONGBHORE, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. Universi-ty, Philadelphia.—It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of dis-

of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of dis-ease of the Gental Organs, some of them of long standing, have came under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in cases where the patient has been consid-ered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seminal weakness, or disarrangement of the function inal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by self-absues, or ercess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indisretion, to recommend him as one in whose pro cretion, to recommend nim as one in whose pro-fessional skill and integrity they may salely confide themselves. ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D. "This is without exception, the most compre-hensive and intelligent work published on the class of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all techpical terms it addresses itself to the reason of its nical terms, it had resses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to placing it into the hands of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and, with too little breath to puff, and too little presumption to im-pose, he has offered to the world, at the merely pose, he has offered to the world, at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruit of some twenty years' most successful practice."—Herald.
