Jackson, C. H., Jackson City, O., 20th Nov., 1852.

Dr. J. C. Ayen,—Sir: The Gerear Property is much in quired after. Several of our best physicians have used it, three of them in their own case, and always with the happlest effects. The numerons patant medicines always before them, lead to incredulity in regard to every new remedy; and it is only after undoubted evidence of value in any article, that anything like a general confidence can be excited. The unrivalled excellence of this combination of agent The unrivalled excellence of this combination of agents (in the Christy Percotact,) proved beyond cavil by repeated trial under their own observation, has compelled medication to proclaim shroad its usefulness. It is beyond all doubt the best general remedy we have for the Pulmonary Affections of this climate, at the same time time seedative and expectorant—a rare combination of properties. In the hope that it will prove its own reward, it subscribe myself,

Dear Sir—No one, no not one—man, woman or child—can be found to deny that the CHERRY PROTORAL is all that it claims to be. There is much used in this vicinity, although not known until recently. The community should know its virtues.

Yours truly,

JOHN R. KELLOGG, M. D.

Williamsburg, L. I., Sep. 3, 1852.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, Dear Sir—Over application for the past three years to my duties as an advocate brought on some eight months ago a sovere irritation of the bronchial tubes which was a constant annoyance to me, and fast becoming a source of great apprehension. Every remedy tried, falled even to relieve me, till I used your CREARY PECTORAL—This has not only relieved me, but as I trust, wholly cured me. I care nothing for the reputation of Advocating Patent Medicines, and this is at your service. I shall recommend it to members of the bar, and others whom I may meet, laboring under similar indispositions.

Yours truly,

R. F. JONES.

South Paris, Me., Aug. 18, 1850.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, Dear Sir—I have used your admirable compound extensively in my practice, and find it to sur pass, by far, any other remedy we have for curing diseases upon the lungs.

Your obt. servant,
R. B. JONES, M. D.

What yet remains to convince the most incredulous that the Cherry Pectoral is all that it purports to be viz: an unequalled remedial agent for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. The experience of years, has proven it to be such, and we submit it to the people, believing that its virtues will fully maintain its reputation. rull fully maintain its reputation.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE!

Dr. LEIDY CURES HUNDREDS MONTHILY:
many, wrongly treated by inexperienced Doctors; many, deceived by the lying boasts, promises and preteneos of Quacks and impostors, and by their so-called, newly discovered rend ies, &c., consisting of "Mercury and dangerous or poweroul drugs," injuring the constitution, shortening life, and more often killing than curing.

Dr. LEIDY cures hundreds also, who have been deceived by false receipts and advice in books, purposely published by Quacks and Impostors, to increase suffering; exaggerating diseases, habits or abuses, with their consequences, most alarmingly, and beyond possibility, reality, credulity or belief expecting, by such base trickery, falsity and imposition, to alarm and frighten the unsuspecting and unthinking, in hopes of receiving or extorting from them large foes for curing, which they cannot do, but pocket the fees, not caring for consequences, leaving them to their own mortification afterwards at being so easily deceired and to seek relief elsewhere.

To all Foreign or Native Quacks, Humbugs and Impostors, Dr. Leidy would say, in the language of Shakspeare:

"O Heaven! that such foul wretches thou'dst unloose, And put in every honest hand a whip

To lash the rascals naked through the world."

y, Philadelphia.—It gives me pleasure to add my estimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of disease of the Gental Organs, some of them of long standing, have came under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect realth, in cases where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Semared beyond medicat and in the treatment of our inal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by self-abuse, or excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. I have not know his superior in the profession. I have been acquainted with the Authorsome thirty years, been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well a kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretion, to recommend him as one in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.

ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D.

This is without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligent work published on the class of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all techof diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to and no parent, however landdlous, can object to placing it into the hands of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and, with too little breath to puff, and too little presumption to impose, he has offered to the world, at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruit of some twenty vears' most successful practice." -- Herald. "No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this invaluable work. It would save years of pain, mortification and sorrow to the youth under their charge."--People's Advo-

A Presbyterian clergyman in Ohio, writing o "Hunter's Medical Manual" says:—"Thousands upon thousands of our youth, by evil example and influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution, without realizing the sin and fearful consequences upon themselves and and tearful consequences upon themselves and their posterity. The constitution of thousands who are raising families have been enfeebled, if not broken down, and they do not know the cause or the cure. Anything that can be done so to enlighten and influence the public mind as to check, and ultimized the contract of the constitution of the constitut timately to remove this wide-spread source of hu-man wretchedness, would confer the greatest blessing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generations. Intemperance (or the use of intoxicating drinks) though it has slain thousands, is not a greater scourge to the human race.
