We have late advices from Utah. There is no important news to reported on the mountains. The Indians returned the stock they had stolen, and are desirous to make amends for past transgressions. Everything is quiet in that quarter.

A severe thunder storm passed over our city on Thesday lat. The lightning struck the Varieties Theatre, making a hole in, the roof, and the fluid, after passing through the paint-room, run into the ground without doing any other damage.

The steamer Winchester, on her way to Alton, was caught in this storm, and both of her chimneys were blown down—one of which fell overboard and the other on the hurricane deck. This storm extended to the town of Arcadia, in Madison county, and the lightning struck an outbuilding connected with the High School of that place, where about 100 pupils are boarding. From all quarters of this State, Illinois and Iowa, we have the gratifying intelligence of an abundant fruit crop. The weather has been quite favorable, and the trees are full of blossoms, and the advanced season leaves but little apprehension of its being blighted from trost. The only fears now entertained are the hall storms, which are of frequent occurrence in the construction.

are the hail storms, which are or frequent occurrence in this country.

Substantial Patriotism. In 1780, Gen. Washington had been compelled to appeal to individuals for aid in order, to avoid the establishment of a bank, for the supply of the army with provisions. The sum of £300.000 was needed, and of this the memhers of the Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick subscribed as follows:

"Robert Morris, £10,000; Blair McClanahan, £10,000; Wm. Bingham, £2,000; J. M. Nesbitt & Co., £5,000; Richard Peters, £5,000; Samuel Meredith, £5,000; James Mease, £5, 000; Thos Barclay, £5,000; Hugh Shell, £5, 000; John Dunlap, £5,000; George Campbell, $2,000; John Mease, £5,000; Banner, Murray & Co., $\pi\bar{E}_0,000; John Patton, £2,000; Benj. Fuller, $\pi\bar{E}_0,000; George Mende & co., $\pi\bar{E}_0,000; John Donaldson, £3,000; Henry Hill, $\pi\bar{E}_0,000; John Donaldson, $\pi\bar{E}_0 £5,000; Kean & Nicholas, £5,000; James Caldwell, £2,000; Samuel Caldwell, £1,000 John Shee, £2,000; Sharp Delany, £2,000; Tench Francis, £5,000.

Here were more than £100,000, Pennsylvania currency, equal to $270,000, being more than one-third of the whole amount raised, contributed by these gallant Irishmen, a sum, taking into view the scarcity of money during that period of the Revolution, of greater value than three millions of dollars now, and of which not one dollar was ever repaid the subacribers

These facts may be found in a duodecimo volume of 112 pages, containing a "brief acconut of the Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, with biographical notice of some of the members, and extracts from the minutes." prepared and published by order of the Hipernian Society.

For the Intelligencer.

MR. Editor:—Should a man undertake to answer Mn. Editor:—Should a man undertake to answer the gibberings of a monkey, give echo to the cackle of sitiy geese, or pay back, in kind, the snort of a porcine patriarch, he might raise a laugh;—but it would be against him. So I think, and thinking so, have really little inclination to notice the "snortey-yows"—who on all hands, are barking at and making queer noises, to frighten me into silence. Genuine I hunder, always wins to itself respect; but we don't often have it in terrible reality, from a cesspool. Some of our senses may be affected by the emanations from such necessary evils, but not to such an extent as to produce a fear of their power. Beides, we must reflect, that they are productive of great benefit to the vegetable kingdom, and as such may be tolerated. It is related by Boccacio, that a fellow, setting out upon a journey, was much annoyed and irritated by the incessant chirruping of grass-hoppers. Excited by anger, he was almost every moment springing from his horse, in order to silence hoppers. Excited by anger, he was almost every moment springing from his horse, in-order to silence summarily, some one or other, of the no.sy crew. In consequence of this querulous disposition, upon the part of our traveler, he made but little progress, and sat down at the end of the first day almost within the shadow of his own domicil—his starting point.—If I shall take warning from the example of the foolish traveler, I think that even my 'Thuggish' friends must commend my discretion—however much they may curse its application.

The hifalutin bombast of "Slippery Elm," the puns—(oh! most execrable!) of our curly Daniel," the two-penmy whistle or 'Lenjamin,' taken in connection with the babblings of the "Hairy Tailor," the inanities of "Hercules," the whinings of the "billious Watchmaker," and the lucid, sparkling, and witty quips of the cricket "Pettifogger," are in my opinion only a concert of grasshopper music. I may err in judgment,—but upon my word, I look at it in that way. They with one voice, curse, as it were, with one accord, make ugly faces, and "mow" in unison their condemnation of "Anon." They don't care," not a bit—not they—who "he' is; but scarcely an old 'pretzel woman' or scissors-grinder passes unquestioned upon this matter of identity.—In the meanwhile, I pursue "the even tenor of my way," have my eye upon the "assassins," and in fact am only getting ready to go at them, in grand style. I shall examine their claims, jointly and severally, to gentility, decency, honesty—moral and political—and their title to the respect of their fellow men, and—"the rest of mankind." I shall, I think, prove some professed patriots to be but miserpolitical—and their title to the respect of their feliow men, and—with rest of mankind." I shall, I think, prove some professed patriots to be but miserable poltroon; moral reformers, but worn out debauchees; professors of political honesty, the most degraded and despicable of toad-eaters; whilst those who speak of Truth and Candor, as their governing virtues, shall stand denuded of the cloak which hides their Hypoerisy. I think, sir, that I can show, by tracing the ancestral line of some of our Patriots, that their progenitors were simply Tories; of others, the convicted felons of foreign lands; and of not a few, but beggarly adventurers, the objects of the pity and compassion of our foreiathers. But of these facts the reflecting world, is already pretty well convinced, and the tremendous efforts that the "assassins" are now making to get character, prove them positively.

The conspiracy has in it some dupes, some fools, and a great many scoundrels. The latter, as a class, aspire to office, and how they fill it, is becoming a matter of history. Our present Legislature, affords one example,—let the Legislature of Massachusetts —Mrs. Patterson, and all:—be a second; and let the municipal government of the City of Philadelphia, take the third place. Could a more corrupt body be gathered, even by "Thuggish' means, than that of our Solons? Where could a more debased and cowardly set of scoundrels, than the Massachusetts Legislature, be drummed up? and, 'oh,' tell me where,'
'elisature, be drummed up? and, 'oh,' tell me where,' ow men, and-"the rest of mankind."

our Solons: Where could a more debased and cow, ardly set of scoundrels, than the Massachusetts Leg islature, be drummed up? and, "oh! tell me where," more disreputable villains, than those who misrule the Quaker City? "Les Americans rule America". Yes! surely, let Americans rule! true Americans the Quaker City? "Lee Americans rule Americans—such as prove themselves by love and respect for our Constitution and our Laws,—such as have honesty, and decency of character to support them,—not cutthroats, nor assassins, the villamous dregs of society;
nor whining, smooth-faced, nasal-toned Pharisees, who seem "to worship God for spite." Not loudmouthed, hair-brained fools—a disgrace to themselves, and the people they ropresent. Not such, does our Country need in her Councils, but men whose lives have not been an embodiment of every crime under the sun. What gave birth to this monster—this *"crate ret track-on"—to quote the words of an illustrious Thug! The desire of gain—a disposition to fich from the public crib—Avarice—open and un disguised Avarice! taking to tistelf, as a hand-maiden, Bigotry! Do you ask for proofs? Ask of our Solons, why so many new charters for bogus Banks? Who suffers? who bleeds? whose pockets are pouched with the rag currency? Who stified the investigation with regard to bribery; and who voted to themselves two hundred dollars each, from the public purse?—
Shame! Shame! dollars each, from the public purse?— Shame! And this assumes to itself the name of a Reform Legislature,—an American Legi lature! A foul descoration of the name—a mise lature! A foul deseration of the name—a miserable hoax—a mean assumption of honorable character for dishonorable purposes. They say that there is "honor among thieves." The proposition is entirely false when applied to those known as "Thugs;" no such proverb finds application among them. No sir, Dishonesty has taken another name, it is—"Thuggism"! Pertinent to this, would be a a few words with regard to the conduct of certain "Thug" officials, in the infliction, collection, and dishursement of certain fines, mulets and penalties, for the violation of Sunday and License laws; no return of which has, as far as my knowledge extends, appeared in the report of and penalties, for the violation of Sunday and License laws; no return of which has, as far as my knowledge extends, appeared in the report of the County Treasurer. I defer to a future time, the further consideration of this matter; but as Thugdom must "come out of its hole," no hook shall be lost that may be turned to account.

Allow me, Mr. Editor, in conclusion to remark, that in my opinion, no better subject for the student of nature, can offer than the phenomenon of Thuggism. Let him take his stand at the vomitory of a lodge, and he shall have food for thought. There he shall see what, under the influence of Bigotry and Ignorance, becomes of poor human nature—therejwhat that noblest of animals, man may become, when fettered by the degradation of membership with oath-bound conspiracy, and midnight treason. There shall he see those whom, perhaps, under happier auspices, he may have hailed as brethren; ready now to become in fact, at the bidding of bigotry and treason, what they are in principle—assassins—a standing curse upon society. "Virtuous indignation" may attempt to reprove my strong language. Let reproof come from a pure source—let me be convineed of offence against propriety—and I shall respect it. Let my reprover be a man—an honest man—not a Thug, a creature lost to all sense of honor—a liar by open profession. That's all, just now.

FLOUR AND MEAL.—The markot generally has been very dull during the past week, and the price of Flour unsettled and drooping, showing a decline at the close of fully 25c, per bibl. There is little or no demand for export, and only some 2000@3000 bbls, have been disposed of, mostly in the formatter.

at $10,750,811 for fair finixed and good brands, and $1,1206 11,50 for extra and extra family, including half barrels at $11,25 the pair. The demand for home consumption has also been limited within the above range of prices for common brands and extra, and fancy lots at higher rates. At the close most holders are anxious to sell at our lowest figures. Corn Meal continues firm, with further sales of about 2500 barrels Pennsylvania Meal at $1,75 per bbl. including some lots sold early in the week, at a fraction less. Rye Flour is about stationary, and 66,700 bbls. found buy at $7,25 per bbl. The inspections for the week, ending the 27th instant, are 10,613 bbls. Flour, 3142 bbls. Corn Meal and 997 bbls. Rye Flour. GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat continue light, but prices, under a limited demand for milling, have receded 46,5 per bushel. Sales reach some 15,0006,20,000 bushels at 270,62.75 for reds, and 2786,282 for white, including some inferior and fair lots at less rates. The market closes with more sellers than buyers, at our lowest figures. Rye is also dull, with light receipts, and sales of Penn'a at 1486, 150 is; buyers now offer less. Corn has been very active at an advance on last week's rates, and the receipts, some 70, 000,675,000 bushels Southern and Penn'a yellow, have been taken for shipment at 1066, 1116, closing firm at 110c, affoat; included in the sales were several lots of white at 1036,0105 and some yellow to arrive at our highest figures. Out sa are rather lower, and 25,000,630,000 bushels have been old mostly at 67,686 for Delaware, and 70 for Penn'a, affoat.

Country Merchants and Postmasters can procure subscribers to, and sell "Sears" Picavial Works," make a handsome profit, and sustain no loss.

Any person wishing to embark in the enterprise, will risk little by souding to the Publisher $25, for which he will redelve sample copies of the various works (at wholesale pices) carafully boxed, insured, and directed, affording a very liberal per centage to the Agent for his trouble. With these, he will soon be able to ascertain the most sale able, and order accordingly.

To those who intend to engage in the circulation of our books, we would urge the present as the most favorable opportunity which has occurred in many years. New Advertisement.—CHEAP BUILDING LOTS A HOME WITHIN THE REACH OF EVERY MAN BY PAYING $1 A WERK.—ONE MORE OPPORTUNITY!!—Building Lots at $855; payable one dollar a week, located in the most eligible and improving part of Lancaster. In situation they are immediately within the improvements, fronting upon the best main streets, as follows:—Chesnut, Walaut, Fulton, Marion, Ann, Franklin, Marshall and Marion streets. A more desirable and beautiful locality cannot be found by persons wishing to save their money or have a pleasant home of their own near their business. It is a known fact that in this direction property within the past two years has rapidly improved, and either for the purpose of an investment or residence cannot be excelled. An opportunity is now presented to all industrious persons to obtain a home and a freehold upon terms which were never before offered, and at a price which for cheapness is unprecedented. The Lots being payable in the small sum of one dollar a week, every workingman has a chance. He would scarcely miss the outlay, whilst he would be paving his way to a competency.

There can be no better means of economizing than this; the ground is purchased at its present value, and judging from past experience and the past ratio of increase, it will be worth by the time it is paid for, three times its present price. At that time, a man can have a Lot of his own and rid himself of his landlord, or by means of thase small sarings scarcely noticed, together with the accumulation of prolits, have a sum sufficient to start him in business. Many who have made fortunes would never have been worth a cent, if by accident or otherwise they had not made a commencement and gathered together a small sum; and subsidiary to this we may well say, that the foundation of wealth is investment in real estate. If we look around amongst all our acquaintances who have attained an independence, we will find
