the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is varie consulted by thousands both in person and by letter.

Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own mptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints. The wife about becoming a mother has often need o struction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such in truction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregular ities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice.

Many suffering from prolapsus uters (failing of the womb), r from fluor allus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives an hazarded during such time, will each find in its pages the cans of prevention, amelioration and relief It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various aubjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly inlended for the married or those contemplating marriage.
